IT IS announced, in type of suitable size, that Miss Pinchot who played in "The Miracle" is now working on a fruit ranch, under an assumed name. She wishes to make good.

Having parents rich and well-known is a bad thing for children. It makes them concentrate too much on themselves and their own importance. They are so anxious to be something that they often fail to concentrate on doing something, shift from one thing to another and, in the end, do nothing. It is to be hoped that Miss Pinchot, an earnest young woman, will succeed in spite of wealth. Almost anybody can succeed in spite of poverty.

A GREAT French swimmer says women are better swimmers than men because they are more supple. Perhaps they inherit swimming ability from very remote ancestors. Our great-great-grandmothers, of the stone age, probably had to swim away from their husbands often, or from other men that captured them.

IN THE Pacific islands, anything in the shape of a canoe or boat or floating log is put under a most violent religious taboo for women. Foolish females have been persuaded that to touch a boat would be fatal. That idea was invented to keep them from getting away to another island. The conquerors of China squeezed the women's feet to prevent their running away. Soon Chinese ladies liked it as a sign of refinement. Turks locked their women in harems, and the women thought they liked that.

GOING to Europe by the southern route, landing in Naples and hurrying on to the good little restaurant, just in front of St. Peter's in Rome, you pass by the Azores. Until lately, looking at the jagged mountain line of the islands thrown up by volcanoes you said to yourself, "Well, at least they have had their volcanoes and their troubles." But you never know when you are through with mother earth. The islands are again shaken by heavy volcanoes, the port is destroyed, cables destroyed.

Swimming Is Ideal Exercise

Swimming is the most perfect exercise from the standpoint of its health-promoting value.

It stimulates the circulation of the blood, brings practically every large muscle into harmonious play, and develops fine healthy lungs.

If you can not swim you are missing one of the most valuable and enjoyable sports.

Take the first step in learning by sending for the Swimming Booklet the Washington Bureau of this paper has for distribution. It was prepared by the American Red Cross and is authoritative.

Enclose four cents in stamps for return postage and handling.

Arrangements Made for Ohio's First Triple Execution.

APPEAL BY KIN

State Board Members Decline to Recommend Leniency.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 2.—Governor Donahey will not interfere with the execution of the three alleged murderers of James McCumber, 65, of Pomeroy, scheduled for tonight at the state prison here.

James W. Huffman, executive secretary to the governor, today announced receipt of a report from Dan W. Williams and Price Russell, members of the state clemency board, in which they refused to make a recommendation of leniency.

Wife Makes Appeal.

The prisoners condemned to die are: rick, 30, and Richard Rhodes, 29, all John Bryant, 40, colored; John Hedof Pomeroy.

Appeals for clemency for the three men were lodged with Governor Donahey and members of the state board of clemency. The appeals were made by counsel for the prisoners and by Mrs. Hedrick and her 3-year-old son, who urged the governor to liberate their husband and father.

Negro First to Die.

Bryant, colored, will be the first to go to the electric chair, according to Warden P. E. Thomas, who said they would be executed in the order of their serial numbers.

The report of the clemency board read:

"In the absence of favorable word from the trial judge, prosecuting attorney or any members of the petit jury, we see no reason for interference with the orderly process of the court's sentence."

Hedrick was the first arrested after the crime and implicated Bryant and Rhoades. He told the authorities the murder had been committed because McCumber knew too much of Bryant's affairs," and that two white men were to receive $15 for killing McCumber. Bryant and Rhoades were tried and convicted.

Left Turn Blamed For Auto Crash At Street Corner

No one was injured when a Nash car driven by Alex Federhar, local meat dealer, and a Ford touring car, operated by William Ludwig, East End, crashed at the corner of Fifth street and Broadway, about 7:30 o'clock last evening.

Federhar was traveling north on Broadway when Ludwig is alleged to have attempted to make a left turn off Broadway to Fifth street. The front end of the Ludwig machine was badly damaged, but the Federhar car radiator was damaged. The Ford machine was taken in charge by the McElravy wrecker but the Federhar car was driven away under its own power.

80 Killed And 181 Injured In Storms, Floods In Spain

Damage to Property and Crops Estimated at 50,000,000 Pesetas, as Result of Torrential Rains.

BARCELONA, Sept. 2.—More than 80 have been killed and 181 injured in storms, floods and torrential rains throughout Spain, according to reports here today.

The damage to property and crops is estimated at 50,000,000 pesetas.

Twenty were killed when a washout near the village of Tortosa caused the smash-up of a passenger train.

The entire village of Santa Aulivio is under water. A carbide factory in the village, when flooded with water, exploded, causing the death of three persons and the injury of 10 others.

Eight persons were killed in Barcelona when two houses collapsed, burying the inmates.

3,000 HOMELESS, HEAVY PROPERTY DAMAGE IN ILLINOIS FLOOD

Galesburg-Peoria District is Hard Hit—Business Houses Suffer, Crops Wiped Out.

GALESBURG, Ill., Sept. 2. — With several thousand persons homeless and property damage estimated at more than $2,500,000, central Illinois began today to repair the damage wrought by a series of the worst torrential storms to sweep this section in years.

Galesburg and Peoria were the hardest hit. In these two cities approximately 3,000 people are homeless. Most of them were cared for last night by relatives and friends. Many others were quartered in public buildings and emergency dormitories.

From six to eight inches of rain fell in the Galesburg-Peoria district in less than six hours. Business houses and homes were flooded. In addition to the damage caused city property, crops over the nearby agricultural sections were practically wiped out.

125 KIWANIANS AND GUESTS WILL HEAR SENATOR F. B. WILLIS

Club Members, Who Visited Clarkson Grange Last Night, Will Attend Dinner Tonight.

United States Senator Frank B. Willis, Delaware, who will be a guest of the Kiwanis club at a ladies night meeting in Larkins' annex, Market street, at 6:15 o'clock tonight, is expected to arrive in East Liverpool about 6 o'clock.

The Senator will come to the Ceramic City from Chardon, Geauga county, where he was to address a teachers' institute at noon. He was to go from Chardon to Youngstown, where he will be met at 4 o'clock by Russell Heddleston and brought to this city by motor.

A capacity crowd is expected to hear Senator Willis tonight. He will make a non-political speech. Seating accommodations at the dinner will be limited to 125.

Senator Willis will probably return to Columbus tonight, going to Steubenville by interurban, where he will make connections with a Panhandle train.

200 At Clarkson Dinner.

More than 100 members of the club, their wives and friends attended the entertainment given at the Clarkson grange last night. The trip to Clarkson, made by motor, was via Calcutta and Sprucevale but because of the rain which began shortly after the party reached the grange hall, the return trip was made over improved

Senator McKinley's Condition Reported "Unchanged" Today

CHICAGO, Sept. 2.—The condition of United States Senator William B. McKinley was reported "unchanged" early today in a long distance telephone message from the Home Lawn sanitarium at Martinsville, Ind., where he is a patient.

The hospital attendant declared Dr. R. H. Egbert, Senator McKinley's physician, had gone to his home to rest shortly before midnight, stating his patient was "resting well."

Senator McKinley, in poor health for several months, left Washington two weeks ago to undergo treatment at the Martinsville sanitarium. His condition became critical Monday when he was stricken with pulmonary congestion. His physician since has held out little hope for his recovery.

Miss McElravy Wins Senior Life Saving Diploma at Camp

Miss Pauline McElravy, high school graduate and a daughter of Robert McElravy, West Third street, possesses a senior life saving diploma, awarded her at a girls' camp conducted at Milton Island, Canada, this summer. She returned to her home here last evening.

Miss McElravy, who weighs but 87 pounds, rescued a "victim" who tipped the scales at 179 pounds in the life saving test. The camp, which was maintained for about two months, had an enrollment of 100 girls, recruited mainly in and around Cleveland.

Five Seriously Injured in Blast Near Mount Carmel

MOUNT CARMEL, Pa., Sept. 2.—Five men were critically injured and several others slightly injured in a violent explosion at the Reliance shaft of the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company, near here today.

Those critically injured are:
Michael Rice, Mount Carmel.
Steven Homiak, Mount Carmel.
John Borak, Mount Carmel.
Mike Fellsci, Mount Carmel.
Lawrence Fracalossi, Dooleyville.

Ambulances were rushed to the scene from here and Shamokin and Shamokin and all the injured were taken to the Shamokin State hospital.

Pressure in West Ninth Street Main Increased by City

Complaint registered by residents of Edgewood and Hazel streets and other sections of Sunnyside, was met yesterday when the pressure in the new West Ninth street water mains was increased.

The West Ninth street line, a six-inch main, was installed several months ago but the pressure was not increased until the regulating valve was moved from the intersection of Dresden avenue and Peake street to a point on West Eighth street near the West End pottery.

About 50 pounds' pressure was added, according to officials of the water works department who expect to complete the installation of the West Eighth street regulating value within the next week.

MAZER DENIES MURDER CHARGE MADE BY WIDOW OF DON MELLETT

FEDERAL ACTION

Stark County Grand Jury May Report Tomorrow.

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 2.—Louis Mazer of Canton, held in jail here on a charge of murder in connection with the slaying of Don R. Mellett, Canton publisher, filed an answer through his attorney in federal court today to the $100,000 damage suit recently brought by Mrs. Florence Mellett, the widow, against Mazer and two others whom she accused of conspiracy to bring about Mellett's death.

Mazer's answer to the suit made a catergorical denial of "every and all statements" in Mrs. Mellett's petition.

Mazer's Answer.

It denied that Mrs. Mellett is "a duly appointed, qualified and acting administratrix" of Mellett's estate; that she is a citizen or resident of Indiana, and that he caused or conspired with the persons named or anyone else to cause or bring about Mellett's death.

The other two named by Mrs. Mellett in her suit were Pat McDermott sought for questioning in connection with the murder, and Ben Rudner.

CANTON, O., Sept. 2.—Completion of the work of the Stark county grand jury investigating the Don R. Mellett murder, was expected to be realized today.

Tomorrow the deliberating body will, if current predictions from official and semi-official sources are true, return first degree murder indictments against three persons.

Arrest Is Expected.

Today Peggy Cavanaugh, Cleveland, pretty girl friend of Patrick McDermott, was scheduled to testify concerning an auto ride she has admitted taking to Massillon with "Pat" about 10 days after the murder.

That trip, according to investigators, was made two days before the elusive McDermott was last seen.

From official sources it was learned today that at least one arrest will be made in direct connection with the murder case sometime before the grand jury reports.

No other developments were expected until the jury reports tomorrow or early Saturday.

JURIST SCORES FOGO AS "CZAR" IN MAKING HIS SWEEPING RULING

Judge W. H. Spence, in Common Pleas Court, Lisbon, Restores Deposed Police Department Head to His Position, Together With All That He Has Lost Since March 19.

WELLSVILLE CITY MUST PAY OFFICER $825 FOR PERIOD HE WAS OFF JOB

Court Declares "Evidence Shows That Town is in as Bad Condition as Formerly," and "Mayor Seems to Think He Can Usurp any Position in City Government."

John Fultz, deposed as chief of police of Wellsville on March 19, last, by Mayor W. L. Fogo, was restored to his position in a decision handed down by Judge W. H. Spence in common pleas court at Lisbon at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

The ruling, which contains the clause, "that there be restored to him (Fultz) all that he has lost by his removal," means that the city of Wellsville must pay him $825 salary of which he was deprived during the five months and 15 days he was off duty.

Fultz, it was announced by his attorneys, Ben L. Bennett and F. E. Grosshans, of East Liverpool, and W. A. O'Grady of Wellsville, will report for duty at the Wellsville city hall tomorrow morning.

Attorney S. W. Crawford, who with his partner, Attorney Blaine H. Cochran, of East Liverpool, and Solicitor S. C. Luccock, of Wellsville, represented the city of Wellsville in the court fight, will file a motion for a new trial later in the day. In the event the motion is overruled, it was said the case probably will be carried to the appellate court.

The case was taken to common pleas court by Fultz after the Wellsville civil service commission upheld Mayor Fogo's dismissal of the police chief on 12 charges, ranging from alleged laxity of law enforcement to "receiving and accepting money from known violators of gambling and prohibition laws for police protection."

No Cause for Removal.

Judge Spence's decision, which finds there was no cause for the removal of Fultz, assails Mayor Fogo and declares that "the evidence shows that the town is in as bad condition now as formerly."

"The mayor seems to have assumed control of the police force, while the law makes the safety director the immediate superior officer of the police force," said the court. "The mayor seems to think that the people have elected him czar of Wellsville and that he can usurp any position in the city government and give all orders and directions."

Referring to the charges, Judge Spence said:

"In the complaint filed by the mayor against the chief there are some very serious charges against him of changing records, appropriating city money, and many others, of which there was no evidence at this hearing. If there is no evidence of these charges then this was a base and shameful attack by the mayor upon the chief of police which could only be prompted by malice and hatred."

Fultz and his wife and his attorneys were in the courtroom when the decision, which required 18 minutes to read, was announced. No representative of the prosecution was present.

The city of Wellsville was represented at the civil service hearing by Solicitor L. C. Luccock and Mayor Fogo. In the court fight, Attorneys S. W. Crawford and Blaine H. Cochran of East Liverpool were associated with Luccock.

The members of the Wellsville civil service commission are Dwight McLean, chairman; A. C. Fogo and Harry Hammond. Grattan Dugan is the secretary.

Text of Ruling.

The complete text of the court's ruling follows:

"This matter comes into this court by appeal from the Civil Service Commission of Wellsville, Ohio.

"On the nineteenth day of March, 1926, Wallace L. Fogo, mayor of the city of Wellsville, removed John H. Fultz, then chief of police of the city of Wellsville, and gave twelve reasons for his removal.

"John H. Fultz was appointed chief

LINEMAN HIT BY LIVE WIRE

Clifford Vaughn Falls 25 Feet From Cable Cart.

Clifford Vaughn, 23, 218 Market street, ground-man for the Ohio Bell Telephone company, had a narrow escape from electrocution at 3:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon when he came in contact with a 2,200 volt line while ringing a telephone cable near the corner of West Ninth and Hubbard streets.

Vaughn was knocked from his cable cart to the ground, a drop of about 25 feet. He alighted on his feet. He is in the City hospital under the care of Dr. W. A. Hobbs.

The youth was seated on the cart midway between two poles when he struck the high tension wire. As he was knocked from his seat he grasped a rope attached to the cable. Samuel Manelovitz, St. Clair avenue fruit dealer, was attracted by the lineman's call for help, but before he could find a ladder, Vaughn's strength was spent and he was forced to release his grasp on the rope.

Manelovitz took Vaughn to the hospital in his truck. An X-ray examination of his injured feet was to be made today.

100 Dangerously Ill From Tainted Food At Illinois Picnic

PEORIA, Ill., Sept. 2.—More than 100 persons are dangerously ill here today of ptomaine poisoning. They were poisoned, physicians believe, by eating tainted food at the annual picnic of the Christian Endeavor Union held here Tuesday. Six of the cases may prove fatal.

Health officers are checking on the source of veal loaf and potato salad served at the picnic.

L. B. MILLER, 51, MAKES SAN FRANCISCO-NEW YORK AUTO TRIP IN 83 HOURS AND 12 MINUTES, LOWERING RECORD BY 3 HOURS AND 8 MINUTES

Louis B. Miller, of San Francisco, set a new transcontinental automobile record when he reached New York in 83 hours and 12 minutes after being officially checked out of San Francisco in his Wills Sainte Claire Six Roadster, he advised East Liverpool friends today. Miller had previously held the record with a mark of 102 hours and 45 minutes made in July, 1925, but lost it last June when Ab Jenkins and Ray Peck drove the route in 86 hours and 20 minutes.

"They've all got something to shoot at now," said Miller, in a letter received by Sheriff George Wright of Lisbon, who piloted the speeder from Minerva, O., to Chester, W. Va., the 39-mile trip being made in 43 minutes. "This new record time is more than 10 hours faster than the fastest trains between New York and San Francisco."

Miller left San Francisco Monday night at 9 o'clock, Pacific time, and was accompanied by J. E. Wieber of Portland, Ore., who acted as a relief driver during the gruelling trip. Neither man slept a wink during the journey, but arrived in excellent physical condition. An examination at Roosevelt hospital, by Dr. H. G. Bullwinkel showed that aside from losing five pounds, Miller, who is 51 years old, was none the worse for his experience.

Total milcage covered was 3,368. The car was the same stock roadster that Miller used on his transcontinental record-breaking flight a year ago, and his record run from San Francisco to Portland, Oregon, last spring. The speedometer registered 23,023 when he pulled out of San Francisco and 26,390 as he crossed the ferry into New York City.

Held Up By Traffic Cop.

"We crossed the Sierra Nevada mountains in six hours and a half," said Miller, "and made Salt Lake City in a little less than a day. As the trip wore along we quit keeping track of miles and began to count by the states. I remember that, with a police escort, we shot through Illinois, a distance of 240 miles at an average speed of 57 miles an hour. Not infrequently we hit 75 and 80 on the good stretches.

"The Illinois cops were good to us, and so were some of the others. New Jersey's state police tried to be, but it was in Newark, almost within sight of New York's skyscrapers, that we came to grief with a traffic officer and lost 45 precious minutes. An escort that was running with us through Jersey became separated in a Newark traffic tangle, with the result that a city policeman nabbed us. Aside from this, we had no unpleasant experiences except that we ran over an embankment in Wyoming when the sun, rising over a hill, suddenly blazed in my eyes and blinded me. Neither of us or the car was injured and we got back on the road with only a few minutes loss."

As the time was officially clocked by the Western Union Telegraph company and verified by H. Bertram Lewis, New York state consul of the Lincoln highway, the record made by Miller and Wieber will stand as official.

Record Is Official.

Lincoln highway was the general route followed, via Carson City, Salt Lake City, Cheyenne, Clinton, Ia., Ft. Wayne, Ind., East Liverpool, O., Pittsburg, Pa., Trenton, N. J., and into New York through Newark and across the 42nd street ferry.

"While good automobile building is largely responsible for this triumph of the motor car over the railroad," said Miller, "the advances made in good roads construction should not be forgotten. With exactly the same Wills Sainte Claire Six I used a year ago, I was able to reduce my former record by nearly 20 hours. This was due, in no small degree, to better built roads and better traffic conditions encountered all through the country."

Miller is a short, stocky good-natured person, a staid San Francisco business man who is the head of his own automobile accessory business. Record road driving has been a hobby with him for years. To this hobby he de-

SCHOOLS HERE OPEN TUESDAY

Between 125 and 150 Freshmen Students Expected.

School machinery is being oiled up for the beginning of the 1926-27 term here, which will open on Tuesday, September 7.

Grade pupils from the public, parochial and township schools will report tomorrow at the high school building between the hours of 8 and 4 to arrange their schedules, with the assistance of Superintendent Daw.

With approximately 50 freshmen students who began the year at last year's mid-semester, as many more coming from Central and others from the parochial and township schools, the first year enrollment here this fall will fall between 125 and 150 students, school officials predict.

Enrollment in practically all of the other school departments is expected to show an increase.

IRONDALE SCHOOL OPENING TUESDAY

The Irondale schools will open Tuesday, September 7 under the supervision of L. X. Johnston, of Canton. There will be a conference of teachers at 8:30 and pupils will assemble for organization and assignment at 10 o'clock. The corps of teachers is as follows:

First grade, Ethel Wood, Thurman, Ohio.

Second grade, Hortense Canup, Alexandria, Ind.

Third grade, Grace Nevil, Greenfield, O.

Seventh grade, Reading and English, Anna McClain, Irondale.

Eighth grade, Mathematics and Penmanship, Boys' Physical Education, Theron Miller, Convoy, O.

Mabel Wagner, of Athens, O., will be assistant principal of the high school and teach History and English. She will also have charge of Girls' Physical Education in the high school.

Alfred F. Axe, of Alliance, will be principal of the high school, and teach Science and Mathematics. He will again have charge of Boys' Physical Education in the high school.

Mr. Johnston will teach Latin in the high school.

The other schools of Saline township will also open on Tuesday. Agatha James and George H. Johnston, of Irondale, will teach primary and grammar grades, respectively, at Hammondsville. Miss Marion Hertlein of Sandusky, O., will teach at Tarburner.

Supt. Johnston will be in his office Friday afternoon, Saturday and Monday mornings to confer with pupils or teachers.

CLAY PLANTS MAY TRY TO RESUME

Efforts were being made today to place Toronto sewer pipe plants back into operation.

Both the Forest City and the Great western plants were ready to resume operations, officials announced, if men reported back for work.

A small force reported yesterday afternoon at the Kaul plant, although no work was started. There had been no notice of reopening at the plant posted, except that word had been issued that all men willing to return at the 16 2-3 per cent wage cut would be given jobs.

Entertain At Bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lownds entertained a number of their friends last evening at bridge at their home in Eighth street and Broadway.

Four tables were in play during the evening, honors being awarded to Paul Eckfeld and Vincent Barth.

Mr. and Mrs. John Burn, of Lisbon, were out-of-town guests.

HIGH GRIDDERS OPEN TRAINING

25 Lads Drill Under Coach Klinck at Hammondsville.

Twenty-five high school lads, all prospective members of the Wellsville school football squad for the 1926 campaign, are encamped at the Kiwanis summer outing grounds near Hammondsville on Yellow Creek for a week of intensive gridiron drill under the direction of Coach Earl Klinck.

The squad left for camp early yesterday morning and will remain until Labor day.

The outfit includes practically all of the veterans of last year, with the exception of several who graduated last spring, and, in addition, a likely lot of new material.

Coach Klinck will be in charge of the camp during the training period, assisted by Faculty Manager R. C. Trumbull. The latter has been touring the west during the summer, and is expected to report here today or tomorrow. Trumbull has the 1926 football schedule lined up with possibly one or two open dates.

Coach Klinck will put the candidates to work chiefly at exercises and drills to limber them up and toughen them up for the more exacting duties which they will face later on.

Included in the training squad are Hepp, Klavaughn, Calhoun, Provost, Iddings, Brannan, Eschbacher, Keay, Magill, Fogo, Foley, Bebout, Wilson, D'Anito, Thorn, Glenn, Duvall, Dickey and others.

The camp period was made possible through the generosity of local business men and boosters who are financing the boys' stay at Hammondsville.

Concludes Visit Here.

Why We Become Weak, Tired and Run-Down If Glands Fail

THOUSANDS drag through life always tired and worn-out, suffering with loss of energy and vitality, and fail to recognize the cause of their trouble as "asthenia," and claim it is caused by an unbalanced glandular system or weakened glands.

Gland secretions are called hormones—mysterious messengers which science has discovered exert a remarkable influence on health, strength and vitality. When the glands function normally they supply these vitalizing hormones (or secretions) which are essential to physical well-being. And when the glands fail to function, health fails.

Now glandular treatment, which is endorsed by eminent scientists and physicians of this country and Europe, is being used by thousands of men and women to help overcome a weakened, worn-out, run-down, exhausted condition, and to regain the strength, vigor and vitality that are the natural benefits resulting from a normal glandular system.

Glandogen, the new scientific gland tonic, provides a simple method of taking glandular treatment. Glandogen is prepared in convenient tablet form, for both men and women. Accept no substitutes. Insist on genuine Glandogen, the original gland tonic.

WOMAN SEEKING STATE JOB WEDS; ELECTION BOARD IN QUANDARY

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn.—Miss Winifred McDermott is the Democratic candidate for clerk of the state supreme court of Minneapolis. Today she is no longer Miss McDermott. She has married Roy Henry Perrigo since filing for office.

Now Mrs. Perrigo's status as a candidate for office is under debate. The question raised by her marriage is brand new, as far as is known here. Can votes for Winifred McDermott be counted for Mrs. Perrigo? If not, how can her name be changed on the ballot? These questions will be the subject of a conference between the attorney general and his assistants in the next few days.

When a woman who is a registered voter marries, she is required to register all over again. It is impossible for Mrs. Perrigo to register over again, however, as the time for filing for a party office, expired last May. She has not followed the Lucy Stone League plan of retaining her maiden name.

It is possible that the situation will be cleared by an affidavit stating that Mrs. Roy Henry Perrigo is identical with the former Miss Winifred McDermott. The question, however, is a new one and a puzzler, according to the attorney general.

332ND TROOPS PLAN REUNION

Company L. Boys Will Go to Columbus on Saturday.

Several former members of the 332nd Infantry from East Liverpool will attend the fifth annual regimental reunion which will be held at the Neil House, Columbus, on Saturday and Sunday.

The initial meeting will take place at 4 p. m. Saturday. On Saturday night there will be an entertainment, followed by other gatherings on Sunday morning and afternoon.

Company L of this regiment was made up entirely of Columbiana county youths, who were among the first contingent of draftees sent to the Camp Sherman training camp in the fall and winter of 1917-18. The regiment went overseas in the spring of 1918 and saw eight months' services on the Austro-Italian front in Italy. This was the only American fighting unit which saw services in this sector during the war.

For the convenience of men from Eastern Ohio, who plan to attend the reunion, busses will be operated from Steubenville to Columbus, leaving the Jefferson county seat town early Saturday morning. Among those from East Liverpool, who will attend the reunion are Robert Guyton, Arch Rodell and Ray Bloor.

"The Big Parade" Marked New Era In Motion Pictures

In every walk of life and all art there are certain definite markers which can be pointed out as indicating a drastic change for the better in that field of endeavor. And so it is with "The Big Parade," which marked the beginning of a new era in motion pictures. This Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production, made under the direction of King Vidor, with John Gilbert as star and Renee Adoree the charming heorine, marked a point in the art of picture entertainment which classes it as an event of importance. But the making of this mark was first discovered by the patrons who viewed "The Big Parade. The picture arrived in New York with no fanfare of prediction but a week after it had been presented it was known from one end of the country to the other as a remarkable production. "The Big Parade," with an orchestra of twenty to interpret its lovely score; with all the same detail and effects which are used at the Astor theatre in New York, will be on view at the Ceramic theatre for three days starting Thursday, Sept. 23.

EAST LIVERPOOL—AMERICA'S POTTERY CENTER

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 1926.

City Schools Open Tuesday

More than 5,000 children, scores of them entering class rooms for the first time, will answer public and parochial school gongs in East Liverpool next Tuesday, thus marking the opening of the halls of learning for the fall semester of the 1926-27 term.

Of this number, at least 300 of the 356 who graduated from the eighth grade in June, are expected to become members of the freshman class of the high school, establishing a record enrollment. More than 400 others will enroll in the sophomore, junior and senior classes.

Everything is in readiness for the resumption of work on the part of the board of education and faculty. School buildings have been given thorough cleanings, repairs have been made, text books purchased and calls issued for teachers' meetings. Freshmen will meet in the high school auditorium at 10 o'clock Friday morning to permit Miss Florence Updegraff, high school principal, to organize classes for the start-off Tuesday morning. Class schedules will be announced and teachers' assignments made Saturday.

Are pupils and their parents prepared? They should be, but past experience proves that many children, because of belated vacation trips, delay in purchasing school clothes, etc., fail to enroll on opening day or during the first week. And the result is that they not only handicap themselves, but are obstacles to the progress of classmates.

Two more business days remain before school opening. If Johnny or Mary is not prepared for school today, parents should get busy. Let's start the fall term with a 100 per cent enrollment. It is for the best interests of the schools.

Business Flows Right On

This time of year is ordinarily a time of business uncertainty. Nobody knows how business is going to "break." Business men are therefore usually inclined around this time to suspend judgment, awaiting further light.

After the autumn equinox—which may or may not have anything to do with the matter—they can tell better. When the crops are in and general activity is resumed with the cooler weather, and people begin looking ahead to the winter season, then it is possible to get "a line on business."

But this is an exceptional year. The usual summer slump has not occurred. Hence there is little or none of the usual hesitant readjustment. There isn't much indication that things need readjusting. Business already is moving at a healthful autumn pace, and bids fair to keep it up right along.

"The main grounds for prediction of continuing prosperity in trade and industry," remarks the New York Times, "are the remarkably sustained production and consumption of all staple products in the season when inactive trade is usually expected, a movement of goods on the transportation lines in volume unprecedented for the season, absence of purely speculative business, as shown by actual decrease in stocks of unsold merchandise, abundant harvests, and a money market whiich has been unruffled by the very considerable expansion of credit since the middle of the year."

Seldom has this country entered upon so promising a season.

Why Ignore Lightning?

Another American arsenal was blown up by lightning the latter part of August—the army's Pig Island arsenal at Norfolk, Va. It was not so bad as the catastrophe at the naval arsenal in New Jersey, but bad enough. The damage was said to be a mere trifle of $500,000 or so, with no lives lost. Which was plain luck.

Yet why, in an age of science, should there be so strong a factor of luck in such matters? Why should arsenals and petroleum tanks be set on fire so often by lightning, when there are simple and well known means of protection?

Experiments made at Pittsfield, Mass., by the General Electric company, have shown that it is possible to protect oil tanks from lightning by means of grounded wires and lightning rods over and around them, even when there is gas escaping from the oil. The same method could be used, engineers say, to protect ammunition depots. Why can't the army, the navy and the petroleum industry do what intelligent farmers do?

The Plane Parachute

Parachutes for ballonists are an old story. Parachutes for airplane passengers have been used with much success, to save lives when planes go wrong. But parachutes for the planes themselves are a novelty.

The idea was tested the other day in Los Angeles. A former naval pilot went aloft with a fifty-foot parachute folded on top of his plane, shut off his engine at a height of half a mile, loosened the "chute" and trusted in Providence. The airplane, with the pilot sitting calmly in his seat, floated gently three miles and alighted on a sloping hillside, with merely a broken propeller blade and a little damage to the running gear. Even that would not have happened, apparently, on level ground.

Such a safety device as this, if further tests confirm its reliability, should have a powerful influence in popularizing the airplane. So far, too much is left to engine and pilot. Air safety must become as nearly as possible automatic.

NEW YORK DAYBYDAY

By O. O. McINTYRE

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—There has sprung up a type of kale and farewell Lorelei of Broadway known as "boat trippers" who have discovered they can cruise the Atlantic as easy as Broadway's turbulent currents and salvage a fair livelihood.

It is said one crossed ten times this summer without a penny expenditure and in addition acquired a generous wardrobe of Paris gowns, some bracelets and such. Their assets are fairish beauty, a provacative smile and perhaps a slight lisp.

They depend on chance acquaintance on deck or other ship quarters to develop into the sort of romance that will take a sudden and coldly commercial turn. And some lonely male passenger finds he must pay rather heavily for holding hands and gazing at the moon.

A velvety sky, studded with stars, has proven a better setting for romantic golddigging than the White Way's flash of lights. Several liaisons that threatened to crash the first pages were hushed only with heavy payments.

It is said an unscrupulous lawyer in Paris has trained some of the 'boat trippers" how to jockey their victims into dangerous cul de sacs from which they can be extricated only by signing on the dotted line—the lawyer getting his percentage.

So widespread has this danger grown that one liner has posted in its cabins this printed warning near the admonition to beware of professional gamblers: "It is suggested that male passengers think twice before writing notes or letters of any kind to strange women aboard ship."

Most of the "boat trippers" travel in pairs, thereby aiding one another as witnesses in case of need. And in some instances the pickings are so good they can employ a sleekly suave male confederate who spots out likely come-ons and arranges introductions.

An extremely rich New Yorker was invited to the opening of a magnificent new hotel near the metropolis. He was the especial guest of the proprietor. The hotel had been hurriedly rushed to completion. The guest after a round of golf stepped under a shower in his bath room and turned the faucet marked "Cold." There was a mistake in installing the faucets and he was drenched in scalding water. In attempting to step away he fell and was further seriously burned. He had several skin grafting operations. But is still in a serious condition. And obviously as a good sportsman has no redress.

There is a famous ocean liner skipper who has cruised the seven seas for years. He is paid in German marks and at the exchange rate in New York a handful wouldn't buy a pint of table water in a night club. So—my friend Jimmy Lane, dean of the ship news men tells me—he spends his off hours here in the Aquarium watching the fish.

Jimmy also showed me something at Pier 57 that seems worth chronicling. A canal barge was anchored inside the slip. Atop was the radio home for the bargeman's family. There was a little grass plot, wet wash flapping on a line, and on the outer edge was a towheaded youngster gliding perilously about on a pushmobile.

Night club crooks who found they could hide behind a delicately shirred shirt, white carnation and platinum thread across the weskit have been chilled by the fate of the Whittemore gang. They have been making themselves inconspicuous of late. In addition, it is whispered, a special squad of expert criminal hunters are looking over the night haunts daily.

HASKIN'S LETTER

By FREDERIC J. HASKIN

Exalting Cake and Pie.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 2.—After a great many years of being misunderstood, the famous French queen who advised her subjects to eat cake when they complained that they had no bread seems to be coming into her own. Data compiled and published by the United States Government indicate that the queen was not one of the earliest and most conspicuous examples of the beautiful but dumb of her sex, and that in fact she gave the French people sound dietary advice. She might even have suggested that her subjects eat pie, notably apple pie, and still have been ridiculeproof.

Miss Emma A. Winslow, an expert dietitian for the Government, has prepared a bulletin, illustrated with charts that show graphically what a pound of each food studied will supply in the way of food requirements for the human body, whether energy, proteins, or body building material, calcium or lime for bones and teeth, phosphorous for body regulating, or iron for the blod. These graphs show that both butter cake and apple pie rank ahead of white bread in several respects.

One pound of the cake cited, which is made from a recipe calling for butter, sugar, milk, eggs, and flour, will supply about 1,750 calories of energy, 29 grams of protein, .2 gram of calcium, .3 gram of phosphorus, and 3 milligrams of iron. It would furnish, therefore, 50 per cent of the energy a man needs daily, 29 per cent of the protein, 31 per cent of the calcium, 23 per cent of the phosphorus, and 21 per cent of the iron.

One pound of apple pie, similarly analyzed, will supply, it is found, 35 per cent of the energy a man needs daily, 14 per cent of the protein, 3 per cent of the calcium, 4 per cent of the phosphorus, and 6 per cent of the iron.

The bread chart shows that one pound of the so-called staff of life will furnish 34 per cent of a man's daily energy requirement, 42 per cent of the protein he needs, 18 per cent of the calcium, 32 per cent of the phosphorus, and 27 per cent of the iron.

Another Pie Booster.

Another governmental pie booster is Secretary of Labor James J. Davis, although he does not do it officially. In his autobiography, "The Iron Puddler," he exalts pie as distinctively an American institution and tell of a boarding house where he once lived that was known as the "Pie Boarding House."

"The pioneer wives of America learned to make a pie out of every fruit that grows, including lemons," says Secretary Davis, "and from many vegetables, including squash and sweet potatoes, as well as from vinegar and milk and eggs and flour. Fed on these good pies, the pioneers—is there any significance in the first syllable of the word?—hewed down the woods and laid the continent under the plow. We workers fed on proper pie, and we soon changed this wooden land into a land of iron. Now the pie is passing out and we are feeding on French pastry, is our downfall at hand?

"Life in the Pie Boarding House was a never-ending delight. You never knew when you sat down at the table what kind of pie would be dealt you. Some of the fellows had been there half a year and swore they had seen fifty-seven varieties and were expecting new ones at any meal. The crowd here was a selected crowd. It was made up of the pie connoisseurs of mill-town."

Later, to another of these boarding houses, there came one of those individuals who are always seeking to take the joy out of life—a reformer who told the men their food was too fatty and that they consumed far too much pie.

"The burning of oil in the engine gives the power," says Mr. Davis. "The burning of the fats in the muscles gives the laborer his power. Sugar and starches are the next best things to fat, and that's why we could eat the thick slabs of sweet pie. We relished it well and had burned it all up in our labor in the mills. We came out with that healthy sparkle that dyspeptics never know."

Physicians who specialize in dietary problems will probably take issue with the Secretary of Labor as to the beneficient effects of a pie diet. They will contend that Mr. Davis and his fellow workers in the iron mills were unusually healthy and vigorous, not because they ate pie and lots of it, but because they ate such a variety of other foods that the amount of pie consumed had little or no effect upon them save to gratify their appetite for sweets. This last is not unimportant, for it meant that the men were satisfied wih their food and generally in a cheerful frame of mind, and that goes a long way as an aid to digestion and preventative of dyspepsia.

Fear And Worry Harmful.

These authorities wil say that irrespective of the food value of pie, no one should eat it who entertains any doubts as to its effect upon him. Fear and worry of that kind are quite as harmfupl as an injudicious diet, and doctors have discovered that almost invariably the person who complains of a pain in his tummy after a meal and ascribes it to the pie he has just eaten is one who had practically made up his mind in advance that he would have a pain if he ate pie, or a particular kind of pie. Such persons develop the habit of fearing the consequences of eating certain foods, or of over-eating, and then keep their attention concentrated upon how the alimentary tract is disposing of the food that has just been put into it. They are anticipating trouble, and usually they get it. Of course the baneful effects of the wrong mental attitude toward eating is not limited to pie as an article of diet. An individual can make almost any food or combinations of food bad for himself.

Drs. McCollum and Simmonds, of Johns Hopkins, in their treatise on Food, Nutrition, and Health, say that one of the serious problems of the physician who treats a patient with digestive disturbances is to divert the patient's attention from himself. The

THE PRIDE OF A CREATIVE GENIUS.

A colored person of a formidable aspect was arraigned in a South Carolina court of justice on a charge of mayhem. As Exhibit A, for the case of the prosecution, the mutilated victim of his wrath was presented before the jurors' sympathetic eyes. The face of the victim was but little more than a recent site—a place where a face had been, but was no longer.

When the jury very promptly and very properly had returned a verdict of guilty, His Honor, the presiding judge pointing to the chief complaining witness and addressing the defendant, said:

"This is the most lamentable example of brutality I have ever seen in a long experience on the criminal bench. Surely no human being, unless he were inspired by infernal influenges and hellborn suggestions, could deliberately work such wreckage as you have worked upon the countenance of a defenseless and helpless fellow creature. Demons from below surely must have prompted you in what you did. It must have been the devil himself who urged you on and on and on."

"Well, Jedge," said the prisoner, "come to think it over, I ain't shore but what you're right. As I look back on it now it do seem lak to me 'at w'en I wus cuttin' his nose loose from his face wid a razor, the devil was right behind me sayin' 'Tha's right, separate him fum his nose.' An' I 'spects it must a been them demons you mentioned which suggested me stompin' out his front teeth.

BOOK ONE—IX.

Jock had believed these six divisions sufficiently comprehensixe to include all the girls in the world—until he met Yvonne. She gloriously defied any classification whatever.

He wrote her on Monday, reminding her of the game. Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday passed with no word from her, and he took to haunting the University postal station like a restless wraith.

Friday noon, on his way there, he encountered Bradley Hathaway.

"Where you bound, Jock?"

"Post office, where you?"

"Home to lunch," Brad said, "but I'll go along with you first. I've hardly clapped eyes on you since the night you blew in. Where've you been keeping yourself?"

"I've been pretty busy," Brad," Jock equivocated. (How tell a man you haven't gone to see him because you cannot bear his wife?)

"I suppose so, but you might find a minute to run over now and then. We're always glad to have you, you know."

"Yes, I know, Brad. I will."

They sauntered along, talking football. Brad was dubious as to the outcome of the morrow's game "'Fraid it's going to be bad news This other team's too good to take on so early in the season"

Jock found two letters in his mailbox One was from Molly The other he knew at a glance must be Yvonne's—a huge gray envelope addressed in swooping script, most individual.

"Just a minute till I look this over," he remarked to Brad as they emerged onto the street again.

The letter had no salutation and no signature. It simply began and ended.

"I said I believed no one had any right to tell me what I could and could not do. But people do tell me, just the same, and I am occasionally weak enough to submit to them."

"Which is by way of announcing that I cannot come this time, Jock Hamill."

"What's up?" queried Brad. "You look suddenly sunk."

Jock tucked the gray envelope thoughtfully into his pocket, where it lay close to the unopened lavender one that was Molly's. "I am," he said. "My girl can't come to the game."

"That's too bad."

"Right. I'm sorry as hell."

He made these replies mechanically. His thoughts were absorbed not so much with the fact that Yvonne wasn't coming as with the words in which she had couched her refusal. "People do tell me, and I am occasionally weak enough to submit to them"—now what did that mean? Who could tell Yvonne what to do? Who had the right to dictate to her? A parent? Somehow Jock knew it was not a parent. A husband, then? He became possessed of a dismaying notion that Yvonne might be married.

Brad was speaking. "What did you say?" Jock asked absently.

"I said, you'd better take Eunice to the game, then," Brad repeated.

"Sure, glad to," said Jock. (But if so, wouldn't Yvonne have told him?)

"I can't take her myself, of course, and she hates to go alone. And I thought since you have two tickets and no girl—"

"Sure, Brad." (No, not necessarily; she hadn't told him anything about her life. There was that man with whom she had talked so long in the restaurant—could it be that he—oh, but no! A thousand no's! And yet—)

Once alone in his room at the fraternity house Jock read and reread Yvonn'e message a score of times. It left him more bewildered than ever. He could neither imagine her married nor subject to parental discipline. Yet who but a parent or a husband could say "You cannot go," and be obeyed? Perhaps a lover? Thought unthinkable! Jock devised within his mind a hundred reasons why it was not a lover, each one of them emanating from his heart-felt desire to believe that it was not. . . . Eventually he hit upon a solution that pleased him; perhaps she did some work of some sort, and her employer had forbidden her departure. Perhaps she was on the stage (those theatrical photographs on her walls) and could not miss the Saturday performances. The more he mulled this over the most plausible he made it seem, and it relieved him. Anything that dispelled the fear that she might be married or—or anything, would have relieved him. Mingled with his relief came the belated realization that he wasn't going to see her this week-end after all, smiting him like a pain. He had not known quite how much it meant to him. And hard on the heels of this, the memory of Brad's suggestion that he take Eunice to the game and his own unthinkable agreement. . . He spent the rest of the day in a state of deep depression.

X.

"You'ah terribly deah to do this, Jock. I know you don't really want to at all."

"Of course I want to!" Jock lied gallantly. "What could be sweeter than escorting the prettiest girl in town to a football game?"

There was almost a licking of the lips about the way in which Eunice received compliments, a hint of insatiable greed. She would laugh, but it was poor pretense. She laughed now. "Jock, you musn't spoof an old married lady."

They were standing in the hallway of the Hathaway's bungalow. Jock with a light topcoat flung over his arm and his hat in his hand, Eunice so close to him that he could catch the fragrance of her black bobbed hair. She patted the topcoat. "Where's yoah raccoon?" she asked.

"In mothballs. First of October's too warm for fur coats."

"Oh!" wailed Eunice. "And I've got a new one—Brad just bought it for me—and I wanted to weah it so badly! Is it really much too wahm out today? Would I die, do you reckon? Wait, I want to show it to you."

She sped away, and returned after a moment bearing a long garment of mink. Jock held it while she slipped into it, giving him meanwhile that arch backward glance such women always give under such circumstances. She held the coat tight around her as a blanket is held 'round a baby and walked to a little distance, where she stood revolving and posturing, model-fashion. "Do you like it?" she asked.

"It's beautiful," said Jock soberly. It was beautiful; he was no connoisseur of furs, but he knew enough about them to know that. It must have cost—well, a good half of Brad's year's salary. How under the sun—

Eunice was stroking the coat rapturiously, sliding her hands under the lapels, crossing them at her throat, rubbing her face against their softness. "I don't know what's got into Brad all of a sudden," she said. "He's loosenin' up and shellin' out in a most surprisin' mannah. Which only proves what I've always claimed—that he could have bought me things if he'd wanted to. Why, I've begged him and begged him for a mink coat for three whole yeahs, and he always said he couldn't affo'd it. And now look! He's probably had the money all the time but just didn't want to spen—"

"Don't be silly, Eunice!" Jock interrupted with some heat. "Of course Brad would have bought you the coat the first time you asked him if he'd had the money. He hasn't a selfish bone in his body, and you know it as well as I do."

Eunice's eyes opened very wide, like a hurt child's. "Well, if he didn't have the money then, how come he has it now?" she defended herself. "He hasn't had a raise or anythin'. No rich uncle died and left him a legacy. And he's nevah saved a cent since we've been married—"

NEW YORK'S $200,000,000 WILL BE STORED IN MAMMOTH VAULT

ALBANY, N. Y.—One of the largest and most modern vaults in New York state will be constructed under the proposed new state office building, Sullivan W. Jones, of Yonkers, state architect, has announced.

The vault will be used to store the state's $200,000,000 in cash and securities.

A complete system of alarms and a squad of guards are to constitute the state's fire line of defense for its new treasury.

The state architect's department now are working out the plans for the vault. Its exact location under the office building is being kept a secret as are the intimate details of construction.

The inside dimensions of the vault will be 50 by 50 feet. The walls, floors and roof are to be of flint concrete, 48 inches thick, reinforced by an armor mat of high grade cold drawn steel fabric.

The huge door will be of circular type, two feet thick, of drill proof steel, equipped with a time lock and opened and shut by a concealed electric engine.

There will be one carefully guarded entrance to the vault and only credited representatives of the various state departments will have access. To make sure, there will be a triple check on identities by means of photographs, signatures and finger prints.

Automatic Train Stop Device Installed by Pennsylvania Road

PITTSBURGH. — Installation of automatic train stop devices is under way on several important branches of the Pennsylvania railroad, it was announced today by G. M. Sixsmith, superintendent of the passenger transportation department.

Sixsmith said that when the present program is completed, 1,150 engines and 1,550 miles of track will be equipped with these devices.

The extension under way covers the lines from Camden, N. J., to Atlantic City; Pittsburgh to Newark, Ohio, and Columbus, O., to Indianapolis.

Monarch Butterflies Complete Pilgrimage To Stinson Beach

SAN FRANCISCO. — Bored with their home in the Sierra mountains, thousands of brown monarch butterflies have completed their annual pilgrimage to the sea shore. Every year the horde of butterflies go to Stinson beach, north of here, to spend the winter and enjoy the mild climate, only to die in the spring.

The trek of the butterflies is unending, however. Next year a new flight will complete the same tragic cycle.

Leave it to Mother what's Best

"WHEN I received a sample bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin I gave it to my two-months-old baby without hesitation, as I had often heard of it as the very best medicine for children. It stopped crying right away, began sleeping good and growing fast. For myself it has been the very best stomach and laxative medicine and I can't praise it too much."
(Name and address will be furnished upon request.)

Children Thrive as They Grow

Mothers never tire telling how children thrive on it; how it puts an end to bilious, sour stomach, stops headache, cleans bowels, no pain, no gripe. Just like a nurse in the family, never any real sickness. Stops Mother's terrible sick headache, ends Dad's bilious attack, makes peaceful the lives of old folks. A real family medicine for the daily ills due to constipation. Get it today and have it handy, always. Sold by all druggists.

Hours of Comfort in the Restful
Cantilever Shoe

Crowded shops, bustling shoppers, busy feet, hours of standing and walking. No wonder thousands of women come home at night tired and listless—glad to get their shoes off.

Rigid shoes that take the spring out of your step, unnaturally shaped shoes that pinch and chafe, and high heels that tilt the body out of balance cause you to ache all over and wonder why you get so tired.

Is it worth while, when there are trim, good looking shoes that will help you to ward off this feeling of drooping weariness? Just make the Cantilever Shoe the first item on your shopping list. You can wear them right out of the store. No need to break them in, for

The Cantilever is made with consideration for every natural requirement of the foot. The arch is flexible, not rigid, as in most shoes. You will enjoy the foot freedom of toe-to-heel flexibility and your feet will build up springy muscular strength through exercise. Curve for curve, the graceful, natural lines of the Cantilever fit the foot. There is room in the toe, and snugness at the arch and heel.

The arch of the shoe fits up snug to the exact undercurve of the foot. This gives you restful, helpful support, yet it does not restrict foot action. You will find this feature makes the Cantilever a restful shoe for standing or walking.

Fine workmanship and high grade materials make the Cantilever wear well.

Bendheim's
East Sixth Street.

RIVER-TO-LAKE CANAL BOOSTED BY PITTSBURGH

Smoky City Seeks Waterway From Ohio to Erie.

$750,000,000 JOB

Need Further Outlet for Steel and Coal Products.

PITTSBURGH. — Pittsburgh, heart of the nation's greatest steel and coal industries, seeks a waterway to the Great Lakes.

A concentrated movement today was being formulated to build a $750,000,000 canal from the headwater of the Ohio River to Lake Erie.

Mindful that two great natural waterways, the Monongahela and Allegheny Rivers, flowing into a third, the Ohio, have brought to Pittsburgh the great bulk of Western Pennsylvania's raw products of iron and coal, to be blasted into steel products which have made the city the Workshop of the World, Pittsburgh capitalists are taking steps to exploit a fourth waterway which would make the city a virtual Lake port.

See Busy Canal.

Visionaries picture the canal lined with mills and blast furnaces, as are the Monongahela and Allegheny today—vast roaring furnaces which line the river banks for miles on both sides, and out of which pour steel products to be shipped to the far corners of the world.

The movement will be formally introduced at a hearing before the United States Army Board of Engineers in Washington, late in September.

Originally the outgrowth of a five-year fight by the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce and allied interests against what was termed discriminatory freight rates on Lake cargo coal, the movement has since presented itself as a new field of exploitation much much as the harnessing of the Monongahela and Allegheny Rivers brought the State's natural resources into Pittsburgh to build the nucleous of such great fortunes as those of Carnegie and the Mellon interests.

"The enterprise is no longer an alternative to freight rates relief," a spokesman for the plan pointed out.

Coal operators here realize that coal freight rates, at best, are subject to conditions in other parts of the country. The opposition to changes in Pittsburgh district freight rates voiced by midwestern and southern interests, was doubtless born of economic necessity in those places.

To Open New Fields.

"The canal idea is not merely to escape a temporary condition in the coal industry, but to open up new fields of enterprise for Pittsburgh capital.

"A waterway such as the Lake Erie and Ohio River canal would provide an assured means of transportation now and in the future, removed from regulation by the Interstate Commerce Commission and would save the coal industry alone in a few years the cost of building teh canal.

"This is without considering the great value to Pittsburgh and the coal, iron and oil fields it represents, of a Great Lakes outlet for its products."

The canal, as planned, would be 166 miles long.

The approaches to the city, long considered an impregnable natural fort in the early history of the country, are lined with solid walls of rock. Through hills of this description engineers would have to blast a deep cut to bring the head of the canal to the headwaters of the Ohio, where it meets the Allegheny and Monongahela at the lower end of Pittsburgh's business district.

How I Dress My Hair
By Edna Wallace Hopper

The thousands who see me daily on the stage wonder at my beautiful hair. It is wavy, glossy and abundant. Nearly everyone thinks that some wonderful hair dresser gives it daily care.

Not so—I'm too busy for that. I never go to a hair dresser, have never had a Marcel wave. I simply apply twice weekly a hair dress which great experts made for me. It is not sticky, not greasy. Before they made it I never dreamed a liquid could do so much. Now all toilet counters supply it as Edna Wallace Hopper's Wave and Sheen. The price is 75c.

Nothing else I know gives a girl or woman so much added loveliness at once. No one can resist it when she knows. My guarantee is enclosed with every bottle, so it costs you nothing if it doesn't please. Go try it at my expense.

SUPREME COURT HEARS TAX SUIT

Injunction Being Sought by Hope Natural Gas Company.

Argument of the injunction case brought by the Hope Natural Gas company against enforcement of the so-called "gross sales tax" is scheduled today before the supreme court of appeals sitting at Charleston. Each side was allotted one hour more than the usual time for such hearings.

The case comes before the supreme court as an appeal of Grant P. Hall, state tax commissioner, and Howard B. Lee, attorney general, from an injunction restraining them from proceeding to enforce provisions of the business-professional tax against the Hope company. The injunction was granted by Judge Morgan Owen in common pleas court in Kanawha county, and affirmed by the circuit court of this county, from which the appeal was taken.

Several cases were submitted to the court today on briefs, among them being the petition of the Bluefield Telephone company for suspension of a public service commission order that refused it an increase in local exchange rates. Among cases argued before being submitted were those of the Bluefield National Bank to recover funds from the receiver of the Day and Night Bank, a Williamson institution, in preference to other creditors.

Child-birth

THOUSANDS of mothers for over three generations have praised Mother's Friend for relieving them of unnecessary pains during expectancy.

"Everyone was surprised how well I got along," writes Mrs. Alfred E. Ammon, Muncie, Ind. "My pains disappeared after using Mother's Friend and I was sick only an hour and a half at baby's birth."

Mother's Friend is the formula of an eminent physician. It is made from a combination of highly refined oils and other wonderful ingredients and is for outward application. Mother's Friend aids the skin and muscles to expand more easily during the constant readjustment of expectancy, month after month, right up to childbirth.

Mother! Insist on Mother's Friend—the same as used by our mothers and grandmothers—don't wait—start using tonight—and meanwhile write Bradfield Regulator Co., Dept. 88, Atlanta, Ga., for free valuable booklet "Motherhood and the Coming Baby" (sent in plain envelope). It tells how Mother's Friend can help you during expectancy and at childbirth. This booklet also tells you many other things you want to know. "Mother's Friend" is sold by all druggists—everywhere.

BULB QUARANTINE NOW EFFECTIVE

The domestic Narcissus bulb quarantine proposed to prevent the spread of bulb flies and eelworm pests was signed July 3 by Secretary of Agriculture Jardine to become effective July 15, 1926. The tentative regulation submitted June 15 to all interested parties for comment was received with general approval, no criticisms or changes being suggested.

The quarantine applies only to the American-grown bulb crop, but involves commercial growers, shippers, and handlers of domestic narcissus bulbs in every state and district of the United States. It provides for the movement of the bulbs only after inspection and certification. Bulbs found free of infestation will be certified for interstate movement.

Bulbs found to be infested will not be allowed in interstate movement until disinfected or treated under the direction and to the satisfaction of an inspector. Persons intending to move harvested bulbs interstate should make application for inspection to the plant quarantine inspector of the state concerned as far as possible in advance of the probable date of shipment.

GYPSY WIFE SELLS SHEIK HUBBY; HE REFUSES TO LEAVE HOME

DES MOINES, Iowa—T. J. Hubbard, inspector of police here, when called upon to determine the rightful wife of a gypsy sheik, rose to Solomon-like heights and rendered a decision.

"You are a nuisance around here," the inspector observed to the gypsy camp in general. "It would be best to move on."

The camp moved, and the question was settled, at least as far as Hubbard was concerned.

Holiday Postoffice Hours.

Holiday hours will be observed at the Chester postoffice Monday, Labor day. There will be no city or rural deliveries during the day.

Diamond Series Arranged.

Series of baseball games has been arranged by the married and single men of the Sunday school classes of the First Christian church. The first game will be played next week on Smith field.

The complainant stated she had paid the camp sheik's wife $750 for the husband. It was all right with the wife, she said, but the sheik was too well satisfied with living conditions as they were to leave home.

BEN WELCH, 50, COMEDIAN FOR 25 YEARS, DIES

Famous Actor Loses Five-month Fight for Health.

BLIND SIX YEARS

He is Survived by Widow and Daughter, Justine.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—Ben Welch, the famous comedian, died today at the King's Park sanitarium, King's Park, Long Island. He had been in ill health for five months.

Welch had been on the stage for nearly a quarter of a century. Six years ago he became blind but refused to give up his work until recently, when his health began to fail.

He is survived by his widow and a daughter.

Welch was 50 years old. He was one of the leading Yiddish dialect comedians in burlesque and vaudeville. He appeared in the Columbia and Mutual circuits for years. It is said he frequently made as much as $50,000 a year. He also played in the Keith vaudeville circuit.

His wife, Jeanette, was at the bedside when the end came. His daughter, Justine, is 17 years old.

News of his death was a shock to his many friends on Broadway. He had a personality that endeared him to his countless friends here and all over the country.

HOME LOOTED; TWO MEN HELD

Police Seek Third Suspect in East End Job.

Orville McDole, 21, and Raymond Garrett, 15, are in the city jail while police are attempting to locate a third suspect in the looting of the James Martin home, East End, last Saturday night.

They were arrested upon charges of larceny preferred in municipal court yesterday by Martin. McDole was picked up last night by Patrolman Chester Smith, while Captain Conley arrested Garrett.

The loot included three automobile tires, a sweater, slicker, suit of clothes and a watch, the total value of which was estimated at more than $200, all the property of Robert Martin, a son of the complainant. Everything except the watch was located by Captain Conley and Desk Sergeant Toland last night.

The case against Garrett who is a minor has been referred to Probation Officer John McShane.

TRY TO START AUTO, JAILED

Two Men are Given 60-day Sentences by Court.

Harvey Westfall, 19, Charleston, W. Va., and Tim Kearns, 25, were sentenced to serve 60 days in the county jail at Lisbon by Municipal Judge Hanley today after they pleaded guilty to charges of starting an engine in a motor vehicle without the owner's consent.

They were arrested by Captain of Police Conley at the corner of Fifth street and Broadway at 11 o'clock yesterday morning after they are alleged to have attempted to steal a Nash sedan parked on Fourth street near the Y. M. C. A.

Westfall admitted having started the motor in the car, intending to drive to Pittsburgh. Kearns said he was with him. They changed their plans, however, when they found the transmission in the machine locked.

Police received a tip concerning the pair, and Captain Conley located them as they were preparing to board an eastbound interurban car.

Westfall came to East Liverpool about three weeks ago from Darlington, Pa., where he had been working in a brick plant. Police say he confessed to having broken into the restaurant at the No. 4 plant of the Homer Laughlin China company at Newell one night last week, securing $1.90 in cash and a quantity of cigarettes. He named a confederate in the robbery. He also admitted, police claim, that he forced an entrance into the pottery restaurant again last Monday night, stealing cigarettes. He said that Kearns accompanied him on the second robbery, but this the latter denied. Westfall also admitted the theft of a tire from a Newell garage a few nights ago.

Kearns claims to have returned to East Liverpool last Sunday, after having been traveling with a carnival company all summer.

Fifth U. S. Reservation To World Court Attacked

France, Belgium and Italy Score Proposal, Charging America Seeks Privileged Position.

GENEVA, Sept. 2.—The fifth reservation, proposed by the United States as a condition of its entry to the world court today proved a difficult pill to swallow for the representatives of 37 powers, signatory to the world court, in conference here to pass upon the American reservations.

Representatives of France, Belgium and Italy all attacked this reservation, declaring that the United States is seeking a special and privileged position.

"Does America want all of the privileges of a member of the council of the league without having any of the burdens of a member?" queried Sir Cecil Hurst, British delegate.

The Belgian delegation suggested that the world court be asked to decide whether unanimity or a majority is required to accept the United States reservations.

Sir Cecil Hurst suggested that it would be better not to ask the court for an opinion on this matter now, but to let the question remain obscure for the time being, at the same time giving the United States assurances that it would have all the privieges before the world court that would be given to a member of the league council, no more and no less.

"Then we can see what the United States really wants," said Sir Cecil. "The fifth reservation is the most difficult of many very serious difficulties, but why not let the United States come in on a basis of equality and leave the details to the future?"

Chief Fultz Reinstated

of police by Mayor G. D. Ingram, on April 15, 1921, and served as such officer until his removal by Mayor Fogo.

"John H. Fultz held said position under the civil service law, which provides: General Code Section 486-17a:

"The tenure of every officer, employee or subordinate in the classified service of the state, the counties, cities and city school district thereof, holding a position under the provisions of this act, shall be during good behavior and efficient service.'

"Then it provides the grounds upon which he may be removed.

"Then the section provides:

"'In all cases of removal the appointing authority shall furnish such employee or subordinate with a copy of the order of removal and his reasons for the same."

Law is Cited.

"Then the law provides that such order with the explanation, shall be filed with the civil service commission, and provides for a hearing before the commission; that the commission shall hear "or appoint a trial board to hear such appeal."

"The law further provides:

"'That in the case of the removal of a chief of police or chief of the fire department of a municipality an appeal may be had from the decision of the municipal commission to the court of common pleas of the county in which such municipality is situated to determine the sufficiency of the cause of removal.'

"The only question before this court is "to determine the sufficiency of the cause of removal."

"The matter was tried before the civil service commission of Wellsville, and is now appealed to this court to determine the sufficiency of the cause of removal.

"The complainant, Wallace L. Fogo, called a number of witnesses to show sufficiency of the cause of such removal.

Testimony of Prosecution.

"He called first a number of witnesses, who testified that they were bootleggers and gamblers in Wellsville; that a number of them had conducted gambling places. Most of them testified that their places had been raided by Chief Fultz, and that they had been arrested by him a number of times, and some of them testified that they had a system of signals by which they could warn the players of the approach of an officer. Some of them testified that they had sold liquor and been arrested by Chief Fultz a number of times. Two or three of them testified that they had paid Chief Fultz money for protection from arrest, and one witness, Ike Freeman, testified that Chief Fultz had paid him money on election day to pay some persons for coming to the polls to vote.

"There was some evidence that the bootleggers were disreputable persons and unworthy of belief, and half a dozen or more witness testified that Ike Freeman was unworthy of belief.

"The complainant called witnesses to show that Mrs. Fultz, a reputable woman, had a drunken revel in her home. And he attempted to offer some palliation for his bootleggers and gamblers by calling a preacher to testify that the city had been better under his administration than under Mayor Barnes' administration, but the preacher testified that he did not know anything about the gambling places or the bootleggers that are now running or doing business in the town.

The Defense.

"Chief Fultz called as witnesses, I believe five former mayors of Wellsville under whom Fultz had served as chief of police, and they all testified that he was a capable, courteous and efficient oficer, and always ready and willing to do whatever he was directed to do.

Chief Fultz called as witnesses probably all of the former directors of public safety of Wellsville, who were the immediate superior officers of Chief Fultz, who all testified that he was a capable and efficient officer and always ready to obey any direction or order.

He called as a witness Hugh McDermott, who has been for many years at the head of the police department of East Liverpool(and there is, perhaps, no man better qualified to tell the worth of a good and efficient police officer), who testified that in all his dealings with him he had found him to be a capable, courteous and efficient chief of police; that he was always ready to respond to any request.

He also called Captain Mason Conley, who has for a long time been connected with the police department of East Liverpool, and he testified that in all his dealing with him that he had found him always ready and willing to do whatever was requested of him, and that he considered him a good officer.

Reviews Evidence.

"He also called Sheriff George Wright, who has had four years' experience as deputy sheriff of this country and nearly two years as sheriff, who has had frequent business dealings with Chief Fultz, especially in criminal matters, that he always found him ready to assist, whenever he was called on, and that he considered him a capable and efficient officer.

"They called a number of witnesses who had occasion to call upon the chief for various matters, that they always found him prompt to respond to any request for assistance, and that he was generally able to do whatever was requested of him.

"They called a large number of the best citizens of Wellsville who had had some business with the chief and who had observed him almost daily while performing his duties; that they considered him courteous, capable and eficient in the performance of his police duties, and that they generally knew where to find him if he was needed.

"Considerable has been said at this trial about the failure of Chief Fultz to make raids on bootleggers and gamblers. I know of no law and my attention has not been called to any ordinance which requires the chief to procure search warrants and to make raids. Even the Crabbe enforcement law does not direct any officer to procure search warrants and to make raids, but it permits any person to procure a search warrant by filing an affidavit with the magistrate. Presumably it is some person who has some knowledge who files the affidavit.

Reference To Civil Service Laws.

"The civil service laws of Ohio were passed for the purpose of fixing the tenure of office of persons holding positions under this law, and all persons acting under this law must act in good faith and for the good of the service; and this applies to the removal of a person from the service as well as to all the officers and employes under the service.

"There is no question, from the evidence, but what Wallace L. Fogo said to a number of persons, when he was a candidate for mayor, that if he was elected mayor that he would soon get rid of Chief Fultz; that as soon as he took the office that he started to treat the chief with indifference; that instead of treating him as had always been the custom of other mayors, by turning his papers over to the chief to serve, he started to turn them over to a policeman to serve.

"On the nineteenth day of March, 1926, the mayor removed the chief from his position, and, as required by law, gave him twelve reasons for his removal. These papers were filed with the civil service commission of Wellsville where there was a trial.

The law, General Code, Section 486-17a, provides that the commission "shall hear, or appoint a trial board to hear, such appeal." Under the law the commission was authorized to appoint a trial board to hear this matter, and the mayor's own brother was a member of this commission. Even a meager sense of justice and propriety would have prevented the mayor from trying this matter to a board of which his own brother was a member, and the same sense of justice and propriety would have prevented his brother from trying this matter. There is an old adage "that we should not only avoid evil but we should avoid the appearance of evil."

Term "Czar" is Used.

"In the complaint filed by the mayor against the chief there are some very serious charges against him of changing records, appropriating city money, and many others, of which there was no evidence at this hearing. If there is no evidence of these charges then this was a base and shameful attack by the mayor upon the chief of police which could only be prompted by malice and hatred.

"The mayor called witnesses to show that Wellsville is in a better condition during his administration than it was during the administration of the dead Mayor Barnes. He was assuming the credit for the improved condition during his administration and assuming to hold Chief Fultz responsible for the bad condition during the Barnes' administration. The evidence shows that the town is in as bad condition now as formerly.

"The mayor testified that for some time he acted as service director and that he had Acting Chief of Police Newton driving him over town in the performance of the duties of that office, an office which there is no law authorizing the mayor to fill himself.

It is not up to the court, at this time, to determine the legality of the orders and contracts made by him while so acting in an office which he was not authorized to fill. The mayor seems to have assumed control of the police force, while the law makes the safety director the immediate superior officer of the police force, and the orders should go from him to the police. The mayor seems to think that the people have elected him Czar of Wellsville and that he can usurp any position in the city government and give all orders and directions.

Order of Court.

"This matter comes into this court by appeal from the civil service commission, and the ordinary rule is that when a cause is appealed that the appellate court tries it as an original cause in that court, and I assume that the same rule would apply to this proceeding; and this court finds that there was no cause for the removal of John H. Fultz as chief of police of Wellsville, Ohio.

"It is the order of this court that John H. Fultz be fully restored to his position as chief of police of Wellsville, and that there be restored to him all that he has lost by removal."

Petitions Request Removal of Akron Judge From Office

AKRON, O., Sept. 2.—Removal from office of Common Pleas Judge L. S. Pardee will be sought through petitions to be filed tomorrow in the court of appeals, it was announced today by Fred Hagloch, chairman of the executive committee of the Ohio Non-Partisan league.

Judge Pardee will be charged in the petition, Hagloch said, with having blocked elections by granting injunctions preventing a vote on the recall of Councilmen A. E. Sauder and Slyder Crevelin.

A hearing on motions to dissolve the injunctions will be held here tomorrow.

STEVENS' ALIBI IN HALL-MILLS QUIZ IS HIT

Prosecutor Says He Has Found "Hole of Some Importance."

QUESTIONS HIM

Twenty-persons Support Story of Fishing Journey.

SOMERVILLE, N. J., Sept. 2.—Convinced that he has found a "hole of some importance" in the alibi of Henry Stevens, the latest member of the family of Mrs. Frances Stevens Hall to be questioned in connection with the Hall-Mills murder mystery, Special Prosecutor Alexander Simpson today planned to question him further in an effort to ascertain the truth or falsity of his story.

Stevens' alibi that he was fishing near his home at Lavalette, N. J., the night of the murder has been substantiated by 23 witnesses. Lavalette is 50 miles away from New Brunswick, where the Rev. Edward W. Hall and his choir singer sweetheart, Mrs. Eleanor Mills, were shot to death on the night of November 14, 1922.

Simpson would not reveal the nature of the alleged discrepency he claims to have found in the alibi, but he did not hesitate to say that he attached significance to it.

DENVER COLLEGE RECORDS QUAKE

DENVER, Sept. 2.—An earthquake of severe intensity was recorded on the seismograph at Regis college here last night, according to announcement today by Father A. W. Forestall. Waves were recorded on the instrument for a duration of 20 minutes, starting at 7:50 and ending at 8:10, with the maximum fluctuation at 7:58. Father Forestall said indications were that the tremor occurred at a distance of between 5,000 and 6,000 miles, probably across the Atlantic ocean.

SANTIAGO, Chile, Sept. 2.—A severe earthquake was experienced in the province of Altacama today. The effects of the quake have not yet been ascertained.

Jewelry Salesman Is Robbed of Gems Worth $130,000

CHICAGO, Sept. 2.—Norman D. Kadison, jewelry salesman, of New York City, was robbed of gems worth $130,000 in his room in the Palmer House here, according to a report to police today.

Kadison told police the bandits entered his room shortly after he had spread out his samples for the day and had forced him to remain quiet while they packed the loot into bags.

Recently the crown prince's father had different and more extensive plans for a British invasion. The Hohenzollern methods of the last two or three generations were carefully observed, however, and the Hohenzollern of today sends somebody to do the swimming.

A FLYING sleeping car made its first trip from Berlin to London. The eight seats in the car are changed at night into four comfortable beds. Another German car has flown from Berlin to Peking.

This country will begin flying by and by. But we must get around to it gradually, being an old fashioned nation.

DISPATCHES tell of a split between the Fascisti and the vatican because of attacks on Catholic parades at Mantua and Mancerata. The pope has ordered cancellation of the International Catholic Gymnast congress that was to be held in Rome this week. The trouble is not of Mussolini's doing, and it has not his approval, that is certain. He has repeatedly emphasized his belief that religion is a necessary part of government.

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE is assured that he might as well sell America's ships to foreign countries, because it "doesn't make any difference what flag they are under."

It made some difference in the last war, when this country paid first-class passage for worse than steerage accommodations to get its soldiers to Europe on foreign ships.

It is announced that President Coolidge will not sell American ships to sail under foreign flags.

That's good.

REPORTS FROM STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—New advances in the high grade railroad stocks, the coppers, the gas and electric company stocks and a few of the oils, featured the early trading in the stock market today. Elsewhere the market was slightly reactionary, which was accounted for by the usual "switching" from stocks which have had their day, to the new favorites.

Bullish sentiment was stimulated by the reports and comments of prominent business leader, including Mr. Roberts of the National City bank and George F. Baker, veteran banker and industrial directors, who returned today from Europe. The rails were the favored group, though large scale buying of the copper stocks was noted, under the lead of smelters and Anaconda; the utilities, led by Brooklyn Edison, Consolidated Gas and Brooklyn Union Gas and the oils, in which Marland and Phillips Pete were again on display.

The market developed a slightly reactionary tone in the second hour, with profit taking in both the rails and industrials which have led the procession in the previous sessions of the week and speculative selling of the low priced motor and accessory stocks, some of which were depressed to new low prices of the year. Jordan Motor broke through to 20½, while Moon Motors, Hudson and Stewart Warner were under selling pressure.

Grain cotton and other important commodities showed a slight margin of gains in the early trading money was in good supply and call renewal rates were unchanged at 4½ per cent.

votes his vacations. Back in 1895 he won much fame as a long distance bicycle rider, and was a member of the old Morgan & Wright team. Thirty-one years have told little on his endurance and stamina. In fact he gaily ran up two flights of stairs, three steps at a time when he was taken to Roosevelt hospital for examination immediately at the conclusion of his 83-hour stretch at the wheel.

His partner in the enterprise, J. E. Wieber, is 30 and lives in Portland, Ore., where he works as an automobile mechanic. While no mechanical work was necessary on the trip, Wieber relieved Miller at the wheel.

Enjoy Extra Goodness

It's that finishing touch in the manufacture of Lucky Strike cigarettes which is distinctive.

To begin with, they are made of the world's finest Turkish and domestic tobaccos, properly aged and perfectly blended.

Lucky Strikes are distinctive because of:

1. Finer Flavor. Toasting for 45 minutes develops the hidden flavors of the world's finest Turkish and domestic tobaccos.
2. Smoothness. Toasting for 45 minutes removes all "bite" and harshness, hence never any throat irritation.
3. Freshness. Then the tobacco is suddenly chilled. This seals the flavor in and insures constant freshness.

If you haven't yet adopted Luckies, you're missing these added enjoyments. So smoke them for a trial. Learn why millions prefer them.

"IT'S TOASTED"

That's Why Luckies Taste So Good

WINONA WOMAN SEEKS DIVORCE

Blanche L. Mangus, of Winona, has filed an action for divorce in common pleas court against her husband, Frank Mangus, also of Inona.

The couple were married May 6, 1897. The petition was filed by Attorney J. S. Miller, of Alliance.

Mrs. Mangus charges her husband with habitual drunkenness for a period of three years, gross neglect of duty and extreme cruelty.

Temporary alimony and attorney fees are sought by the plaintiff. The petition shows that Mangus is possessed of real estate worth $8,000, mortgages worth $2,000 and an automobile and other personal effects worth $3,000, in which Mrs. Mangus declares she has a dower interest.

Returning from Canada.

Frank Low and family, of Lisbon, who have been spending the summer in Canada, are expected to return to Lisbon Friday. Mr. Low stopped at Toronto, Canada, enroute home to visit the Toronto fair.

Hanoverton, R. D.—John J. Hatzll.

New Waterford, R. D. — Harry Crum.

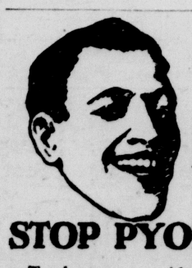

Lisbon, R. D.—Lizzie Eells.

28 NEW DIVORCE PETITIONS FILED

Of the 68 cases filed in common pleas court during August 28 petitions were those seeking a divorce and one other other petition sought alimony alone. The average of about one-third of the cases filed per month in divorce held good. The remainder of the 37 cases filed were actions wherein money and property was involved.

A number of new transcripts have been filed with Clerk of Courts Frank Ballantine having to do with grand jury investigations and were referred to Prosecuting Attorney Robert M. Brookes and his assistant, John E. Bauknecht.

Notice has been issued by the prosecuting attorney's office that all magistrates immediately file transcripts of all criminal cases they now have on their dockets, instead of awaiting the last day before the grand jury convenes.

Save Your Teeth!
STOP PYORRHEA
Tender, sore or bleeding gums, or gums fissured or receding from the teeth, indicate DEADLY PYORRHEA—the teeth's worst enemy. The disease first attacks the gums, later the tooth structure. As the gums recede from the teeth, pus pockets are formed, in which toxic poisons develop to be absorbed by the system and become the possible sources of other dangerous diseases. Don't let Pyorrhea endanger your health. The ravages of this terrible disease can be stopped, the gums healed and the poison the system has been absorbing checked, by the use of VINCENT'S PYORRHEA TREATMENT. For further particulars write,

TWO MEN GIVEN JAIL SENTENCES

Floyd Sargent and Oathe Adams, both of Newell, were fined $100 each and committed to the county jail for 60 days on a charge of having mash in their possession when arraigned Tuesday night in Chester before Justice John A. Mylar.

The men were arrested Monday evening in a raid conducted by Constable John Talbott, Chief of Police William Smith of Chester and several deputies who found a quantity of mash in the home of Sargent in Second street.

They were taken to New Cumberland yesterday.

VOTERS TO PASS ON TAX PROPOSAL

Electors of the state will pass on the question of classification at the general election in November. This proposal was ordered submitted at the last session of the legislature.

Number of arguments have been advanced at farm and other meetings throughout the state both for and against the proposition which is expected to bring out a large vote.

COMMISSION LETS ROAD CONTRACTS

At a meeting of the state road commission this week at Charleston contracts were awarded for a number of highway jobs in various parts of the state. This will be the final letting of the present year on the part of the state.

Reports received at the office of the commission indicate that work on improvements started early in the summer are nearing completion and in most cases will be finished before the advent of cold weather.

DENNY SCREAM IN NEW FILM

"Rolling Home" Opens Three-day Run at Ceramic.

"Here we are again."

That's what a chorus of voices shouted when the company which was to produce "Rolling Home" at Universal City, was gathered on the set for the first day's work.

William A. Seiter, the director, Reginald Denny, the star, Marion Nixon, the leading woman and Ben Hendricks, who plays a prominent supporting role in the picture, which opens a three-day run at the Ceramic theatre today, have all been together on three of Denny's last four pictures.

Seiter has directed them all. Miss Nixon has played opposite the popular farceur in "Where Was I," "I'll Show You the Town," "What Happened to Jones" and "Rolling Home," while Hendricks has been in all but "Where Was I."

In Seiter's corps of assistants, Harry Todd has turned the camera on all of Denny's recent pictures, and Nate Watt has been the assistant director, so altogether it makes quite a happy family gathering.

The supporting cast of "Rolling Home" includes E. J. Ratcliffe, Margaret Seddon, George Nicholls, George Marion, Anton Vaverka and several others.

"Rolling Home" is based on the stage farce of the same name by John Hunter Booth, and was adapted to the screen by Rex Taylor. Seiter and John McDermott wrote the continuity.

Answers to Questions

By FREDERIC J. HASKIN

The keynote of the times is efficient service. In supplying its readers with a free Information Bureau in Washington The Review-Tribune is living up to this principle in deed and fact. We are paying for this service in order that it may be free to the public. Submit your queries to the staff of experts whose services are put at your disposal. Enclose two cents in stamps to cover the return postage. Address The East Liverpool Review-Tribune Information Bureau, Frederic J. Haskin, Director, Washington, D. C.

Q. Can a pilot whirl his propeller and then get into his plane? R. S.

A. He cannot whirl his propeller and have time to get in his seat to run the plane. It is necessary that someone start him. No standard types of ariplanes are equipped with self-starters. Self-starters have been used in experiments.

Q. When is Yellowstone Park closed to campers? T. V. T.

A. The National Park Service says that the Yellowstone is closed September 19 to campers. However, it is open to tourists until October 15. Therefore, anyone visiting the park between these dates by automobile is allowed to tour through, but not to camp.

Q. By whose authority are dates in the Bible explained in terms of B. C. and A. D.? N. N.

A. The approximate dates of the happenings recorded in the Bible were fixed after long and careful study by historians and scientists. The letters B. C. mean before the Christian Era, and the letters A. D. signify Anno Domini, meaning the beginning of the Christia Era. There are plenty of evidences that these dates are approximately correct.

Q. Where was John Cabot born and where did he die? B. R. D.

A. This navigator who discovered the continent of North America, is considered a Venetian. He was an Italian navigator in the employ of the English King, Henry VII, but the time and place of his birth and death are not known.

Q. Is a rotary press stamp as valuable as regular stamps to a collector? R. E. I.

A. Rotary press stamps are made by a printing process; other stamps are engraved. The value to collectors depends upon the rarity of the stamp and new issues whether manufactured by rotary process or engraving process.

Q. How are the checks sent back to the banks on which they are drawn? C. McN.

A. All checks which are drawn on a bank other than the one in which is cashed, go through a clearing house. A clearing house is a central office where the representatives of the banks of the association meet every day and settle their accounts with each other, and make settlements of debit or credit gross balances. Before the clearing house was established it was customary for banks to settle with each other directly by sending their messengers to every bank in the city against which it had checks or drafts, and collecting the money from each individual institution. This required a great deal of time and expense, and where in those days it required several messengers the entire day to settle accounts, it now requires but forty-five minutes and but two messengers through the clearing-house.

Q. What is the derivation of "cockney?" W. E.

A. A cockney is a native of London or one born within the Sound of "Bow Bells." Originally it meant a spoiled or effiminate boy. It is derived from the word "cockering," meaning coolishly petting a person. Halliwell states that some writers trace the word to imaginary land of Cockaygne, the lubber land of olden times.

It is easy to pick out the foreign-born. They cuss capital instead of congress.—Fostoria Tribune.

"JUST CAN'T HELP IT" BEAUTY SAYS WHEN ASKED TO EXPLAIN HER RECIPE

SAN FRANCISCO—"And how does one become beautiful?" inquired the naive reporter.

Miss Beryl Mills, voted the most beautiful girl in Australia, while in San Francisco en route to Atlantic City admitted the question was a poser and intimated that if she held the answer to the question she would capitalize it to her advantage.

However, Miss Mills has some decided opinions concerning the use of cosmetics.

She does not use powder, nor does not use rouge.

"And as for that," she continued, "I never use cold cream."

And it would indeed be a critical critic who would say that she suffered by not using these customary aids to beauty.

A set diet is unknown to the pretty Australian girl.

"I simply eat anything I wish," she said. "No, I'm not a vegetarian. No freakish habits or anything. I guess I am just healthy."

Dancing is a favorite pastime of the Australian girl.

"I just love it," she remarked, smilingly.

"The Charleston?"

"Well hardly that. It seems like a bit of awkward posturing to me."

A daily swim is part of Miss Mills' ritual. She won honors at that at her school in Australia, Perth University.

The Australian's girl's mother, who accompanied her to this country, also confided another very important matter.

"Beryl loves housework," she said. "She is never so happy as when she has a broom in her hands and occupied by domestic duties."

That frogs love saxophone music, as stated by an orchestra leader, should not be surprising when one remembers how the frogs croak and the saxophone honks. Pretty nearly in the same class.—Newark American-Tribune.

Local League Stars Win Second Tilt of Inter-City Series

Turn Back Midlanders, 5 to 3, at Smith Field; Third Clash Saturday

Wilde Holds Pennsylvanians to Three Scattered Hits; Potters Bunch Four Bingles, Walk, to Score Five Runs.

BILL MUNDY'S East Liverpool City Industrial league pickup team took another fall out of the Midland All Stars last evening at Smith Field, 5 to 3, hanging up their second straight victory of the scheduled five-game series.

Neither club was able to solve the opposing pitcher's delivery for more than a few hits, but both profited by the hurlers' wildnesses.

Wilde, Chester first bagman and pitcher, turned in a three-hit performance for the victors, permitting one triple and two singles. He fanned six, but allowed five walks and hit three.

Yoboid was touched up for three hits in four innings, and Black gave up one in the last two frames of the contest which went only six innings, being called as darkness settled over the field.

Yoboid and Black struck out five between them and gave a total of six walks, Yoboid being charged with four of them.

The Midlanders drew first blood, scoring in the first inning on a triple by B. Black and a single by R. Black and added another in the second on a pass to Heckathorne, a sacrifice by Gordon, then a couple more walks and a sacrifice fly by B. Black.

Rally in Fourth.

In the fourth, Sunday walked, went to second on Yoboid's sacrifice and scored on a hit by B. Black.

At this point the locals began to stir around and went out and chalked up five runs before the frame was over. Four hits, two bases on balls and a wild pitch did the trick.

With one out, Eddie Bayley singled Mundy walked and they worked a double steal. Herbert singled, scoring Bayley, and Mundy came in on a wild pitch. McShane walked and on Parsons' single, Herbert scored. Schneidmiller crashed out a two-baser, scoring McShane and Parsons.

Wilde let three strikes slide past him and Evans lined to Andrews who threw to B. Black for a double play before Schneidmiller could get back to the bag.

Midland had their Sunday catching and the locals their Mundy at first base.

The third clash of the series will be staged Saturday afternoon at Midland.

The odds are against an East Liverpool victory, but in the event that that is the way it turns out, the series will formally be concluded.

By winning their final home game from the Pittsburgh Pirates while the Cincinnati Reds were idle, the St. Louis Cardinals today held a somewhat firmer grasp on first place in the hectic National league pennant race. The Cardinals thus gained a full game on the Pirates and now are approximately two games in front of the world's champions. They gained a half game on the Reds and now top the latter by one game.

Yesterday marked the final appearance of the Cardinals on the home ground this season, unless they get into the world series.

The New York Yankees increased their lead over Cleveland in the American league to six games by beating the Philadelphia Athletics while the Indians were idle.

INSIDE GOLF

By CHESTER HORTON.
Maker of 51 Golf Champions. "Golf's most successful teacher," says "Chick" Evans.

Some of the smallest things and apparently the most unimportant details can often keep a golfer who is in ignorance of them in the duffer class for years. One of these is the exact location of the ball in the address. In this, the individual player should find some point on which he can absolutely rely. Beyond that he can experiment some, always with the understanding that he knows the spot to return to in the event the experiments go bad. One of the best general rules in this regard is this: Take a square stance, with the feet not too far apart, yet not so close together that a feeling of solidity on the ground is lost. From this position have the ball, for wood clubs, on a line with the left heel. In the address have the hands exactly on a line with the ball. For irons, let the ball be moved back about three inches. In the address have the hands about an inch in front of the ball. For aevrage players that position holds good almost invariably.

TAGGING ALL --BASES--

Dutch Ruether, the convalescent young man who recently joined the Yankees by way of Washington, had his coming-out party yesterday. Pitching eight innings of beautiful baseball, he triumphed over the Athletics, 6 to 4, while Shawkey relieved him in the ninth when the Mackmen began to get free with their bats.

Nine pitchers went in and out of a long-distance batting spree between the Red Sox, and the Senators, which the latter won by the rare score of fourteen to twelve.

Woodall, catching for Detroit, threw a lemon yesterday, allowing three runs for the White Sox, and contributing largely to the latter's 11 to 7 victory. Woodall's wild throw to first hit Mostil, the runner, in the back, and zoomed into right field, completely messing the works.

The Phillies made a clean-sweep of their three-game series with the Braves by taking the final game, 3 to 0. Ulrich held Boston to four scattered hits, allowing only one man to reach second.

The Cards drove another rivet into their hold on first place in the national league race, by knocking Ray Kremer out of the box in the seventh and taking the final game of the series from the Pirates, 5 to 2.

STUB GRIDDERS DOWN TO WORK

STEUBENVILLE, Sept. 2. — More than 40 youthful pigskin aspirants are working out here daily under the direction of Coach Charles Cartledge as Steubenville high launches its 1926 grid campaign.

Boss Cartledge is working his charges at North End field. Equipment has been distributed to at least three full teams.

The big squad will be led by Captain Toney Reducca. Joe Feist, Jimmy, Shutt, Louie Welsh, Buddy Coles, Harry Smith, Given, Freeland, McGirty, Cliff Spellacy and Trombetti compose the group which brings experience worth considering.

The others in the squad are Deluca, Morelli, Owens, Loftus, Blackburn, Baker, Tepsic, Carafas, P. Stout, Walker, Ruben, Ainsworth, Gaffney, B. Smith, Mock, Stecker, Cole, Luke, Arthurs, Chambers, Polonofsky, Lee, Gavin, Riley, Downer, Wonovich, Garvin, Boss Smith, G. Gescheider, C. Gescheider, Stanko and Longo.

Until the opening of school when the squad will be increased by at least 20 others, there will be "grass drills," practice in punting, running back kicks, getting down on the line, and in fact every fundamental of the game and some stiffer work.

Can't See How Champ Dempsey Could Lose

Teddy Hayes, His Ex-trainer, Voices Opinion That Fight Won't Last Six Rounds.

By Davis J. Walsh.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—Tim Mara and Chicago O'Brien may be laying serious money on the nose, as it were, against Jack Dempsey's chances of emerging from the forthcoming unpleasantness, in toto and as was, but then neither of those gamboleers talked today to Teddy Hayes, the champion's ex-trainer. The writer did and Theodore experienced practically no difficulty in making himself clear on the point that he didn't see how Dempsey could go wrong.

That crack would have come under the head of professional persiflage in the old days but it ceases to become non-significant when the fact is considered that the worthy Hayes no longer is associated with Dempsey—by mutual consent. He, therefore, can tell what he deems to be the truth witth a clear conscience.
truth with a clear conscience.

"The fight won't last six rounds," he said, in his best take-it-or-leave-it manner. "As soon as Dempsey finds out that Tunney is a little timid and wants to box, he'll swarm all over Gene and just about tear up the ring. No mere boxer without a punch has a chance with Jack Dempsey; when he loses, it will be a fighter who 'takes' him."

The writer suggested that perhaps Mr. Hayes was confusing a man who had been out of the ring three years with the Dempsey that was.

"I don't care if he has been out of the ring ten years," was the reply. "These counter-fighters are Dempsey's meat. They ask him to come and hit them and he doesn't need a second invitation. And when he hits them, they're hit."

Without actually knowing, I strongly suspect that this sentiment is as much Jack Kearns' as it is Hayes. The latter is well acquainted with his apple but he would hardly feel so certain of his ideas if Kearns was in disagreement with them. The pair of them meet daily.

"A rough, tough puncher like Dempsey himself, a man who can beat him at his own game, will win the title eventually," the little trainer added. "He met such a man in Firpo and everybody knows how close he came to tossing that one off. We knew it was going to be close all the time because we knew Firpo was the type of fighter who figured to give Dempsey the most trouble.

Didn't Lose Head.

"A lot of people thought Jack lost his head in that fight. He didn't at all. He obeyed our instructions implicitly and it would have been all over in a round if he hadn't become careless.

"We told him to walk right out at Firpo and begin hitting him. It wasn't a minute until Firpo was down and, inside of 30 second or more, he was ready for the finisher. But Jack walked into one with his guard down and nearly ruined himself.

"Firpo was one of those babies you couldn't afford to play around with. You had to smack him down quick and Dempsey did it in the first minute of play. If he hadn't, there's no telling what might have happened."

Camel—the greatest tobacco word of all time

NEVER in the history of smoking has there been such a cigarette as Camel. No other cigarette was ever made welcome in so many millions of homes, because no other ever brought so much enjoyment to smokers.

When Camels came into the world they brought an entirely new sense of smoking satisfaction and contentment. Millions who have tried them all, who could well afford to pay more, will smoke only Camels. Camels on the table mean that this is the home of experienced smokers.

Camel is the world's favorite cigarette. Camel is given a greater patronage than any other cigarette ever had. Why? Because Camels contain the choicest Turkish and Domestic tobaccos grown. Because Camels never tire the taste, no matter how liberally you smoke them. Because they never leave a cigaretty after-taste. The world's largest tobacco organization puts the utmost quality into this one cigarette.

If you want the mellowest mildness that ever came from a cigarette, try Camels. Regardless of what you are willing to pay, you will find in this famous smoke every fine feature you ever looked for in a cigarette.

Have a Camel!

NO KEARNS IN JACK'S CORNER

Will Champ Miss Expert Handling Between Rounds?

ATLANTIC CITY, Sept. 2. — Will Jack Dempsey miss Jack Kearns when he squares off against Gene Tunney on the night of September 23 at the sesqui stadium in Philadelphia?

Will he miss the final words of advice, the pat on the back and the expert handling between rounds?

The champion hasn't said much about it—in fact, he declares he has not given much thought to the final battle formation in his corner—but those who have seen Kearns steer him through five championship fights are inclined to believe that Dempsey will feel his responsibilities weighing more heavily upon him when he sits in his corner awaiting the first bell than at any time since he broke with his former manager. For the Tunney fight, Dempsey will have three men in his corner.

One will be Gus Wilson, training supervisor; another, Jerry Luvadis, his faithful personal attendant, and the third will probably be Gene Normile.

Dempsey never moves a step in this fighting business without Jerry tagging him. Wilson is considered an expert second capable of rating the fighter in the opposite corner and experienced in making the most of the minute's rest between rounds. Normile is not accustomed to the rigors and the exciting responsibilities of the Quennsberry firing line, but he may sit in to lend his moral support. It is possible, however, that Gene will yield his corner privilege to a more experienced second.

CHALLENGER GETS OVATION

Cheered All Along Route to Stroudsburg Camp.

STROUDSBURG, Pa., Sept. 2.—Gene Tunney, challenger for the world's heavyweight title, was taking it easy at his training camp rector here today. He arrived last night from Philadelphia after a thrilling trip that will linger long in his memory.

Tunney was hailed along the route as though he had won the title from Jack Dempsey—not as if he were merely a challenger for a title. More than 200,000 dyed-in-the-wool fight fants turned out to see him. Approximately half of this number greeted him in Philadelphia.

Stroudsburg is not as big as Philadelphia, but it did its best. Fully 4,500 of the 12,000 souls who live and thrive in this city were on hand when Mayor Clarence L. Edinger rode with Tunney down Main street, sirens heralding the approach of the challenger. Every motor car along the route then joined in the chorus. Stroudsburg never rocked with noise of such volume since Armistice day.

The local post of the American Legion was on hand to welcome Tunney. He was photographed with the overseas boys; he was protographed with the mayor. Jerry Ox wanted to be photographed with him, but was suppressed. There were no speeches, although the populace demanded a few words from Tunney.

Flappers and matrons rushed up and shook hands with Gene. One said she wanted to kiss him. But she didn't. Gene balked. A mild form of hysteria gripped the welcoming host. This mild hysteria is common under such circumstances.

Trudy's "Own Home Block" Puts on Festive Dress In Welcome to Returning Heroine of Channel Swim

SKULL PRACTICE

Connie Mack will take his Athletics back to Ft. Myers, Fla., again next spring. They did a much more graceful job of going to pieces this summer after training there.

New York Yanks used 20 men in effort to win ball game the other day but official scorer counted runs instead of players.

Jack Dempsey knocked one of his sparring partners unconscious in recent workout and Gene Tunney has been wondering ever since whether or not Jack was just fooling.

Cleveland, O., safety director announces he will clean up boxing game. After that's done he's going to dip the ocean dry with a spoon.

LADY ASTOR TELLS MAINE FOLKS HOW TO RAISE THEIR FAMILIES

ISLEBORO, Maine—Telling of her work for the betterment of children, Lady Nancy Astor, M. P., made what she called her only platform speech before 300 permanent residents here. Summer residents were politely excluded from the town hall where the distinguished visitor delivered her address.

Lady Astor appeared at the invitation of the Isleboro Board of Trade. She urged the uplifting and upbuilding of character in the rising generation, and explained why she had entered politics. At the conclusion of her talk she stationed herself at the door and shook hands with every one as they left.

Lady Astor's opening was an inquiry regarding reporters, and she was assured only one was present, and he got in by accident, anyhow.

After telling of her work for the children Lady Astor told of her aid to her husband when he was an M. P., and of her decision to seek the vacant seat when he went into the Lords.

She said she did not wonder that at first the presence of a woman was distasteful to the 600 other members of the House of Commons, and adding that the presence of a man would be as distasteful to a gathering of 600 women. She said she intended to stand for Parliament as long as the people wanted her.

Lady Astor declined to comment on Maine politics. She said she knew nothing about them, but she did say she understood Maine had a very nice governor.

dyspeptic, according to these experts, spends too much time telling about his sufferings, and about what foods do not agree with him, and as a rule his ideas about certain foods not agreeing with him are purely fanciful. The distress which follows eating them is the result of fear, and leads in time to the patient's proscribing a long list of foods as dangerous to him personally, although others around him are eating them without untoward aftereffects.

Conspicuous examples cited of this wrong mental attitude toward foods are the frequently heard protestations that certain combinations of food, such as milk and fruit, oysters and sweets, crab s and milk, lobsters and ice cream, and the like, are dangerous or positively harmful. Physiologists say there is no evidence whatever that there is anything harmful about eating these foods at the same time.

The thing to do, it seems, is to eat what you like and like what you eat, always bearing in mind that there is such a thing as a balanced diet that is highly desirable. This balanced diet may well include cake and pie, just as it will include an almost infinite variety of other foods.

FIND RATS, TOADS AND 50 KINDS OF POISONS IN BOOTLEG LIQUOR

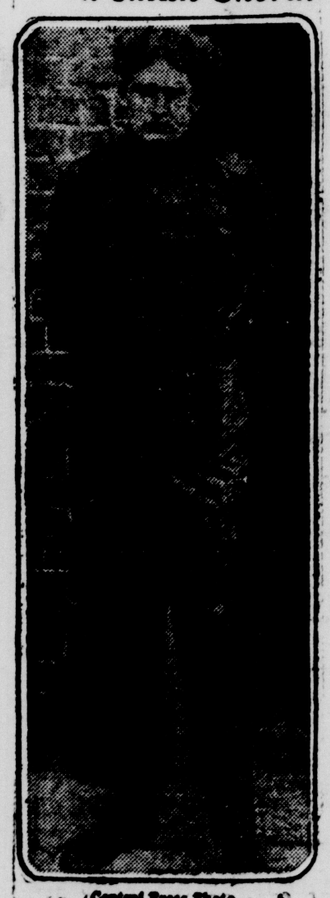

PITTSBURGH — More than 50 varieties of poisons, ranging from wood alcohols to ether, and including arsenic, nitro-benzine and iodine are to be found in bootleg liquor now on the market, according to F. E. Malloy, chief government chemist attached to the Pittsburgh prohibition headquarters.

In addition to the poisons which were more or less invisible to the purchasers, Malloy found rats, mice, lizards, toads and a variegated collection of insects in mash seized by federal agents and brought to him to be analyzed, a report submitted by him to Administrator John D. Pennington shows.

"The greater part of the moonshine produced today is made under unsanitary conditions allowing many poisonous substances to enter the product," Malloy said.

Many medicinal preparations are used by the bootleg fraternity for manufacture of their wares, the report shows. These preparations often contain deadly doses of arsenic, strychnine, tartar emetic, quinine, morphine, cocaine, prussic acid and practically any other poison which may be administered in liquid form.

WESTERN FARMERS URGED TO FIGHT UNTIL LAST PRAIRIE DOG IS DEAD

TOPEKA, KAN.—Millions of prairie dogs are destroying wide acres of pasture land in western Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas and other sections of the southwest. Twenty years ago the farmers and cattle men of western Kansas waged a fairly successful war on this pest. Poisoned oats were poured into the holes they dug and that led down to their homes in the ground. Nothing more was done to exterminate the dogs, and in twenty years they have again become a menace to grazing lands of the southwest.

In these prairie dog "towns" much grass is covered with the soil of their mounds, built up as a sentinel post that the dogs may observe intruders into their territory. Dr. G. E. Johnson, mammalogist of the State Agricultural college, reminds the farmers of Kansas and the southwest that "the grass destroyed or eaten by the prairie dog produces no milk or no beef." It is estimated that 265 prairie dogs use as much grass as one cow.

Thousands of farmers have neglected to follow up the plan of poisoning the prairie dogs, and the colonies or "towns" have increased greatly.

In the new campaign launched against prairie dogs in the southwest, every township trustee and every land owner or tenant are urged to carry on till the last "dog" is killed. Each adult pair of prairie dogs raises a litter of three or four young dogs every year.

FALL STYLES FOR 1926 MORE INTRIGUING FOR SCREEN STARS

HOLLYWOOD, Cal.—Fall styles this year are even more intriguing than last year, according to Aileen Pringle, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer player, who is known as "one of the best dressed women on the screen."

"The fascinating thing about this year's fashions," Miss Pringle explained, "is the fact there's a style for everyone. Designers have been more than kind to every type of woman.

"Length of skirts vary from five inches from the floor to fourteen inches from the floor. The flappers will be delighted with the novelty suits—short jackets and short skirts, made of plaids and brilliant colors.

"The sophisticated type can go in for velvet and soft furs; long skirts and soft, small, crush turbans.

"The demure misses will love the period evening gowns of taffeta and lace. They are very long, with full skirts and tight bodices and large, droopy hats for evening wear."

"BOY FRIEND" AT AMERICAN

An elaborate dream sequence, employing hundreds of people, and comprising one of the most novel scenes ever incorporated in a picture, was photographed by Monta Bell for his production of "The Boy Friend," which comes to the American theatre as a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture today for a three-day engagement. It is the dream of John Harron as Joe Pond, "The boy friend," who, believing that he is disgraced and has lost his girl, has a nightmare in which he sees the faults and virtues of his enemies and friends exaggerated many fold.

The "kick" of the dream, however, is the fact that everyone is charming. Joe has tried to impress upon the small town consciousness the importance of manners and graciousness without appreciable results. In his dream he sees everyone, the traffic cop, garbage man and horse included, wearing dinner clothes, and being "charming."

Marceline Day plays opposite John aHrron in "The Boy Friend," and Ward Crane, Gertrude Astor, Elizabeth Patterson, Maidel Turner, Otto Hoffman, George K. Arthur, Gwen Lee and others are in the cast. Alice D. G. Miller wrote the adaptation from the stage success of last season, "The Book of Charm," by John Alexander Kirkpatrick.

CHIEF FULTZ IS REINSTATED

THREE MEN ARE REFUSED CLEMENCY

Toda

In Spite of Wealth.
Why Women Swim Well.
The Azores Shaken.
Invading England.

By ARTHUR BRISBANE

(The opinions expressed in this column are strictly those of Mr. Brisbane and not necessarily in consonance with the policies of The Review-Tribune.)

Copyright, 1926, by the Star Co.

IT IS announced, in type of suitable size, that Miss Pinchot who played in "The Miracle" is now working on a fruit ranch, under an assumed name. She wishes to make good.

Having parents rich and well-known is a bad thing for children. It makes them concentrate too much on themselves and their own importance. They are so anxious to be something that they often fail to concentrate on doing something, shift from one thing to another and, in the end, do nothing. It is to be hoped that Miss Pinchot, an earnest young woman, will succeed in spite of wealth. Almost anybody can succeed in spite of poverty.

A GREAT French swimmer says women are better swimmers than men because they are more supple. Perhaps they inherit swimming ability from very remote ancestors. Our great-great-grandmothers, of the stone age, probably had to swim away from their husbands often, or from other men that captured them.

IN THE Pacific islands, anything in the shape of a canoe or boat or floating log is put under a most violent religious taboo for women. Foolish females have been persuaded that to touch a boat would be fatal. That idea was invented to keep them from getting away to another island. The conquerors [illegible] China squeezed the women's feet to prevent their running away. Soon Chinese ladies liked it, as a sign of refinement. Turks locked their women in harems, and the women thought they liked that.

GOING to Europe by the southern route, landing in Naples and hurrying on to the good little restaurant, just in front of St. Peter's in Rome, you pass by the Azores. Until lately, looking at the jagged mountain line of the islands thrown up by volcanoes you said to yourself, "Well, at least they have had their volcanoes and their troubles." But you never know when you are through with mother earth. The islands are again shaken by heavy volcanoes, the port is destroyed, cables destroyed.

VIERKOETTER, who swam the British channel, beating all records

Swimming Is Ideal Exercise

Swimming is the most perfect exercise from the standpoint of its health-promoting value.

It stimulates the circulation of the blood, brings practically every large muscle into harmonious play, and develops fine healthy lungs.

If you can not swim you are missing one of the most valuable and enjoyable sports.

Take the first step in learning by sending for the Swimming Booklet the Washington Bureau of this paper has for distribution. It was prepared by the American Red Cross and is authoritative.

Enclose four cents in stamps for return postage and handling.

Arrangements Made for Ohio's First Triple Execution.

APPEAL BY KIN

State Board Members Decline to Recommend Leniency.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 2.—Governor Donahey will not interfere with the execution of the three alleged murderers of James McCumber, 65, of Pomeroy, scheduled for tonight at the state prison here.

James W. Huffman, executive secretary to the governor, today announced receipt of a report from Dan W. Williams and Price Russell, members of the state clemency board, in which they refused to make a recommendation of leniency.

Wife Makes Appeal.

The prisoners condemned to die are: rick, 30, and Richard Rhodes, 29, all John Bryant, 40, colored; John Hedof Pomeroy.

Appeals for clemency for the three men were lodged with Governor Donahey and members of the state board of clemency. The appeals were made by counsel for the prisoners and by Mrs. Hedrick and her 3-year-old son, who urged the governor to liberate their husband and father.

Negro First to Die.

Bryant, colored, will be the first to go to the electric chair, according to Warden P. E. Thomas, who said they would be executed in the order of their serial numbers.

The report of the clemency board read:

"In the absence of favorable word from the trial judge, prosecuting attorney or any members of the petit jury, we see no reason for interference with the orderly process of the court's sentence."

Hedrick was the first arrested after the crime and implicated Bryant and Rhoades. He told the authorities the murder had been committed because McCumber knew too much of Bryant's affairs," and that two white men were to receive $15 for killing McCumber. Bryant and Rhoades were tried and convicted.

Left Turn Blamed For Auto Crash At Street Corner

No one was injured when a Nash car driven by Alex Federhar, local meat dealer, and a Ford touring car, operated by William Ludwig, East End, crashed at the corner of Fifth street and Broadway, about 7:30 o'clock last evening.

Federhar was traveling north on Broadway when Ludwig is alleged to have attempted to make a left turn off Broadway to Fifth street. The front end of the Ludwig machine was badly damaged, but the Federhar car radiator was damaged. The Ford machine was taken in charge by the McElravy wrecker but the Federhar car was driven away under its own power.

Damage to Property and Crops Estimated at 50,000,000 Pesetas, as Result of Torrential Rains.

BARCELONA, Sept. 2.—More than 80 have been killed and 181 injured in storms, floods and torrential rains throughout Spain, according to reports here today.

The damage to property and crops is estimated at 50,000,000 pesetas.

Twenty were killed when a washout near the village of Tortosa caused the smash-up of a passenger train.

The entire village of Santa Aulivio is under water. A carbide factory in the village, when flooded with water, exploded, causing the death of three persons and the injury of 10 others.

Eight persons were killed in Barcelona when two houses collapsed, burying the inmates.

3,000 HOMELESS, HEAVY PROPERTY DAMAGE IN ILLINOIS FLOOD

Galesburg-Peoria District is Hard Hit—Business Houses Suffer, Crops Wiped Out.

GALESBURG, Ill., Sept. 2. — With several thousand persons homeless and property damage estimated at more than $2,500,000, central Illinois began today to repair the damage wrought by a series of the worst torrential storms to sweep this section in years.

Galesburg and Peoria were the hardest hit. In these two cities approximately 3,000 people are homeless. Most of them were cared for last night by relatives and friends. Many others were quartered in public buildings and emergency dormitories.

From six to eight inches of rain fell in the Galesburg-Peoria district in less than six hours. Business houses and homes were flooded. In addition to the damage caused city property, crops over the nearby agricultural sections were practically wiped out.

Senator McKinley's Condition Reported "Unchanged" Today

CHICAGO, Sept. 2.—The condition of United States Senator William B. McKinley was reported "unchanged" early today in a long distance telephone message from the Home Lawn sanitarium at Martinsville, Ind., where he is a patient.

The hospital attendant declared Dr. R. H. Egbert, Senator McKinley's physician, had gone to his home to rest shortly before midnight, stating his patient was "resting well."

Senator McKinley, in poor health for several months, left Washington two weeks ago to undergo treatment at the Martinsville sanitarium. His condition became critical Monday when he was stricken with pulmonary congestion. His physician since has held out little hope for his recovery.

Miss McElravy Wins Senior Life Saving Diploma at Camp

Miss Pauline McElravy, high school graduate and a daughter of Robert McElravy, West Third street, possesses a senior life saving diploma, awarded her at a girls' camp conducted at Milton Island, Canada, this summer. She returned to her home here last evening.

Miss McElravy, who weighs but 87 pounds, rescued a "victim" who tipped the scales at 179 pounds in the life saving test. The camp, which was maintained for about two months, had an enrollment of 100 girls, recruited mainly in and around Cleveland.

Five Seriously Injured in Blast Near Mount Carmel

MOUNT CARMEL, Pa., Sept. 2.—Five men were critically injured and several others slightly injured in a violent explosion at the Reliance shaft of the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company, near here today.

Those critically injured are:
Michael Rice, Mount Carmel.
Steven Homiak, Mount Carmel.

Ambulances were rushed to the scene from here and Shamokin and Shamokin and all the injured were taken to the Shamokin State hospital.

Pressure in West Ninth Street Main Increased by City

Complaint registered by residents of Edgewood and Hazel streets and other sections of Sunnyside, was met yesterday when the pressure in the new West Ninth street water mains was increased.

The West Ninth street line, a six-inch main, was installed several months ago but the pressure was not increased until the regulating valve was moved from the intersection of Dresden avenue and Peake street to a point on West Eighth street near the West End pottery.

About 50 pounds' pressure was added, according to officials of the water works department who expect to complete the installation of the West Eighth street regulating value within the next week.

MAZER DENIES MURDER CHARGE MADE BY WIDOW OF DON MELLETT

FEDERAL ACTION

Stark County Grand Jury May Report Tomorrow.

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 2.—Louis Mazer of Canton, held in jail here on a charge of murder in connection with the slaying of Don R. Mellett, Canton publisher, filed an answer through his attorney in federal court today to the $100,000 damage suit recently brought by Mrs. Florence Mellett, the widow, against Mazer and two others whom she accused of conspiracy to bring about Mellett's death.

Mazer's answer to the suit made a catergorical denial of "every and all statements" in Mrs. Mellett's petition.

Mazer's Answer.

It denied that Mrs. Mellett is "a duly appointed, qualified and acting administratrix" of Mellett's estate; that she is a citizen or resident of Indiana, and that he caused or conspired with the persons named or anyone else to cause or bring about Mellett's death.

The other two named by Mrs. Mellett in her suit were Pat McDermott sought for questioning in connection with the murder, and Ben Rudner.

CANTON, O., Sept. 2.—Completion of the work of the Stark county grand jury investigating the Don R. Mellett murder, was expected to be realized today.

Tomorrow the deliberating body will, if current predictions from official and semi-official sources are true, return first degree murder indictments against three persons.

Arrest is Expected.

Today Peggy Cavanaugh, Cleveland, pretty girl friend of Patrick McDermott, was scheduled to testify concerning an auto ride she has admitted taking to Massillon with "Pat" about 10 days after the murder.

That trip, according to investigators, was made two days before the elusive McDermott was last seen.

From official sources it was learned today that at least one arrest will be made in direct connection with the murder case sometime before the grand jury reports.

No other developments were expected until the jury reports tomorrow or early Saturday.

JURIST SCORES FOGO AS "CZAR" IN MAKING HIS SWEEPING RULING

Judge W. H. Spence, in Common Pleas Court, Lisbon, Restores Deposed Police Department Head to His Position, Together With All That He Has Lost Since March 19.

WELLSVILLE CITY MUST PAY OFFICER $825 FOR PERIOD HE WAS OFF JOB

Court Declares "Evidence Shows That Town is in as Bad Condition as Formerly," and "Mayor Seems to Think He Can Usurp any Position in City Government."

John Fultz, deposed as chief of police of Wellsville on March 19, last, by Mayor W. L. Fogo, was restored to his position in a decision handed down by Judge W. H. Spence in common pleas court at Lisbon at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

The ruling, which contains the clause, "that there be restored to him (Fultz) all that he has lost by his removal," means that the city of Wellsville must pay him $825 salary of which he was deprived during the five months and 15 days he was off duty.

Fultz, it was announced by his attorneys, Ben L. Bennett and F. E. Grosshans, of East Liverpool, and W. A. O'Grady of Wellsville, will report for duty at the Wellsville city hall tomorrow morning.

Attorney S. W. Crawford, who with his partner, Attorney Blaine H. Cochran, of East Liverpool, and Solicitor S. C. Luccock, of Wellsville, represented the city of Wellsville in the court fight, will file a motion for a new trial later in the day. In the event the motion is overruled, it was said the case probably will be carried to the appellate court.

The case was taken to common pleas court by Fultz after the Wellsville civil service commission upheld Mayor Fogo's dismissal of the police chief on 12 charges, ranging from alleged laxity of law enforcement to "receiving and accepting money from known violators of gambling and prohibition laws for police protection."

No Cause for Removal.

Judge Spence's decision, which finds there was no cause for the removal of Fultz, assails Mayor Fogo and declares that "the evidence shows that the town is in as bad condition now as formerly."

"The mayor seems to have assumed control of the police force, while the law makes the safety director the immediate superior officer of the police force," said the court. "The mayor seems to think that the people have elected him czar of Wellsville and that he can usurp any position in the city government and give all orders and directions."

Referring to the charges, Judge Spence said:

"In the complaint filed by the mayor against the chief there are some very serious charges against him of changing records, appropriating city money, and many others, of which there was no evidence at this hearing. If there is no evidence of these charges then this was a base and shameful attack by the mayor upon the chief of police which could only be prompted by malice and hatred."

Fultz and his wife and his attorneys were in the courtroom when the decision, which required 18 minutes to read, was announced. No representative of the prosecution was present.

The city of Wellsville was represented at the civil service hearing by Solicitor L. C. Luccock and Mayor Fogo. In the court fight, Attorneys S. W. Crawford and Blaine H. Cochran of East Liverpool were associated with Luccock.

The members of the Wellsville civil service commission are Dwight McLean, chairman; A. C. Fogo and Harry Hammond. Grattan Dugan is the secretary.

Text of Ruling.

The complete text of the court's ruling follows:

"This matter comes into this court by appeal from the Civil Service Commission of Wellsville, Ohio.

"On the nineteenth day of March, 1926, Wallace L. Fogo, mayor of the city of Wellsville, removed John H. Fultz, then chief of police of the city of Wellsville, and gave twelve reasons for his removal.

"John H. Fultz was appointed chief

Clifford Vaughn Falls 25 Feet From Cable Cart.

Clifford Vaughn, 23, 218 Market street, ground-man for the Ohio Bell Telephone company, had a narrow escape from electrocution at 3:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon when he came in contact with a 2,200 volt line while ringing a telephone cable near the corner of West Ninth and Hubbard streets.

Vaughn was knocked from his cable cart to the ground, a drop of about 25 feet. He alighted on his feet. He is in the City hospital under the care of Dr. W. A. Hobbs.

The youth was seated on the cart midway between two poles when he struck the high tension wire. As he was knocked from his seat he grasped a rope attached to the cable. Samuel Manelovitz, St. Clair avenue fruit dealer, was attracted by the lineman's call for help, but before he could find a ladder, Vaughn's strength was spent and he was forced to release his grasp on the rope.

Manelovitz took Vaughn to the hospital in his truck. An X-ray examination of his injured feet was to be made today.

100 Dangerously Ill From Tainted Food At Illinois Picnic

PEORIA, Ill., Sept. 2.—More than 100 persons are dangerously ill here today of ptomaine poisoning. They were poisoned, physicians believe, by eating tainted food at the annual picnic of the Christian Endeavor Union held here Tuesday. Six of the cases may prove fatal.

Health officers are checking on the source of veal loaf and potato salad served at the picnic.

L. B. MILLER, 51, MAKES SAN FRANCISCO-NEW YORK AUTO TRIP IN 83 HOURS AND 12 MINUTES, LOWERING RECORD BY 3 HOURS AND 8 MINUTES

Louis B. Miller, of San Francisco, set a new transcontinental automobile record when he reached New York in 83 hours and 12 minutes after being officially checked out of San Francisco in his Wills Sainte Claire Six Roadster, he advised East Liverpool friends today. Miller had previously held the record with a mark of 102 hours and 40 minutes made in July, 1925, but lost it last June when Ab Jenkins and Ray Peck drove the route in 86 hours and 20 minutes.

"They've all got something to shoot at now," said Miller, in a letter received by Sheriff George Wright of Lisbon, who piloted the speeder from Minerva, O., to Chester, W. Va., the 39-mile trip being made in 43 minutes. "This new record time is more than 10 hours faster than the fastest trains between New York and San Francisco."

Miller left San Francisco Monday night at 9 o'clock, Pacific time, and was accompanied by J. E. Wieber of Portland, Ore., who acted as a relief driver during the gruelling trip. Neither man slept a wink during the journey, but arrived in excellent physical condition. An examination at Roosevelt hospital, by Dr. H. G. Bullwinkel showed that aside from losing five pounds, Miller, who is 51 years old, was none the worse for his experience.

Total mileage covered was 3,368. The car was the same stock roadster that Miller used on his transcontinental record-breaking flight a year ago, and his record run from San Francisco to Portland, Oregon, last spring. The speedometer registered 23,023 when he pulled out of San Francisco and 26,390 as he crossed the ferry into New York City.

Held Up By Traffic Cop.

"We crossed the Sierra Nevada mountains in six hours and a half," said Miller, "and made Salt Lake City in a little less than a day. As the trip wore along we quit keeping track of miles and began to count by the states. I remember that, with a police escort, we shot through Illinois, a distance of 240 miles at an average speed of 57 miles an hour. Not infrequently we hit 75 and 80 on the good stretches.

"The Illinois cops were good to us, and so were some of the others. New Jersey's state police tried to be, but it was in Newark, almost within sight of New York's skyscrapers, that we came to grief with a traffic officer and lost 45 precious minutes. An escort that was running with us through Jersey became separated in a Newark traffic tangle, with the result that a city policeman nabbed us. Aside from this, we had no unpleasant experiences except that we ran over an embankment in Wyoming when the sun, rising over a hill, suddenly blazed in my eyes and blinded me. Neither of us or the car was injured and we got back on the road with only a few minutes loss."

As the time was officially clocked by the Western Union Telegraph company and verified by H. Bertram Lewis, New York state consul of the Lincoln highway, the record made by Miller and Wieber will stand as official.

Record is Official.

Lincoln highway was the general route followed, via Carson City, Salt Lake City, Cheyenne, Clinton, Ia., Ft. Wayne, Ind., East Liverpool, O., Pittsburg, Pa., Trenton, N. J., and into New York through Newark and across the 42nd street ferry.

"While good automobile building is largely responsible for this triumph of the motor car over the railroad," said Miller, "the advances made in good roads construction should not be forgotten. With exactly the same Wills Sainte Claire Six I used a year ago, I was able to reduce my former record by nearly 20 hours. This was due, in no small degree, to better built roads and better traffic conditions encountered all through the country."

Miller is a short, stocky good-natured person, a staid San Francisco business man who is the head of his own automobile accessory business. Record road driving has been a hobby with him for years. To this hobby he de-

IT IS announced, in type of suitable size, that Miss Pinchot who played in "The Miracle" is now working on a fruit ranch, under an assumed name. She wishes to make good.

Having parents rich and well-known is a bad thing for children. It makes them concentrate too much on themselves and their own importance. They are so anxious to be something that they often fail to concentrate on doing something, shift from one thing to another and, in the end, do nothing. It is to be hoped that Miss Pinchot, an earnest young woman, will succeed in spite of wealth. Almost anybody can succeed in spite of poverty.

A GREAT French swimmer says women are better swimmers than men because they are more supple. Perhaps they inherit swimming ability from very remote ancestors. Our great-great-grandmothers, of the stone age, probably had to swim away from their husbands often, or from other men that captured them.

IN THE Pacific islands, anything in the shape of a canoe or boat or floating log is put under a most violent religious taboo for women. Foolish females have been persuaded that to touch a boat would be fatal. That idea was invented to keep them from getting away to another island. The conquerors of China squeezed the women's feet to prevent their running away. Soon Chinese ladies liked it as a sign of refinement. Turks locked their women in harems, and the women thought they liked that.

GOING to Europe by the southern route, landing in Naples and hurrying on to the good little restaurant, just in front of St. Peter's in Rome, you pass by the Azores. Until lately, looking at the jagged mountain line of the islands thrown up by volcanoes you said to yourself, "Well, at least they have had their volcanoes and their troubles." But you never know when you are through with mother earth. The islands are again shaken by heavy volcanoes, the port is destroyed, cables destroyed.

Swimming Is Ideal Exercise

Swimming is the most perfect exercise from the standpoint of its health-promoting value.

It stimulates the circulation of the blood, brings practically every large muscle into harmonious play, and develops fine healthy lungs.

If you can not swim you are missing one of the most valuable and enjoyable sports.

Take the first step in learning by sending for the Swimming Booklet the Washington Bureau of this paper has for distribution. It was prepared by the American Red Cross and is authoritative.

POMEROY MAN'S SLAYERS WILL PAY PENALTY AT MIDNIGHT

Arrangements Made for Ohio's First Triple Execution.

APPEAL BY KIN

State Board Members Decline to Recommend Leniency.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 2.—Governor Donahey will not interfere with the execution of the three alleged murderers of James McCumber, 65, of Pomeroy, scheduled for tonight at the state prison here.

James W. Huffman, executive secretary to the governor, today announced receipt of a report from Dan W. Williams and Price Russell, members of the state clemency board, in which they refused to make a recommendation of leniency.

Wife Makes Appeal.

The prisoners condemned to die are: rick, 30, and Richard Rhodes, 29, all John Bryant, 40, colored; John Hedof Pomeroy.

Appeals for clemency for the three men were lodged with Governor Donahey and members of the state board of clemency. The appeals were made by counsel for the prisoners and by Mrs. Hedrick and her 3-year-old son, who urged the governor to liberate their husband and father.

Negro First to Die.

Bryant, colored, will be the first to go to the electric chair, according to Warden P. E. Thomas, who said they would be executed in the order of their serial numbers.

The report of the clemency board read:

"In the absence of favorable word from the trial judge, prosecuting attorney or any members of the petit jury, we see no reason for interference with the orderly process of the court's sentence."

Hedrick was the first arrested after the crime and implicated Bryant and Rhoades. He told the authorities the murder had been committed because McCumber knew too much of Bryant's affairs," and that two white men were to receive $15 for killing McCumber. Bryant and Rhoades were tried and convicted.

Left Turn Blamed For Auto Crash At Street Corner

No one was injured when a Nash car driven by Alex Federhar, local meat dealer, and a Ford touring car, operated by William Ludwig, East End, crashed at the corner of Fifth street and Broadway, about 7:30 o'clock last evening.

Federhar was traveling north on Broadway when Ludwig is alleged to have attempted to make a left turn off Broadway to Fifth street. The front end of the Ludwig machine was badly damaged, but the Federhar car radiator was damaged. The Ford machine was taken in charge by the McElravy wrecker but the Federhar car was driven away under its own power.

Damage to Property and Crops Estimated at 50,000,000 Pesetas, as Result of Torrential Rains.

BARCELONA, Sept. 2.—More than 80 have been killed and 181 injured in storms, floods and torrential rains throughout Spain, according to reports here today.

The damage to property and crops is estimated at 50,000,000 pesetas.

Twenty were killed when a washout near the village of Tortosa caused the smash-up of a passenger train.

The entire village of Santa Aulivio is under water. A carbide factory in the village, when flooded with water, exploded, causing the death of three persons and the injury of 10 others.

LINEMAN HIT BY LIVE WIRE

Clifford Vaughn Falls 25 Feet From Cable Cart.

Clifford Vaughn, 23, 218 Market street, ground-man for the Ohio Bell Telephone company, had a narrow escape from electrocution at 3:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon when he came in contact with a 2,200 volt line while ringing a telephone cable near the corner of West Ninth and Hubbard streets.

Vaughn was knocked from his cable cart to the ground, a drop of about 25 feet. He alighted on his feet. He is in the City hospital under the care of Dr. W. A. Hobbs.

The youth was seated on the cart midway between two poles when he struck the high tension wire. As he was knocked from his seat he grasped a rope attached to the cable. Samuel Manelovitz, St. Clair avenue fruit dealer, was attracted by the lineman's call for help, but before he could find a ladder, Vaughn's strength was spent and he was forced to release his grasp on the rope.

Manelovitz took Vaughn to the hospital in his truck. An X-ray examination of his injured feet was to be made today.

100 Dangerously Ill From Tainted Food At Illinois Picnic

PEORIA, Ill., Sept. 2.—More than 100 persons are dangerously ill here today of ptomaine poisoning. They were poisoned, physicians believe, by eating tainted food at the annual picnic of the Christian Endeavor Union held here Tuesday. Six of the cases may prove fatal.

Health officers are checking on the source of veal loaf and potato salad served at the picnic.

L. B. MILLER, 51, MAKES SAN FRANCISCO-NEW YORK AUTO TRIP IN 83 HOURS AND 12 MINUTES, LOWERING RECORD BY 3 HOURS AND 8 MINUTES

Louis B. Miller, of San Francisco, set a new transcontinental automobile record when he reached New York in 83 hours and 12 minutes after being officially checked out of San Francisco in his Wills Sainte Claire Six Roadster, he advised East Liverpool friends today. Miller had previously held the record with a mark of 102 hours and 45 minutes made in July, 1925, but lost it last June when Ab Jenkins and Ray Peck drove the route in 86 hours and 20 minutes.

"They've all got something to shoot at now," said Miller, in a letter received by Sheriff George Wright of Lisbon, who piloted the speeder from Minerva, O., to Chester, W. Va., the 39-mile trip being made in 43 minutes. "This new record time is more than 10 hours faster than the fastest trains between New York and San Francisco."

Miller left San Francisco Monday night at 9 o'clock, Pacific time, and was accompanied by J. E. Wieber of Portland, Ore., who acted as a relief driver during the grueling trip. Neither man slept a wink during the journey, but arrived in excellent physical condition. An examination at Roosevelt hospital, by Dr. H. G. Bullwinkel showed that aside from losing five pounds, Miller, who is 51 years old, was none the worse for his experience.

Total mileage covered was 3,368. The car was the same stock roadster that Miller used on his transcontinental record-breaking flight a year ago, and his record run from San Francisco to Portland, Oregon, last spring. The speedometer registered 23,023 when he pulled out of San Francisco and 26,390 as he crossed the ferry into New York City.

Held Up By Traffic Cop.

"We crossed the Sierra Nevada mountains in six hours and a half," said Miller, "and made Salt Lake City in a little less than a day. As the trip wore along we quit keeping track of miles and began to count by the states. I remember that, with a police escort, we shot through Illinois, a distance of 240 miles at an average speed of 57 miles an hour. Not infrequently we hit 75 and 80 on the good stretches.

"The Illinois cops were good to us, and so were some of the others. New Jersey's state police tried to be, but it was in Newark, almost within sight of New York's skyscrapers, that we came to grief with a traffic officer and lost 45 precious minutes. An escort that was running with us through Jersey became separated in a Newark traffic tangle, with the result that a city policeman nabbed us. Aside from this, we had no unpleasant experiences except that we ran over an embankment in Wyoming when the sun, rising over a hill, suddenly blazed in my eyes and blinded me. Neither of us or the car was injured and we got back on the road with only a few minutes loss."

As the time was officially clocked by the Western Union Telegraph company and verified by H. Bertram Lewis, New York state consul of the Lincoln highway, the record made by Miller and Wieber will stand as official.

Record Is Official.

Lincoln highway was the general route followed, via Carson City, Salt Lake City, Cheyenne, Clinton, Ia., Ft. Wayne, Ind., East Liverpool, O., Pittsburg, Pa., Trenton, N. J., and into New York through Newark and across the 42nd street ferry.

"While good automobile building is largely responsible for this triumph of the motor car over the railroad," said Miller, "the advances made in good roads construction should not be forgotten. With exactly the same Wills Sainte Claire Six I used a year ago, I was able to reduce my former record by nearly 20 hours. This was due, in no small degree, to better built roads and better traffic conditions encountered all through the country."

Miller is a short, stocky good-natured person, a staid San Francisco business man who is the head of his own automobile accessory business. Record road driving has been a hobby with him for years. To this hobby he de-

SCHOOLS HERE OPEN TUESDAY

Between 125 and 150 Freshmen Students Expected.

School machinery is being oiled up for the beginning of the 1926-27 term here, which will open on Tuesday, September 7.

Grade pupils from the public, parochial and township schools will report tomorrow at the high school building between the hours of 8 and 4 to arrange their schedules, with the assistance of Superintendent Daw.

With approximately 50 freshmen students who began the year at last year's mid-semester, as many more coming from Central and others from the parochial and township schools, the first year enrollment here this fall will fall between 125 and 150 students, school officials predict.

Enrollment in practically all of the other school departments is expected to show an increase.

IRONDALE SCHOOL OPENING TUESDAY

The Irondale schools will open Tuesday, September 7 under the supervision of L. X. Johnston, of Canton. There will be a conference of teachers at 8:30 and pupils will assemble for organization and assignment at 10 o'clock. The corps of teachers is as follows:

First grade, Ethel Wood, Thurman, Ohio.

Second grade, Hortense Canup, Alexandria, Ind.

Third grade, Grace Nevil, Greenfield, O.

Mabel Wagner, of Athens, O., will be assistant principal of the high school and teach History and English. She will also have charge of Girls' Physical Education in the high school.

Alfred F. Axe, of Alliance, will be principal of the high school, and teach Science and Mathematics. He will again have charge of Boys' Physical Education in the high school.

Mr. Johnston will teach Latin in the high school.

The other schools of Saline township will also open on Tuesday. Agatha James and George H. Johnston, of Irondale, will teach primary and grammar grades, respectively, at Hammondsville. Miss Marion Hertlein of Sandusky, O., will teach at Tarburner.

Supt. Johnston will be in his office Friday afternoon, Saturday and Monday mornings to confer with pupils or teachers.

CLAY PLANTS MAY TRY TO RESUME

Efforts were being made today to place Toronto sewer pipe plants back into operation.

Both the Forest City and the Great western plants were ready to resume operations, officials announced, if men reported back for work.

A small force reported yesterday afternoon at the Kaul plant, although no work was started. There had been no notice of reopening at the plant posted, except that word had been issued that all men willing to return at the 16 2-3 per cent wage cut would be given jobs.

Entertain At Bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lownds entertained a number of their friends last evening at bridge at their home in Eighth street and Broadway.

HIGH GRIDDERS OPEN TRAINING

25 Lads Drill Under Coach Klinck at Hammondsville.

Twenty-five high school lads, all prospective members of the Wellsville school football squad for the 1926 campaign, are encamped at the Kiwanis summer outing grounds near Hammondsville on Yellow Creek for a week of intensive gridiron drill under the direction of Coach Earl Klinck.

The squad left for camp early yesterday morning and will remain until Labor day.

The outfit includes practically all of the veterans of last year, with the exception of several who graduated last spring, and, in addition, a likely lot of new material.

Coach Klinck will be in charge of the camp during the training period, assisted by Faculty Manager R. C. Trumbull. The latter has been touring the west during the summer, and is expected to report here today or tomorrow. Trumbull has the 1926 football schedule lined up with possibly one or two open dates.

Coach Klinck will put the candidates to work chiefly at exercises and drills to limber them up and toughen them up for the more exacting duties which they will face later on.

Included in the training squad are Hepp, Klavaughn, Calhoun, Provost, Iddings, Brannan, Eschbacher, Keay, Magill, Fogo, Foley, Bebout, Wilson, D'Anito, Thorn, Glenn, Duvall, Dickey and others.

The camp period was made possible through the generosity of local business men and boosters who are financing the boys' stay at Hammondsville.

Why We Become Weak, Tired and Run-Down If Glands Fail

THOUSANDS drag through life always tired and worn-out, suffering with loss of energy and vitality, and fail to recognize the cause of their trouble as "asthenia," and claim it is caused by an unbalanced glandular system or weakened glands.

Gland secretions are called hormones—mysterious messengers which science has discovered exert a remarkable influence on health, strength and vitality. When the glands function normally they supply these vitalizing hormones (or secretions) which are essential to physical well-being. And when the glands fail to function, health fails.

Now glandular treatment, which is endorsed by eminent scientists and physicians of this country and Europe, is being used by thousands of men and women to help overcome a weakened, worn-out, run-down, exhausted condition, and to regain the strength, vigor and vitality that are the natural benefits resulting from a normal glandular system.

Glandogen, the new scientific gland tonic, provides a simple method of taking glandular treatment. Glandogen is prepared in convenient tablet form, for both men and women. Accept no substitutes. Insist on genuine Glandogen, the original gland tonic.

WOMAN SEEKING STATE JOB WEDS; ELECTION BOARD IN QUANDARY

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn.—Miss Winifred McDermott is the Democratic candidate for clerk of the state supreme court of Minneapolis. Today she is no longer Miss McDermott. She has married Roy Henry Perrigo since filing for office.

Now Mrs. Perrigo's status as a candidate for office is under debate. The question raised by her marriage is brand new, as far as is known here. Can votes for Winifred McDermott be counted for Mrs. Perrigo? If not, how can her name be changed on the ballot? These questions will be the subject of a conference between the attorney general and his assistants in the next few days.

When a woman who is a registered voter marries, she is required to register all over again. It is impossible for Mrs. Perrigo to register over again, however, as the time for filing for a party office, expired last May. She has not followed the Lucy Stone League plan of retaining her maiden name.

It is possible that the situation will be cleared by an affidavit stating that Mrs. Roy Henry Perrigo is identical with the former Miss Winifred McDermott. The question, however, is a new one and a puzzler, according to the attorney general.

332ND TROOPS PLAN REUNION

Company L. Boys Will Go to Columbus on Saturday.

Several former members of the 332nd Infantry from East Liverpool will attend the fifth annual regimental reunion which will be held at the Neil House, Columbus, on Saturday and Sunday.

The initial meeting will take place at 4 p. m. Saturday. On Saturday night there will be an entertainment, followed by other gatherings on Sunday morning and afternoon.

Company L of this regiment was made up entirely of Columbiana county youths, who were among the first contingent of draftees sent to the Camp Sherman training camp in the fall and winter of 1917-18. The regiment went overseas in the spring of 1918 and saw eight months' services on the Austro-Italian front in Italy. This was the only American fighting unit which saw services in this sector during the war.

For the convenience of men from Eastern Ohio, who plan to attend the reunion, busses will be operated from Steubenville to Columbus, leaving the Jefferson county seat town early Saturday morning. Among those from East Liverpool, who will attend the reunion are Robert Guyton, Arch Rodell and Ray Bloor.

"The Big Parade" Marked New Era In Motion Pictures

In every walk of life and all art there are certain definite markers which can be pointed out as indicating a drastic change for the better in that field of endeavor. And so it is with "The Big Parade," which marked the beginning of a new era in motion pictures. This Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production, made under the direction of King Vidor, with John Gilbert as star and Renee Adoree the charming heorine, marked a point in the art of picture entertainment which classes it as an event of importance. But the making of this mark was first discovered by the patrons who viewed "The Big Parade. The picture arrived in New York with no fanfare of prediction but a week after it had been presented it was known from one end of the country to the other as a remarkable production. "The Big Parade," with an orchestra of twenty to interpret its lovely score; with all the same detail and effects which are used at the Astor theatre in New York, will be on view at the Ceramic theatre for three days starting Thursday, Sept. 23.

EAST LIVERPOOL—AMERICA'S POTTERY CENTER

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 1926.

City Schools Open Tuesday

More than 5,000 children, scores of them entering class rooms for the first time, will answer public and parochial school gongs in East Liverpool next Tuesday, thus marking the opening of the halls of learning for the fall semester of the 1926-27 term.

Of this number, at least 300 of the 356 who graduated from the eighth grade in June, are expected to become members of the freshman class of the high school, establishing a record enrollment. More than 400 others will enroll in the sophomore, junior and senior classes.

Everything is in readiness for the resumption of work on the part of the board of education and faculty. School buildings have been given thorough cleanings, repairs have been made, text books purchased and calls issued for teachers' meetings. Freshmen will meet in the high school auditorium at 10 o'clock Friday morning to permit Miss Florence Updegraff, high school principal, to organize classes for the start-off Tuesday morning. Class schedules will be announced and teachers' assignments made Saturday.

Are pupils and their parents prepared? They should be, but past experience proves that many children, because of belated vacation trips, delay in purchasing school clothes, etc., fail to enroll on opening day or during the first week. And the result is that they not only handicap themselves, but are obstacles to the progress of classmates.

Two more business days remain before school opening. If Johnny or Mary is not prepared for school today, parents should get busy. Let's start the fall term with a 100 per cent enrollment. It is for the best interests of the schools.

Business Flows Right On

This time of year is ordinarily a time of business uncertainty. Nobody knows how business is going to "break." Business men are therefore usually inclined around this time to suspend judgment, awaiting further light.

After the autumn equinox—which may or may not have anything to do with the matter—they can tell better. When the crops are in and general activity is resumed with the cooler weather, and people begin looking ahead to the winter season, then it is possible to get "a line on business."

But this is an exceptional year. The usual summer slump has not occurred. Hence there is little or none of the usual hesitant readjustment. There isn't much indication that things need readjusting. Business already is moving at a healthful autumn pace, and bids fair to keep it up right along.

"The main grounds for prediction of continuing prosperity in trade and industry," remarks the New York Times, "are the remarkably sustained production and consumption of all staple products in the season when inactive trade is usually expected, a movement of goods on the transportation lines in volume unprecedented for the season, absence of purely speculative business, as shown by actual decrease in stocks of unsold merchandise, abundant harvests, and a money market whiich has been unruffled by the very considerable expansion of credit since the middle of the year."

Seldom has this country entered upon so promising a season.

Why Ignore Lightning?

Another American arsenal was blown up by lightning the latter part of August—the army's Pig Island arsenal at Norfolk, Va. It was not so bad as the catastrophe at the naval arsenal in New Jersey, but bad enough. The damage was said to be a mere trifle of $500,000 or so, with no lives lost. Which was plain luck.

Yet why, in an age of science, should there be so strong a factor of luck in such matters? Why should arsenals and petroleum tanks be set on fire so often by lightning, when there are simple and well known means of protection?

Experiments made at Pittsfield, Mass., by the General Electric company, have shown that it is possible to protect oil tanks from lightning by means of grounded wires and lightning rods over and around them, even when there is gas escaping from the oil. The same method could be used, engineers say, to protect ammunition depots. Why can't the army, the navy and the petroleum industry do what intelligent farmers do?

The Plane Parachute

Parachutes for ballonists are an old story. Parachutes for airplane passengers have been used with much success, to save lives when planes go wrong. But parachutes for the planes themselves are a novelty.

The idea was tested the other day in Los Angeles. A former naval pilot went aloft with a fifty-foot parachute folded on top of his plane, shut off his engine at a height of half a mile, loosened the "chute" and trusted in Providence. The airplane, with the pilot sitting calmly in his seat, floated gently three miles and alighted on a sloping hillside, with merely a broken propeller blade and a little damage to the running gear. Even that would not have happened, apparently, on level ground.

Such a safety device as this, if further tests confirm its reliability, should have a powerful influence in popularizing the airplane. So far, too much is left to engine and pilot. Air safety must become as nearly as possible automatic.

NEW YORK DAYBYDAY
By O. O. McINTYRE

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—There has sprung up a type of kale and farewell Lorelei of Broadway known as "boat trippers" who have discovered they can cruise the Atlantic as easy as Broadway's turbulent currents and salvage a fair livelihood.

It is said one crossed ten times this summer without a penny expenditure and in addition acquired a generous wardrobe of Paris gowns, some bracelets and such. Their assets are fairish beauty, a provacative smile and perhaps a slight lisp.

They depend on chance acquaintance on deck or other ship quarters to develop into the sort of romance that will take a sudden and coldly commercial turn. And some lonely male passenger finds he must pay rather heavily for holding hands and gazing at the moon.

A velvety sky, studded with stars, has proven a better setting for romantic golddigging than the White Way's flash of lights. Several liaisons that threatened to crash the first pages were hushed only with heavy payments.

It is said an unscrupulous lawyer in Paris has trained some of the 'boat trippers" how to jockey their victims into dangerous cul de sacs from which they can be extricated only by signing on the dotted line—the lawyer getting his percentage.

So widespread has this danger grown that one liner has posted in its cabins this printed warning near the admonition to beware of professional gamblers: "It is suggested that male passengers think twice before writing notes or letters of any kind to strange women aboard ship."

Most of the "boat trippers" travel in pairs, thereby aiding one another as witnesses in case of need. And in some instances the pickings are so good they can employ a sleekly suave male confederate who spots out likely come-ons and arranges introductions.

An extremely rich New Yorker was invited to the opening of a magnificent new hotel near the metropolis. He was the especial guest of the proprietor. The hotel had been hurriedly rushed to completion. The guest after a round of golf stepped under a shower in his bath room and turned the faucet marked "Cold." There was a mistake in installing the faucets and he was drenched in scalding water. In attempting to step away he fell and was further seriously burned. He had several skin grafting operations. But is still in a serious condition. And obviously as a good sportsman has no redress.

There is a famous ocean liner skipper who has cruised the seven seas for years. He is paid in German marks and at the exchange rate in New York a handful wouldn't buy a pint of table water in a night club. So—my friend Jimmy Lane, dean of the ship news men tells me—he spends his off hours here in the Aquarium watching the fish.

Jimmy also showed me something at Pier 57 that seems worth chronicling. A canal barge was anchored inside the slip. Atop was the radio home for the bargeman's family. There was a little grass plot, wet wash flapping on a line, and on the outer edge was a towheaded youngster gliding perilously about on a pushmobile.

Night club crooks who found they could hide behind a delicately shirred shirt, white carnation and platinum thread across the weskit have been chilled by the fate of the Whittemore gang. They have been making themselves inconspicuous of late. In addition, it is whispered, a special squad of expert criminal hunters are looking over the night haunts daily.

HASKIN'S LETTER
By FREDERIC J. HASKIN

Exalting Cake and Pie.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 2.—After a great many years of being misunderstood, the famous French queen who advised her subjects to eat cake when they complained that they had no bread seems to be coming into her own. Data compiled and published by the United States Government indicate that the queen was not one of the earliest and most conspicuous examples of the beautiful but dumb of her sex, and that in fact she gave the French people sound dietary advice. She might even have suggested that her subjects eat pie, notably apple pie, and still have been ridiculeproof.

Miss Emma A. Winslow, an expert dietitian for the Government, has prepared a bulletin, illustrated with charts that show graphically what a pound of each food studied will supply in the way of food requirements for the human body, whether energy, proteins, or body building material, calcium or lime for bones and teeth, phosphorous for body regulating, or iron for the blod. These graphs show that both butter cake and apple pie rank ahead of white bread in several respects.

One pound of the cake cited, which is made from a recipe calling for butter, sugar, milk, eggs, and flour, will supply about 1,750 calories of energy, 29 grams of protein, .2 gram of calcium, .3 gram of phosphorus, and 3 milligrams of iron. It would furnish, therefore, 50 per cent of the energy a man needs daily, 29 per cent of the protein, 31 per cent of the calcium, 23 per cent of the phosphorus, and 21 per cent of the iron.

One pound of apple pie, similarly analyzed, will supply, it is found, 35 per cent of the energy a man needs daily, 14 per cent of the protein, 3 per cent of the calcium, 4 per cent of the phosphorus, and 6 per cent of the iron.

The bread chart shows that one pound of the so-called staff of life will furnish 34 per cent of a man's daily energy requirement, 42 per cent of the protein he needs, 18 per cent of the calcium, 32 per cent of the phosphorus, and 27 per cent of the iron.

Another Pie Booster.

Another governmental pie booster is Secretary of Labor James J. Davis, although he does not do it officially. In his autobiography, "The Iron Puddler," he exalts pie as distinctively an American institution and tell of a boarding house where he once lived that was known as the "Pie Boarding House."

"The pioneer wives of America learned to make a pie out of every fruit that grows, including lemons," says Secretary Davis, "and from many vegetables, including squash and sweet potatoes, as well as from vinegar and milk and eggs and flour. Fed on these good pies, the pioneers—is there any significance in the first syllable of the word?—hewed down the woods and laid the continent under the plow. We workers fed on proper pie, and we soon changed this wooden land into a land of iron. Now the pie is passing out and we are feeding on French pastry, is our downfall at hand?

"Life in the Pie Boarding House was a never-ending delight. You never knew when you sat down at the table what kind of pie would be dealt you. Some of the fellows had been there half a year and swore they had seen fifty-seven varieties and were expecting new ones at any meal. The crowd here was a selected crowd. It was made up of the pie connoisseurs of mill-town."

Later, to another of these boarding houses, there came one of those individuals who are always seeking to take the joy out of life—a reformer who told the men their food was too fatty and that they consumed far too much pie.

"The burning of oil in the engine gives the power," says Mr. Davis. "The burning of the fats in the muscles gives the laborer his power. Sugar and starches are the next best things to fat, and that's why we could eat the thick slabs of sweet pie. We relished it well and had burned it all up in our labor in the mills. We came out with that healthy sparkle that dyspeptics never know."

Physicians who specialize in dietary problems will probably take issue with the Secretary of Labor as to the beneficient effects of a pie diet. They will contend that Mr. Davis and his fellow workers in the iron mills were unusually healthy and vigorous, not because they ate pie and lots of it, but because they ate such a variety of other foods that the amount of pie consumed had little or no effect upon them save to gratify their appetite for sweets. This last is not unimportant, for it meant that the men were satisfied wih their food and generally in a cheerful frame of mind, and that goes a long way as an aid to digestion and preventative of dyspepsia.

Fear And Worry Harmful.

These authorities wil say that irrespective of the food value of pie, no one should eat it who entertains any doubts as to its effect upon him. Fear and worry of that kind are quite as harmfupl as an injudicious diet, and doctors have discovered that almost invariably the person who complains of a pain in his tummy after a meal and ascribes it to the pie he has just eaten is one who had practically made up his mind in advance that he would have a pain if he ate pie, or a particular kind of pie. Such persons develop the habit of fearing the consequences of eating certain foods, or of over-eating, and then keep their attention concentrated upon how the alimentary tract is disposing of the food that has just been put into it. They are anticipating trouble, and usually they get it. Of course the baneful effects of the wrong mental attitude toward eating is not limited to pie as an article of diet. An individual can make almost any food or combinations of food bad for himself.

Drs. McCollum and Simmonds, of Johns Hopkins, in their treatise on Food, Nutrition, and Health, say that one of the serious problems of the physician who treats a patient with digestive disturbances is to divert the patient's attention from himself. The

A colored person of a formidable aspect was arraigned in a South Carolina court of justice on a charge of mayhem. As Exhibit A, for the case of the prosecution, the mutilated victim of his wrath was presented before the jurors' sympathetic eyes. The face of the victim was but little more than a recent site—a place where a face had been, but was no longer.

When the jury very promptly and very properly had returned a verdict of guilty, His Honor, the presiding judge pointing to the chief complaining witness and addressing the defendant, said:

"This is the most lamentable example of brutality I have ever seen in a long experience on the criminal bench. Surely no human being, unless he were inspired by infernal influenges and hellborn suggestions, could deliberately work such wreckage as you have worked upon the countenance of a defenseless and helpless fellow creature. Demons from below surely must have prompted you in what you did. It must have been the devil himself who urged you on and on and on."

"Well, Jedge," said the prisoner, "come to think it over, I ain't shore but what you're right. EAST LIVERPOOL—AMERICA'S POTTERY CENTER

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 1926.

City Schools Open Tuesday

More than 5,000 children, scores of them entering class rooms for the first time, will answer public and parochial school gongs in East Liverpool next Tuesday, thus marking the opening of the halls of learning for the fall semester of the 1926-27 term.

Of this number, at least 300 of the 356 who graduated from the eighth grade in June, are expected to become members of the freshman class of the high school, establishing a record enrollment. More than 400 others will enroll in the sophomore, junior and senior classes.

Everything is in readiness for the resumption of work on the part of the board of education and faculty. School buildings have been given thorough cleanings, repairs have been made, text books purchased and calls issued for teachers' meetings. Freshmen will meet in the high school auditorium at 10 o'clock Friday morning to permit Miss Florence Updegraff, high school principal, to organize classes for the start-off Tuesday morning. Class schedules will be announced and teachers' assignments made Saturday.

Are pupils and their parents prepared? They should be, but past experience proves that many children, because of belated vacation trips, delay in purchasing school clothes, etc., fail to enroll on opening day or during the first week. And the result is that they not only handicap themselves, but are obstacles to the progress of classmates.

Two more business days remain before school opening. If Johnny or Mary is not prepared for school today, parents should get busy. Let's start the fall term with a 100 per cent enrollment. It is for the best interests of the schools.

Business Flows Right On

This time of year is ordinarily a time of business uncertainty. Nobody knows how business is going to "break." Business men are therefore usually inclined around this time to suspend judgment, awaiting further light.

After the autumn equinox—which may or may not have anything to do with the matter—they can tell better. When the crops are in and general activity is resumed with the cooler weather, and people begin looking ahead to the winter season, then it is possible to get "a line on business."

But this is an exceptional year. The usual summer slump has not occurred. Hence there is little or none of the usual hesitant readjustment. There isn't much indication that things need readjusting. Business already is moving at a healthful autumn pace, and bids fair to keep it up right along.

"The main grounds for prediction of continuing prosperity in trade and industry," remarks the New York Times, "are the remarkably sustained production and consumption of all staple products in the season when inactive trade is usually expected, a movement of goods on the transportation lines in volume unprecedented for the season, absence of purely speculative business, as shown by actual decrease in stocks of unsold merchandise, abundant harvests, and a money market whiich has been unruffled by the very considerable expansion of credit since the middle of the year."

Seldom has this country entered upon so promising a season.

Why Ignore Lightning?

Another American arsenal was blown up by lightning the latter part of August—the army's Pig Island arsenal at Norfolk, Va. It was not so bad as the catastrophe at the naval arsenal in New Jersey, but bad enough. The damage was said to be a mere trifle of $500,000 or so, with no lives lost. Which was plain luck.

Yet why, in an age of science, should there be so strong a factor of luck in such matters? Why should arsenals and petroleum tanks be set on fire so often by lightning, when there are simple and well known means of protection?

Experiments made at Pittsfield, Mass., by the General Electric company, have shown that it is possible to protect oil tanks from lightning by means of grounded wires and lightning rods over and around them, even when there is gas escaping from the oil. The same method could be used, engineers say, to protect ammunition depots. Why can't the army, the navy and the petroleum industry do what intelligent farmers do?

The Plane Parachute

Parachutes for ballonists are an old story. Parachutes for airplane passengers have been used with much success, to save lives when planes go wrong. But parachutes for the planes themselves are a novelty.

The idea was tested the other day in Los Angeles. A former naval pilot went aloft with a fifty-foot parachute folded on top of his plane, shut off his engine at a height of half a mile, loosened the "chute" and trusted in Providence. The airplane, with the pilot sitting calmly in his seat, floated gently three miles and alighted on a sloping hillside, with merely a broken propeller blade and a little damage to the running gear. Even that would not have happened, apparently, on level ground.

Such a safety device as this, if further tests confirm its reliability, should have a powerful influence in popularizing the airplane. So far, too much is left to engine and pilot. Air safety must become as nearly as possible automatic.

NEW YORK DAYBYDAY

By O. O. McINTYRE

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—There has sprung up a type of kale and farewell Lorelei of Broadway known as "boat trippers" who have discovered they can cruise the Atlantic as easy as Broadway's turbulent currents and salvage a fair livelihood.

It is said one crossed ten times this summer without a penny expenditure and in addition acquired a generous wardrobe of Paris gowns, some bracelets and such. Their assets are fairish beauty, a provacative smile and perhaps a slight lisp.

They depend on chance acquaintance on deck or other ship quarters to develop into the sort of romance that will take a sudden and coldly commercial turn. And some lonely male passenger finds he must pay rather heavily for holding hands and gazing at the moon.

A velvety sky, studded with stars, has proven a better setting for romantic golddigging than the White Way's flash of lights. Several liaisons that threatened to crash the first pages were hushed only with heavy payments.

It is said an unscrupulous lawyer in Paris has trained some of the 'boat trippers" how to jockey their victims into dangerous cul de sacs from which they can be extricated only by signing on the dotted line—the lawyer getting his percentage.

So widespread has this danger grown that one liner has posted in its cabins this printed warning near the admonition to beware of professional gamblers: "It is suggested that male passengers think twice before writing notes or letters of any kind to strange women aboard ship."

Most of the "boat trippers" travel in pairs, thereby aiding one another as witnesses in case of need. And in some instances the pickings are so good they can employ a sleekly suave male confederate who spots out likely come-ons and arranges introductions.

An extremely rich New Yorker was invited to the opening of a magnificent new hotel near the metropolis. He was the especial guest of the proprietor. The hotel had been hurriedly rushed to completion. The guest after a round of golf stepped under a shower in his bath room and turned the faucet marked "Cold." There was a mistake in installing the faucets and he was drenched in scalding water. In attempting to step away he fell and was further seriously burned. He had several skin grafting operations. But is still in a serious condition. And obviously as a good sportsman has no redress.

There is a famous ocean liner skipper who has cruised the seven seas for years. He is paid in German marks and at the exchange rate in New York a handful wouldn't buy a pint of table water in a night club. So—my friend Jimmy Lane, dean of the ship news men tells me—he spends his off hours here in the Aquarium watching the fish.

Jimmy also showed me something at Pier 57 that seems worth chronicling. A canal barge was anchored inside the slip. Atop was the radio home for the bargeman's family. There was a little grass plot, wet wash flapping on a line, and on the outer edge was a towheaded youngster gliding perilously about on a pushmobile.

Night club crooks who found they could hide behind a delicately shirred shirt, white carnation and platinum thread across the weskit have been chilled by the fate of the Whittemore gang. They have been making themselves inconspicuous of late. In addition, it is whispered, a special squad of expert criminal hunters are looking over the night haunts daily.

HASKIN'S LETTER

By FREDERIC J. HASKIN

Exalting Cake and Pie.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 2.—After a great many years of being misunderstood, the famous French queen who advised her subjects to eat cake when they complained that they had no bread seems to be coming into her own. Data compiled and published by the United States Government indicate that the queen was not one of the earliest and most conspicuous examples of the beautiful but dumb of her sex, and that in fact she gave the French people sound dietary advice. She might even have suggested that her subjects eat pie, notably apple pie, and still have been ridiculeproof.

Miss Emma A. Winslow, an expert dietitian for the Government, has prepared a bulletin, illustrated with charts that show graphically what a pound of each food studied will supply in the way of food requirements for the human body, whether energy, proteins, or body building material, calcium or lime for bones and teeth, phosphorous for body regulating, or iron for the blod. These graphs show that both butter cake and apple pie rank ahead of white bread in several respects.

One pound of the cake cited, which is made from a recipe calling for butter, sugar, milk, eggs, and flour, will supply about 1,750 calories of energy, 29 grams of protein, .2 gram of calcium, .3 gram of phosphorus, and 3 milligrams of iron. It would furnish, therefore, 50 per cent of the energy a man needs daily, 29 per cent of the protein, 31 per cent of the calcium, 23 per cent of the phosphorus, and 21 per cent of the iron.

One pound of apple pie, similarly analyzed, will supply, it is found, 35 per cent of the energy a man needs daily, 14 per cent of the protein, 3 per cent of the calcium, 4 per cent of the phosphorus, and 6 per cent of the iron.

The bread chart shows that one pound of the so-called staff of life will furnish 34 per cent of a man's daily energy requirement, 42 per cent of the protein he needs, 18 per cent of the calcium, 32 per cent of the phosphorus, and 27 per cent of the iron.

Another Pie Booster.

Another governmental pie booster is Secretary of Labor James J. Davis, although he does not do it officially. In his autobiography, "The Iron Puddler," he exalts pie as distinctively an American institution and tell of a boarding house where he once lived that was known as the "Pie Boarding House."

"The pioneer wives of America learned to make a pie out of every fruit that grows, including lemons," says Secretary Davis, "and from many vegetables, including squash and sweet potatoes, as well as from vinegar and milk and eggs and flour. Fed on these good pies, the pioneers—is there any significance in the first syllable of the word?—hewed down the woods and laid the continent under the plow. We workers fed on proper pie, and we soon changed this wooden land into a land of iron. Now the pie is passing out and we are feeding on French pastry, is our downfall at hand?

"Life in the Pie Boarding House was a never-ending delight. You never knew when you sat down at the table what kind of pie would be dealt you. Some of the fellows had been there half a year and swore they had seen fifty-seven varieties and were expecting new ones at any meal. The crowd here was a selected crowd. It was made up of the pie connoisseurs of mill-town."

Later, to another of these boarding houses, there came one of those individuals who are always seeking to take the joy out of life—a reformer who told the men their food was too fatty and that they consumed far too much pie.

"The burning of oil in the engine gives the power," says Mr. Davis. "The burning of the fats in the muscles gives the laborer his power. Sugar and starches are the next best things to fat, and that's why we could eat the thick slabs of sweet pie. We relished it well and had burned it all up in our labor in the mills. We came out with that healthy sparkle that dyspeptics never know."

Physicians who specialize in dietary problems will probably take issue with the Secretary of Labor as to the beneficient effects of a pie diet. They will contend that Mr. Davis and his fellow workers in the iron mills were unusually healthy and vigorous, not because they ate pie and lots of it, but because they ate such a variety of other foods that the amount of pie consumed had little or no effect upon them save to gratify their appetite for sweets. This last is not unimportant, for it meant that the men were satisfied wih their food and generally in a cheerful frame of mind, and that goes a long way as an aid to digestion and preventative of dyspepsia.

Fear And Worry Harmful.

These authorities wil say that irrespective of the food value of pie, no one should eat it who entertains any doubts as to its effect upon him. Fear and worry of that kind are quite as harmfupl as an injudicious diet, and doctors have discovered that almost invariably the person who complains of a pain in his tummy after a meal and ascribes it to the pie he has just eaten is one who had practically made up his mind in advance that he would have a pain if he ate pie, or a particular kind of pie. GLITTER

By Katharine Brush

BOOK ONE—IX.

Jock had believed these six divisions sufficiently comprehensixe to include all the girls in the world—until he met Yvonne. She gloriously defied any classification whatever.

He wrote her on Monday, reminding her of the game. Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday passed with no word from her, and he took to haunting the University postal station like a restless wraith.

Friday noon, on his way there, he encountered Bradley Hathaway.

"Where you bound, Jock?"

"Post office, where you?"

"Home to lunch," Brad said, "but I'll go along with you first. I've hardly clapped eyes on you since the night you blew in. Where've you been keeping yourself?"

"I've been pretty busy," Brad," Jock equivocated. (How tell a man you haven't gone to see him because you cannot bear his wife?)

"I suppose so, but you might find a minute to run over now and then. We're always glad to have you, you know."

"Yes, I know, Brad. I will."

They sauntered along, talking football. Brad was dubious as to the outcome of the morrow's game "'Fraid it's going to be bad news This other team's too good to take on so early in the season"

Jock found two letters in his mailbox One was from Molly The other he knew at a glance must be Yvonne's—a huge gray envelope addressed in swooping script, most individual.

"Just a minute till I look this over," he remarked to Brad as they emerged onto the street again.

The letter had no salutation and no signature. It simply began and ended.

"I said I believed no one had any right to tell me what I could and could not do. But people do tell me, just the same, and I am occasionally weak enough to submit to them."

"Which is by way of announcing that I cannot come this time, Jock Hamill."

Jock tucked the gray envelope thoughtfully into his pocket, where it lay close to the unopened lavender one that was Molly's. "I am," he said. "My girl can't come to the game."

"That's too bad."

"Right. I'm sorry as hell."

He made these replies mechanically. His thoughts were absorbed not so much with the fact that Yvonne wasn't coming as with the words in which she had couched her refusal. "People do tell me, and I am occasionally weak enough to submit to them"—now what did that mean? Who could tell Yvonne what to do? Who had the right to dictate to her? A parent? Somehow Jock knew it was not a parent. A husband, then? He became possessed of a dismaying notion that Yvonne might be married.

Brad was speaking. "What did you say?" Jock asked absently.

"I said, you'd better take Eunice to the game, then," Brad repeated.

"Sure, glad to," said Jock. (But if so, wouldn't Yvonne have told him?)

"I can't take her myself, of course, and she hates to go alone. And I thought since you have two tickets and no girl—"

"Sure, Brad." (No, not necessarily; she hadn't told him anything about her life. There was that man with whom she had talked so long in the restaurant—could it be that he—oh, but no! A thousand no's! And yet—)

Once alone in his room at the fraternity house Jock read and reread Yvonn'e message a score of times. It left him more bewildered than ever. He could neither imagine her married nor subject to parental discipline. Yet who but a parent or a husband could say "You cannot go," and be obeyed? Perhaps a lover? Thought unthinkable! Jock devised within his mind a hundred reasons why it was not a lover, each one of them emanating from his heart-felt desire to believe that it was not. . . . Eventually he hit upon a solution that pleased him; perhaps she did some work of some sort, and her employer had forbidden her departure. Perhaps she was on the stage (those theatrical photographs on her walls) and could not miss the Saturday performances. The more he mulled this over the most plausible he made it seem, and it relieved him. Anything that dispelled the fear that she might be married or—or anything, would have relieved him. Mingled with his relief came the belated realization that he wasn't going to see her this week-end after all, smiting him like a pain. He had not known quite how much it meant to him. And hard on the heels of this, the memory of Brad's suggestion that he take Eunice to the game and his own unthinkable agreement. . . He spent the rest of the day in a state of deep depression

X.

"You'ah terribly deah to do this, Jock. I know you don't really want to at all."

"Of course I want to!" Jock lied gallantly. "What could be sweeter than escorting the prettiest girl in town to a football game?"

There was almost a licking of the lips about the way in which Eunice received compliments, a hint of insatiable greed. She would laugh, but it was poor pretense. She laughed now. "Jock, you musn't spoof an old married lady."

They were standing in the hallway of the Hathaway's bungalow. Jock with a light topcoat flung over his arm and his hat in his hand, Eunice so close to him that he could catch the fragrance of her black bobbed hair. She patted the topcoat. "Where's yoah raccoon?" she asked.

"Oh!" wailed Eunice. "And I've got a new one—Brad just bought it for me—and I wanted to weah it so badly! Is it really much too wahm out today? Would I die, do you reckon? Wait, I want to show it to you."

She sped away, and returned after a moment bearing a long garment of mink. Jock held it while she slipped into it, giving him meanwhile that arch backward glance such women always give under such circumstances. She held the coat tight around her as a blanket is held 'round a baby and walked to a little distance, where she stood revolving and posturing, model-fashion. "Do you like it?" she asked.

"It's beautiful," said Jock soberly. It was beautiful; he was no connoisseur of furs, but he knew enough about them to know that. It must have cost—well, a good half of Brad's year's salary. "How under the sun—

Eunice was stroking the coat rapturiously, sliding her hands under the lapels, crossing them at her throat, rubbing her face against their softness. "I don't know what's got into Brad all of a sudden," she said. "He's loosenin' up and shellin' out in a most surprisin' mannah. Which only proves what I've always claimed—that he could have bought me things if he'd wanted to. Why, I've begged him and begged him for a mink coat for three whole yeahs, and he always said he couldn't affo'd it. And now look! He's probably had the money all the time but just didn't want to spen—"

"Don't be silly, Eunice!" Jock interrupted with some heat. "Of course Brad would have bought you the coat the first time you asked him if he'd had the money. He hasn't a selfish bone in his body, and you know it as well as I do."

Eunice's eyes opened very wide, like a hurt child's. "Well, if he didn't have the money then, how come he has it now?" she defended herself. "He hasn't had a raise or anythin'. No rich uncle died and left him a legacy. And he's nevah saved a cent since we've been married—"

NEW YORK'S $200,000,000 WILL BE STORED IN MAMMOTH VAULT

ALBANY, N. Y.—One of the largest and most modern vaults in New York state will be constructed under the proposed new state office building, Sullivan W. Jones, of Yonkers, state architect, has announced.

The vault will be used to store the state's $200,000,000 in cash and securities.

A complete system of alarms and a squad of guards are to constitute the state's fire line of defense for its new treasury.

The state architect's department now are working out the plans for the vault. Its exact location under the office building is being kept a secret as are the intimate details of construction.

The inside dimensions of the vault will be 50 by 50 feet. The walls, floors and roof are to be of flint concrete, 48 inches thick, reinforced by an armor mat of high grade cold drawn steel fabric.

The huge door will be of circular type, two feet thick, of drill proof steel, equipped with a time lock and opened and shut by a concealed electric engine.

There will be one carefully guarded entrance to the vault and only credited representatives of the various state departments will have access. To make sure, there will be a triple check on identities by means of photographs, signatures and finger prints.

Automatic Train Stop Device Installed by Pennsylvania Road

PITTSBURGH. — Installation of automatic train stop devices is under way on several important branches of the Pennsylvania railroad, it was announced today by G. M. Sixsmith, superintendent of the passenger transportation department.

Sixsmith said that when the present program is completed, 1,150 engines and 1,550 miles of track will be equipped with these devices.

The extension under way covers the lines from Camden, N. J., to Atlantic City; Pittsburgh to Newark, Ohio, and Columbus, O., to Indianapolis.

Monarch Butterflies Complete Pilgrimage To Stinson Beach

SAN FRANCISCO. — Bored with their home in the Sierra mountains, thousands of brown monarch butterflies have completed their annual pilgrimage to the sea shore. Every year the horde of butterflies go to Stinson beach, north of here, to spend the winter and enjoy the mild climate, only to die in the spring.

The trek of the butterflies is unending, however. Next year a new flight will complete the same tragic cycle.

Leave it to Mother what's Best

"WHEN I received a sample bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin I gave it to my two-months-old baby without hesitation, as I had often heard of it as the very best medicine for children. It stopped crying right away, began sleeping good and growing fast. For myself it has been the very best stomach and laxative medicine and I can't praise it too much."
(Name and address will be furnished upon request.)

Children Thrive as They Grow

GLITTER

By Katharine Brush

BOOK ONE—IX.

Jock had believed these six divisions sufficiently comprehensixe to include all the girls in the world—until he met Yvonne. She gloriously defied any classification whatever.

He wrote her on Monday, reminding her of the game. Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday passed with no word from her, and he took to haunting the University postal station like a restless wraith.

Friday noon, on his way there, he encountered Bradley Hathaway.

"Where you bound, Jock?"

"Post office, where you?"

"Home to lunch," Brad said, "but I'll go along with you first. I've hardly clapped eyes on you since the night you blew in. Where've you been keeping yourself?"

"I've been pretty busy," Brad," Jock equivocated. (How tell a man you haven't gone to see him because you cannot bear his wife?)

"I suppose so, but you might find a minute to run over now and then. We're always glad to have you, you know."

"Yes, I know, Brad. I will."

They sauntered along, talking football. Brad was dubious as to the outcome of the morrow's game "'Fraid it's going to be bad news This other team's too good to take on so early in the season"

Jock found two letters in his mailbox One was from Molly The other he knew at a glance must be Yvonne's—a huge gray envelope addressed in swooping script, most individual.

"Just a minute till I look this over," he remarked to Brad as they emerged onto the street again.

The letter had no salutation and no signature. It simply began and ended.

"I said I believed no one had any right to tell me what I could and could not do. But people do tell me, just the same, and I am occasionally weak enough to submit to them."

"Which is by way of announcing that I cannot come this time, Jock Hamill."

Jock tucked the gray envelope thoughtfully into his pocket, where it lay close to the unopened lavender one that was Molly's. "I am," he said. "My girl can't come to the game."

"That's too bad."

"Right. I'm sorry as hell."

He made these replies mechanically. His thoughts were absorbed not so much with the fact that Yvonne wasn't coming as with the words in which she had couched her refusal. "People do tell me, and I am occasionally weak enough to submit to them"—now what did that mean? Who could tell Yvonne what to do? Who had the right to dictate to her? A parent? Somehow Jock knew it was not a parent. A husband, then? He became possessed of a dismaying notion that Yvonne might be married.

Brad was speaking. "What did you say?" Jock asked absently.

"I said, you'd better take Eunice to the game, then," Brad repeated.

"Sure, glad to," said Jock. (But if so, wouldn't Yvonne have told him?)

"I can't take her myself, of course, and she hates to go alone. And I thought since you have two tickets and no girl—"

"Sure, Brad." (No, not necessarily; she hadn't told him anything about her life. There was that man with whom she had talked so long in the restaurant—could it be that he—oh, but no! A thousand no's! And yet—)

Once alone in his room at the fraternity house Jock read and reread Yvonn'e message a score of times. It left him more bewildered than ever. He could neither imagine her married nor subject to parental discipline. Yet who but a parent or a husband could say "You cannot go," and be obeyed? Perhaps a lover? Thought unthinkable! Jock devised within his mind a hundred reasons why it was not a lover, each one of them emanating from his heart-felt desire to believe that it was not. . . . Eventually he hit upon a solution that pleased him; perhaps she did some work of some sort, and her employer had forbidden her departure. Perhaps she was on the stage (those theatrical photographs on her walls) and could not miss the Saturday performances. The more he mulled this over the most plausible he made it seem, and it relieved him. Anything that dispelled the fear that she might be married or—or anything, would have relieved him. Mingled with his relief came the belated realization that he wasn't going to see her this week-end after all, smiting him like a pain. He had not known quite how much it meant to him. And hard on the heels of this, the memory of Brad's suggestion that he take Eunice to the game and his own unthinkable agreement. . . He spent the rest of the day in a state of deep depression

X.

"You'ah terribly deah to do this, Jock. I know you don't really want to at all."

"Of course I want to!" Jock lied gallantly. "What could be sweeter than escorting the prettiest girl in town to a football game?"

There was almost a licking of the lips about the way in which Eunice received compliments, a hint of insatiable greed. She would laugh, but it was poor pretense. She laughed now. "Jock, you musn't spoof an old married lady."

They were standing in the hallway of the Hathaway's bungalow. Jock with a light topcoat flung over his arm and his hat in his hand, Eunice so close to him that he could catch the fragrance of her black bobbed hair. She patted the topcoat. "Where's yoah raccoon?" she asked.

"Oh!" wailed Eunice. "And I've got a new one—Brad just bought it for me—and I wanted to weah it so badly! Is it really much too wahm out today? Would I die, do you reckon? Wait, I want to show it to you."

She sped away, and returned after a moment bearing a long garment of mink. Jock held it while she slipped into it, giving him meanwhile that arch backward glance such women always give under such circumstances. She held the coat tight around her as a blanket is held 'round a baby and walked to a little distance, where she stood revolving and posturing, model-fashion. "Do you like it?" she asked.

"It's beautiful," said Jock soberly. It was beautiful; he was no connoisseur of furs, but he knew enough about them to know that. It must have cost—well, a good half of Brad's year's salary. How under the sun—

Eunice was stroking the coat rapturiously, sliding her hands under the lapels, crossing them at her throat, rubbing her face against their softness. "I don't know what's got into Brad all of a sudden," she said. "He's loosenin' up and shellin' out in a most surprisin' mannah. Which only proves what I've always claimed—that he could have bought me things if he'd wanted to. Why, I've begged him and begged him for a mink coat for three whole yeahs, and he always said he couldn't affo'd it. And now look! He's probably had the money all the time but just didn't want to spen—"

"Don't be silly, Eunice!" Jock interrupted with some heat. "Of course Brad would have bought you the coat the first time you asked him if he'd had the money. He hasn't a selfish bone in his body, and you know it as well as I do."

Eunice's eyes opened very wide, like a hurt child's. "Well, if he didn't have the money then, how come he has it now?" she defended herself. "He hasn't had a raise or anythin'. No rich uncle died and left him a legacy. And he's nevah saved a cent since we've been married—"

NEW YORK'S $200,000,000 WILL BE STORED IN MAMMOTH VAULT

ALBANY, N. Y.—One of the largest and most modern vaults in New York state will be constructed under the proposed new state office building, Sullivan W. Jones, of Yonkers, state architect, has announced.

The vault will be used to store the state's $200,000,000 in cash and securities.

A complete system of alarms and a squad of guards are to constitute the state's fire line of defense for its new treasury.

The state architect's department now are working out the plans for the vault. Its exact location under the office building is being kept a secret as are the intimate details of construction.

The inside dimensions of the vault will be 50 by 50 feet. The walls, floors and roof are to be of flint concrete, 48 inches thick, reinforced by an armor mat of high grade cold drawn steel fabric.

The huge door will be of circular type, two feet thick, of drill proof steel, equipped with a time lock and opened and shut by a concealed electric engine.

There will be one carefully guarded entrance to the vault and only credited representatives of the various state departments will have access. To make sure, there will be a triple check on identities by means of photographs, signatures and finger prints.

Hours of Comfort in the Restful
Cantilever Shoe

Crowded shops, bustling shoppers, busy feet, hours of standing and walking. No wonder thousands of women come home at night tired and listless —glad to get their shoes off.

Rigid shoes that take the spring out of your step, unnaturally shaped shoes that pinch and chafe, and high heels that tilt the body out of balance cause you to ache all over and wonder why you get so tired.

Is it worth while, when there are trim, good looking shoes that will help you to ward off this feeling of drooping weariness? Just make the Cantilever Shoe the first item on your shopping list. You can wear them right out of the store. No need to break them in, for

The Cantilever is made with consideration for every natural requirement of the foot. The arch is flexible, not rigid, as in most shoes. You will enjoy the foot freedom of toe-to-heel flexibility and your feet will build up springy muscular strength through exercise. Curve for curve, the graceful, natural lines of the Cantilever fit the foot. There is room in the toe, and snugness at the arch and heel.

The arch of the shoe fits up snugly to the exact undercurve of the foot. This gives you restful, helpful support, yet it does not restrict foot action. You will find this feature makes the Cantilever a restful shoe for standing or walking.

Fine workmanship and high grade materials make the Cantilever wear well.

Bendheim's
East Sixth Street.

Smoky City Seeks Waterway From Ohio to Erie.

$750,000,000 JOB

Need Further Outlet for Steel and Coal Products.

PITTSBURGH. — Pittsburgh, heart of the nation's greatest steel and coal industries, seeks a waterway to the Great Lakes.

A concentrated movement today was being formulated to build a $750,000,000 canal from the headwater of the Ohio River to Lake Erie.

Mindful that two great natural waterways, the Monongahela and Allegheny Rivers, flowing into a third, the Ohio, have brought to Pittsburgh the great bulk of Western Pennsylvania's raw products of iron and coal, to be blasted into steel products which have made the city the Workshop of the World, Pittsburgh capitalists are taking steps to exploit a fourth waterway which would make the city a virtual Lake port.

See Busy Canal.

Visionaries picture the canal lined with mills and blast furnaces, as are the Monongahela and Allegheny today —vast roaring furnaces which line the river banks for miles on both sides, and out of which pour steel products to be shipped to the far corners of the world.

The movement will be formally introduced at a hearing before the United States Army Board of Engineers in Washington, late in September.

Originally the outgrowth of a five-year fight by the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce and allied interests against what was termed discriminatory freight rates on Lake cargo coal, the movement has since presented itself as a new field of exploitation much much as the harnessing of the Monongahela and Allegheny Rivers brought the State's natural resources into Pittsburgh to build the nucleous of such great fortunes as those of Carnegie and the Mellon interests.

"The enterprise is no longer an alternative to freight rates relief," a spokesman for the plan pointed out.

Coal operators here realize that coal freight rates, at best, are subject to conditions in other parts of the country. The opposition to changes in Pittsburgh district freight rates voiced by midwestern and southern interests, was doubtless born of economic necessity in those places.

To Open New Fields.

"The canal idea is not merely to escape a temporary condition in the coal industry, but to open up new fields of enterprise for Pittsburgh capital.

"A waterway such as the Lake Erie and Ohio River canal would provide an assured means of transportation now and in the future, removed from regulation by the Interstate Commerce Commission and would save the coal industry alone in a few years the cost of building teh canal.

"This is without considering the great value to Pittsburgh and the coal, iron and oil fields it represents, of a Great Lakes outlet for its products."

The canal, as planned, would be 166 miles long.

The approaches to the city, long considered an impregnable natural fort in the early history of the country, are lined with solid walls of rock. Through hills of this description engineers would have to blast a deep cut to bring the head of the canal to the headwaters of the Ohio, where it meets the Allegheny and Monongahela at the lower end of Pittsburgh's business district.

How I Dress My Hair

By Edna Wallace Hopper

The thousands who see me daily on the stage wonder at my beautiful hair. It is wavy, glossy and abundant. Nearly everyone thinks that some wonderful hair dresser gives it daily care.

Not so—I'm too busy for that. I never go to a hair dresser, have never had a Marcel wave. I simply apply twice weekly a hair dress which great experts made for me. It is not sticky, not greasy. Before they made it I never dreamed a liquid could do so much. Now all toilet counters supply it as Edna Wallace Hopper's Wave and Sheen. The price is 75c.

Nothing else I know gives a girl or woman so much added loveliness at once. No one can resist it when she knows. My guarantee is enclosed with every bottle, so it costs you nothing if it doesn't please. Go try it at my expense.

Mrs. J. D. Thompson Gives Luncheon in Honor of Guest

Mrs. J. Donald Thompson of Park boulevard entertained a group of friends yesterday afternoon at Wickliffe Manor, Youngstown, with a 1 o'clock luncheon, honoring her house guest, Miss Elizabeth Hawkins of Plattsburg, N. Y. The luncheon tables were decorated with summer flowers, dainty place cards and miniature nut baskets. Covers were arranged for 20 persons.

Five tables of bridge were in play during the afternoon, at the close of which trophies were awarded Mesdames F. B. Lawrence, J. C. Thompson and Robert T. Hall, and a guest gift was given Miss Hawkins.

Weiner Sizzle Held.

Tuesday evening at Lincoln Gardens, Mr. and Mrs. John Gillis were host and hostess to a group of 50 friends at a weiner sizzle and marshmallow toast. The evening was spent in games and dancing at the Garden pavilion with novelty dance numbers being featured by Bob Laughlin. Paul Orr and John Joyce gave piano and banjo numbers respectively.

Among the guests was Mrs. Will Gillis, who will leave shortly for Pittsfield, Mass.

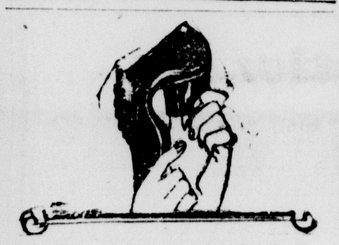

Ross Store Employes' Outing.

Employes of the Ross store will hold an outing at Rock Springs park today. Dinner will be served at 6:30 o'clock by the social committee, which includes Mr. Sweet, Mrs. Charles Hohman, Misses Meigh and Scott. A weiner sizzle and marshmallow toast will follow bathing and boat races.

Hours of Comfort in the Restful

Cantilever Shoe

Crowded shops, bustling shoppers, busy feet, hours of standing and walking. No wonder thousands of women come home at night tired and listless—glad to get their shoes off.

Rigid shoes that take the spring out of your step, unnaturally shaped shoes that pinch and chafe, and high heels that tilt the body out of balance cause you to ache all over and wonder why you get so tired.

Is it worth while, when there are trim, good looking shoes that will help you to ward off this feeling of drooping weariness? Just make the Cantilever Shoe the first item on your shopping list. You can wear them right out of the store. No need to break them in, for

The Cantilever is made with consideration for every natural requirement of the foot. The arch is flexible, not rigid, as in most shoes. You will enjoy the foot freedom of toe-to-heel flexibility and your feet will build up springy muscular strength through exercise. Curve for curve, the graceful, natural lines of the Cantilever fit the foot. There is room in the toe, and snugness at the arch and heel.

The arch of the shoe fits up snugly to the exact undercurve of the foot. This gives you restful, helpful support, yet it does not restrict foot action. You will find this feature makes the Cantilever a restful shoe for standing or walking.

Fine workmanship and high grade materials make the Cantilever wear well.

Bendheim's
East Sixth Street.

Daniel Woods' Family Reunion.

The fourth annual reunion of the Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Woods family was held in the John Saling grove near Gavers, Sunday. An athletic program and bathing were features.

RIVER-TO-LAKE CANAL BOOSTED BY PITTSBURGH

Smoky City Seeks Waterway From Ohio to Erie.

$750,000,000 JOB

Need Further Outlet for Steel and Coal Products.

PITTSBURGH. — Pittsburgh, heart of the nation's greatest steel and coal industries, seeks a waterway to the Great Lakes.

A concentrated movement today was being formulated to build a $750,000,000 canal from the headwater of the Ohio River to Lake Erie.

Mindful that two great natural waterways, the Monongahela and Allegheny Rivers, flowing into a third, the Ohio, have brought to Pittsburgh the great bulk of Western Pennsylvania's raw products of iron and coal, to be blasted into steel products which have made the city the Workshop of the World, Pittsburgh capitalists are taking steps to exploit a fourth waterway which would make the city a virtual Lake port.

See Busy Canal.

Visionaries picture the canal lined with mills and blast furnaces, as are the Monongahela and Allegheny today—vast roaring furnaces which line the river banks for miles on both sides, and out of which pour steel products to be shipped to the far corners of the world.

The movement will be formally introduced at a hearing before the United States Army Board of Engineers in Washington, late in September.

Originally the outgrowth of a five-year fight by the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce and allied interests against what was termed discriminatory freight rates on Lake cargo coal, the movement has since presented itself as a new field of exploitation much much as the harnessing of the Monongahela and Allegheny Rivers brought the State's natural resources into Pittsburgh to build the nucleous of such great fortunes as those of Carnegie and the Mellon interests.

"The enterprise is no longer an alternative to freight rates relief," a spokesman for the plan pointed out.

Coal operators here realize that coal freight rates, at best, are subject to conditions in other parts of the country. The opposition to changes in Pittsburgh district freight rates voiced by midwestern and southern interests, was doubtless born of economic necessity in those places.

To Open New Fields.

"The canal idea is not merely to escape a temporary condition in the coal industry, but to open up new fields of enterprise for Pittsburgh capital.

"A waterway such as the Lake Erie and Ohio River canal would provide an assured means of transportation now and in the future, removed from regulation by the Interstate Commerce Commission and would save the coal industry alone in a few years the cost of building teh canal.

"This is without considering the great value to Pittsburgh and the coal, iron and oil fields it represents, of a Great Lakes outlet for its products."

The canal, as planned, would be 166 miles long.

The approaches to the city, long considered an impregnable natural fort in the early history of the country, are lined with solid walls of rock. Through hills of this description engineers would have to blast a deep cut to bring the head of the canal to the headwaters of the Ohio, where it meets the Allegheny and Monongahela at the lower end of Pittsburgh's business district.

Golf putters, the handles of which carry pencil and score card, have appeared.

SUPREME COURT HEARS TAX SUIT

Injunction Being Sought by Hope Natural Gas Company.

Argument of the injunction case brought by the Hope Natural Gas company against enforcement of the so-called "gross sales tax" is scheduled today before the supreme court of appeals sitting at Charleston. Each side was allotted one hour more than the usual time for such hearings.

The case comes before the supreme court as an appeal of Grant P. Hall, state tax commissioner, and Howard B. Lee, attorney general, from an injunction restraining them from proceeding to enforce provisions of the business-professional tax against the Hope company. The injunction was granted by Judge Morgan Owen in common pleas court in Kanawha county, and affirmed by the circuit court of this county, from which the appeal was taken.

Several cases were submitted to the court today on briefs, among them being the petition of the Bluefield Telephone company for suspension of a public service commission order that refused it an increase in local exchange rates. Among cases argued before being submitted were those of the Bluefield National Bank to recover funds from the receiver of the Day and Night Bank, a Williamson institution, in preference to other creditors.

Child-birth

THOUSANDS of mothers for over three generations have praised Mother's Friend for relieving them of unnecessary pains during expectancy.

"Everyone was surprised how well I got along," writes Mrs. Alfred E. Ammon, Muncie, Ind. "My pains disappeared after using Mother's Friend and I was sick only an hour and a half at baby's birth."

Mother's Friend is the formula of an eminent physician. It is made from a combination of highly refined oils and other wonderful ingredients and is for outward application. Mother's Friend aids the skin and muscles to expand more easily during the constant readjustment of expectancy, month after month, right up to childbirth.

Mother! Insist on Mother's Friend—the same as used by our mothers and grandmothers—don't wait—start using tonight—and meanwhile write Bradfield Regulator Co., Dept. 33, Atlanta, Ga., for free valuable booklet "Motherhood and the Coming Baby" (sent in plain envelope). It tells how Mother's Friend can help you during expectancy and at childbirth. This booklet also tells you many other things you want to know. "Mother's Friend" is sold by all druggists—everywhere.

BULB QUARANTINE NOW EFFECTIVE

The domestic Narcissus bulb quarantine proposed to prevent the spread of bulb flies and eelworm pests was signed July 3 by Secretary of Agriculture Jardine to become effective July 15, 1926. The tentative regulation submitted June 15 to all interested parties for comment was received with general approval, no criticisms or changes being suggested.

The quarantine applies only to the American-grown bulb crop, but involves commercial growers, shippers, and handlers of domestic narcissus bulbs in every state and district of the United States. It provides for the movement of the bulbs only after inspection and certification. Bulbs found free of infestation will be certified for interstate movement.

Bulbs found to be infested will not be allowed in interstate movement until disinfected or treated under the direction and to the satisfaction of an inspector. Persons intending to move harvested bulbs interstate should make application for inspection to the plant quarantine inspector of the state concerned as far as possible in advance of the probable date of shipment.

GYPSY WIFE SELLS SHEIK HUBBY; HE REFUSES TO LEAVE HOME

DES MOINES, Iowa—T. J. Hubbard, inspector of police here, when called upon to determine the rightful wife of a gypsy sheik, rose to Solomon-like heights and rendered a decision.

"You are a nuisance around here," the inspector observed to the gypsy camp in general. "It would be best to move on."

The camp moved, and the question was settled, at least as far as Hubbard was concerned.

SUPREME COURT HEARS TAX SUIT

Injunction Being Sought by Hope Natural Gas Company.

Argument of the injunction case brought by the Hope Natural Gas company against enforcement of the so-called "gross sales tax" is scheduled today before the supreme court of appeals sitting at Charleston. Each side was allotted one hour more than the usual time for such hearings.

The case comes before the supreme court as an appeal of Grant P. Hall, state tax commissioner, and Howard B. Lee, attorney general, from an injunction restraining them from proceeding to enforce provisions of the business-professional tax against the Hope company. The injunction was granted by Judge Morgan Owen in common pleas court in Kanawha county, and affirmed by the circuit court of this county, from which the appeal was taken.

Several cases were submitted to the court today on briefs, among them being the petition of the Bluefield Telephone company for suspension of a public service commission order that refused it an increase in local exchange rates. Among cases argued before being submitted were those of the Bluefield National Bank to recover funds from the receiver of the Day and Night Bank, a Williamson institution, in preference to other creditors.

Child-birth

THOUSANDS of mothers for over three generations have praised Mother's Friend for relieving them of unnecessary pains during expectancy.

"Everyone was surprised how well I got along," writes Mrs. Alfred E. Ammon, Muncie, Ind. "My pains disappeared after using Mother's Friend and I was sick only an hour and a half at baby's birth."

Mother's Friend is the formula of an eminent physician. It is made from a combination of highly refined oils and other wonderful ingredients and is for outward application. Mother's Friend aids the skin and muscles to expand more easily during the constant readjustment of expectancy, month after month, right up to childbirth.

Mother! Insist on Mother's Friend—the same as used by our mothers and grandmothers—don't wait—start using tonight—and meanwhile write Bradfield Regulator Co., Dept. 88, Atlanta, Ga., for free valuable booklet "Motherhood and the Coming Baby" (sent in plain envelope). It tells how Mother's Friend can help you during expectancy and at childbirth. This booklet also tells you many other things you want to know. "Mother's Friend" is sold by all druggists—everywhere.

BULB QUARANTINE NOW EFFECTIVE

The domestic Narcissus bulb quarantine proposed to prevent the spread of bulb flies and eelworm pests was signed July 3 by Secretary of Agriculture Jardine to become effective July 15, 1926. The tentative regulation submitted June 15 to all interested parties for comment was received with general approval, no criticisms or changes being suggested.

The quarantine applies only to the American-grown bulb crop, but involves commercial growers, shippers, and handlers of domestic narcissus bulbs in every state and district of the United States. It provides for the movement of the bulbs only after inspection and certification. Bulbs found free of infestation will be certified for interstate movement.

Bulbs found to be infested will not be allowed in interstate movement until disinfected or treated under the direction and to the satisfaction of an inspector. Persons intending to move harvested bulbs interstate should make application for inspection to the plant quarantine inspector of the state concerned as far as possible in advance of the probable date of shipment.

GYPSY WIFE SELLS SHEIK HUBBY; HE REFUSES TO LEAVE HOME

DES MOINES, Iowa—T. J. Hubbard, inspector of police here, when called upon to determine the rightful wife of a gypsy sheik, rose to Solomon-like heights and rendered a decision.

"You are a nuisance around here," the inspector observed to the gypsy camp in general. "It would be best to move on."

The camp moved, and the question was settled, at least as far as Hubbard was concerned.

Holiday Postoffice Hours.

Holiday hours will be observed at the Chester postoffice Monday, Labor day. There will be no city or rural deliveries during the day.

Diamond Series Arranged.

Series of baseball games has been arranged by the married and single men of the Sunday school classes of the First Christian church. The first game will be played next week on Smith field.

The complainant stated she had paid the camp sheik's wife $750 for the husband. It was all right with the wife, she said, but the sheik was too well satisfied with living conditions as they were to leave home.

BEN WELCH, 50, COMEDIAN FOR 25 YEARS, DIES

Famous Actor Loses Five-month Fight for Health.

BLIND SIX YEARS

He is Survived by Widow and Daughter, Justine.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—Ben Welch, the famous comedian, died today at the King's Park sanitarium, King's Park, Long Island. He had been in ill health for five months.

Welch had been on the stage for nearly a quarter of a century. Six years ago he became blind but refused to give up his work until recently, when his health began to fail.

He is survived by his widow and a daughter.

Welch was 50 years old. He was one of the leading Yiddish dialect comedians in burlesque and vaudeville. He appeared in the Columbia and Mutual circuits for years. It is said he frequently made as much as $50,000 a year. He also played in the Keith vaudeville circuit.

His wife, Jeanette, was at the bedside when the end came. His daughter, Justine, is 17 years old.

News of his death was a shock to his many friends on Broadway. He had a personality that endeared him to his countless friends here and all over the country.

HOME LOOTED, TWO MEN HELD

Police Seek Third Suspect in East End Job.

Orville McDole, 21, and Raymond Garrett, 15, are in the city jail while police are attempting to locate a third suspect in the looting of the James Martin home, East End, last Saturday night.

They were arrested upon charges of larceny preferred in municipal court yesterday by Martin. McDole was picked up last night by Patrolman Chester Smith, while Captain Conley arrested Garrett.

The loot included three automobile tires, a sweater, slicker, suit of clothes and a watch, the total value of which was estimated at more than $200, all the property of Robert Martin, a son of the complainant. Everything except the watch was located by Captain Conley and Desk Sergeant Toland last night.

The case against Garrett who is a minor has been referred to Probation Officer John McShane.

TRY TO START AUTO, JAILED

Two Men are Given 60-day Sentences by Court.

Harvey Westfall, 19, Charleston, W. Va., and Tim Kearns, 25, were sentenced to serve 60 days in the county jail at Lisbon by Municipal Judge Hanley today after they pleaded guilty to charges of starting an engine in a motor vehicle without the owner's consent.

They were arrested by Captain of Police Conley at the corner of Fifth street and Broadway at 11 o'clock yesterday morning after they are alleged to have attempted to steal a Nash sedan parked on Fourth street near the Y. M. C. A.

Westfall admitted having started the motor in the car, intending to drive to Pittsburgh. Kearns said he was with him. They changed their plans, however, when they found the transmission in the machine locked.

Police received a tip concerning the pair, and Captain Conley located them as they were preparing to board an eastbound interurban car.

Westfall came to East Liverpool about three weeks ago from Darlington, Pa., where he had been working in a brick plant. Police say he confessed to having broken into the restaurant at the No. 4 plant of the Homer Laughlin China company at Newell one night last week, securing $1.90 in cash and a quantity of cigarettes. He named a confederate in the robbery. He also admitted, police claim, that he forced an entrance into the pottery restaurant again last Monday night, stealing cigarettes. He said that Kearns accompanied him on the second robbery, but this the latter denied. Westfall also admitted the theft of a tire from a Newell garage a few nights ago.

Kearns claims to have returned to East Liverpool last Sunday, after having been traveling with a carnival company all summer.

Fifth U. S. Reservation To World Court Attacked

France, Belgium and Italy Score Proposal, Charging America Seeks Privileged Position.

GENEVA, Sept. 2.—The fifth reservation, proposed by the United States as a condition of its entry to the world court today proved a difficult pill to swallow for the representatives of 37 powers, signatory to the world court, in conference here to pass upon the American reservations.

Representatives of France, Belgium and Italy all attacked this reservation, declaring that the United States is seeking a special and privileged position.

"Does America want all of the privileges of a member of the council of the league without having any of the burdens of a member?" queried Sir Cecil Hurst, British delegate.

The Belgian delegation suggested that the world court be asked to decide whether unanimity or a majority is required to accept the United States reservations.

Sir Cecil Hurst suggested that it would be better not to ask the court for an opinion on this matter now, but to let the question remain obscure for the time being, at the same time giving the United States assurances that it would have all the privileges before the world court that would be given to a member of the league council, no more and no less.

"Then we can see what the United States really wants," said Sir Cecil. "The fifth reservation is the most difficult of many very serious difficulties, but why not let the United States come in on a basis of equality and leave the details to the future?"

Chief Fultz Reinstated

of police by Mayor G. D. Ingram, on April 15, 1921, and served as such officer until his removal by Mayor Fogo.

"John H. Fultz held said position under the civil service law, which provides: General Code Section 486-17a:

"The tenure of every officer, employee or subordinate in the classified service of the state, the counties, cities and city school district thereof, holding a position under the provisions of this act, shall be during good behavior and efficient service.'

"Then it provides the grounds upon which he may be removed.

"Then the section provides:

"'In all cases of removal the appointing authority shall furnish such employee or subordinate with a copy of the order of removal and his reasons for the same."

Law is Cited.

"Then the law provides that such order with the explanation, shall be filed with the civil service commission, and provides for a hearing before the commission; that the commission shall hear "or appoint a trial board to hear such appeal."

"The law further provides:

"'That in the case of the removal of a chief of police or chief of the fire department of a municipality an appeal may be had from the decision of the municipal commission to the court of common pleas of the county in which such municipality is situated to determine the sufficiency of the cause of removal.'

"The only question before this court is "to determine the sufficiency of the cause of removal."

"The matter was tried before the civil service commission of Wellsville, and is now appealed to this court to determine the sufficiency of the cause of removal.

"The complainant, Wallace L. Fogo, called a number of witnesses to show sufficiency of the cause of such removal.

Testimony of Prosecution.

"He called first a number of witnesses, who testified that they were bootleggers and gamblers in Wellsville; that a number of them had conducted gambling places. Most of them testified that their places had been raided by Chief Fultz, and that they had been arrested by him a number of times, and some of them testified that they had a system of signals by which they could warn the players of the approach of an officer. Some of them testified that they had sold liquor and been arrested by Chief Fultz a number of times. Two or three of them testified that they had paid Chief Fultz money for protection from arrest, and one witness, Ike Freeman, testified that Chief Fultz had paid him money on election day to pay some persons for coming to the polls to vote.

"There was some evidence that the bootleggers were disreputable persons and unworthy of belief, and half a dozen or more witness testified that Ike Freeman was unworthy of belief.

"The complainant called witnesses to show that Mrs. Fultz, a reputable woman, had a drunken revel in her home. And he attempted to offer some palliation for his bootleggers and gamblers by calling a preacher to testify that the city had been better under his administration than under Mayor Barnes' administration, but the preacher testified that he did not know anything about the gambling places or the bootleggers that are now running or doing business in the town.

The Defense.

"Chief Fultz called as witnesses, I believe five former mayors of Wellsville under whom Fultz had served as chief of police, and they all testified that he was a capable, courteous and efficient oficer, and always ready and willing to do whatever he was directed to do.

Chief Fultz called as witnesses probably all of the former directors of public safety of Wellsville, who were the immediate superior officers of Chief Fultz, who all testified that he was a capable and efficient officer and always ready to obey any direction or order.

He called as a witness Hugh McDermott, who has been for many years at the head of the police department of East Liverpool(and there is, perhaps, no man better qualified to tell the worth of a good and efficient police officer), who testified that in all his dealings with him he had found him to be a capable, courteous and efficient chief of police; that he was always ready to respond to any request.

He also called Captain Mason Conley, who has for a long time been connected with the police department of East Liverpool, and he testified that in all his dealing with him that he had found him always ready and willing to do whatever was requested of him, and that he considered him a good officer.

Reviews Evidence.

"He also called Sheriff George Wright, who has had four years' experience as deputy sheriff of this country and nearly two years as sheriff, who has had frequent business dealings with Chief Fultz, especially in criminal matters, that he always found him ready to assist, whenever he was called on, and that he considered him a capable and efficient officer.

"They called a number of witnesses who had occasion to call upon the chief for various matters, that they always found him prompt to respond to any request for assistance, and that he was generally able to do whatever was requested of him.

"They called a large number of the best citizens of Wellsville who had had some business with the chief and who had observed him almost daily while performing his duties; that they considered him courteous, capable and eficient in the performance of his police duties, and that they generally knew where to find him if he was needed.

"Considerable has been said at this trial about the failure of Chief Fultz to make raids on bootleggers and gamblers. I know of no law and my attention has not been called to any ordinance which requires the chief to procure search warrants and to make raids. Even the Crabbe enforcement law does not direct any officer to procure search warrants and to make raids, but it permits any person to procure a search warrant by filing an affidavit with the magistrate. Presumably it is some person who has some knowledge who files the affidavit.

Reference To Civil Service Laws.

"The civil service laws of Ohio were passed for the purpose of fixing the tenure of office of persons holding positions under this law, and all persons acting under this law must act in good faith and for the good of the service; and this applies to the removal of a person from the service as well as to all the officers and employes under the service.

"There is no question, from the evidence, but what Wallace L. Fogo said to a number of persons, when he was a candidate for mayor, that if he was elected mayor that he would soon get rid of Chief Fultz; that as soon as he took the office that he started to treat the chief with indifference; that instead of treating him as had always been the custom of other mayors, by turning his papers over to the chief to serve, he started to turn them over to a policeman to serve.

"On the nineteenth day of March, 1926, the mayor removed the chief from his position, and, as required by law, gave him twelve reasons for his removal. These papers were filed with the civil service commission of Wellsville where there was a trial.

The law, General Code, Section 486-17a, provides that the commission "shall hear, or appoint a trial board to hear, such appeal." Under the law the commission was authorized to appoint a trial board to hear this matter, and the mayor's own brother was a member of this commission. Even a meager sense of justice and propriety would have prevented the mayor from trying this matter to a board of which his own brother was a member, and the same sense of justice and propriety would have prevented his brother from trying this matter. There is an old adage "that we should not only avoid evil but we should avoid the appearance of evil."

Term "Czar" is Used.

"In the complaint filed by the mayor against the chief there are some very serious charges against him of changing records, appropriating city money, and many others, of which there was no evidence at this hearing. If there is no evidence of these charges then this was a base and shameful attack by the mayor upon the chief of police which could only be prompted by malice and hatred.

"The mayor called witnesses to show that Wellsville is in a better condition during his administration than it was during the administration of the dead Mayor Barnes. He was assuming the credit for the improved condition during his administration and assuming to hold Chief Fultz responsible for the bad condition during the Barnes' administration. The evidence shows that the town is in as bad condition now as formerly.

"The mayor testified that for some time he acted as service director and that he had Acting Chief of Police Newton driving him over town in the performance of the duties of that office, an office which there is no law authorizing the mayor to fill himself.

It is not up to the court, at this time, to determine the legality of the orders and contracts made by him while so acting in an office which he was not authorized to fill. The mayor seems to have assumed control of the police force, while the law makes the safety director the immediate superior officer of the police force, and the orders should go from him to the police. The mayor seems to think that the people have elected him Czar of Wellsville and that he can usurp any position in the city government and give all orders and directions.

Order of Court.

"This matter comes into this court by appeal from the civil service commission, and the ordinary rule is that when a cause is appealed that the appellate court tries it as an original cause in that court, and I assume that the same rule would apply to this proceeding; and this court finds that there was no cause for the removal of John H. Fultz as chief of police of Wellsville, Ohio.

"It is the order of this court that John H. Fultz be fully restored to his position as chief of police of Wellsville, and that there be restored to him all that he has lost by removal."

Petitions Request Removal of Akron Judge From Office

AKRON, O., Sept. 2.—Removal from office of Common Pleas Judge L. S. Pardee will be sought through petitions to be filed tomorrow in the court of appeals, it was announced today by Fred Hagloch, chairman of the executive committee of the Ohio Non-Partisan league.

Judge Pardee will be charged in the petition, Hagloch said, with having blocked elections by granting injunctions preventing a vote on the recall of Councilmen A. E. Sauder and Slyder Crevelin.

A hearing on motions to dissolve the injunctions will be held here tomorrow.

STEVENS' ALIBI IN HALL-MILLS QUIZ IS HIT

Prosecutor Says He Has Found "Hole of Some Importance."

Twenty-persons Support Story of Fishing Journey.

SOMERVILLE, N. J., Sept. 2.—Convinced that he has found a "hole of some importance" in the alibi of Henry Stevens, the latest member of the family of Mrs. Frances Stevens Hall to be questioned in connection with the Hall-Mills murder mystery, Special Prosecutor Alexander Simpson today planned to question him further in an effort to ascertain the truth or falsity of his story.

Stevens' alibi that he was fishing near his home at Lavalette, N. J., the night of the murder has been substantiated by 23 witnesses. Lavalette is 50 miles away from New Brunswick, where the Rev. Edward W. Hall and his choir singer sweetheart, Mrs. Eleanor Mills, were shot to death on the night of November 14, 1922.

Simpson would not reveal the nature of the alleged discrepency he claims to have found in the alibi, but he did not hesitate to say that he attached significance to it.

DENVER COLLEGE RECORDS QUAKE

DENVER, Sept. 2.—An earthquake of severe intensity was recorded on the seismograph at Regis college here last night, according to announcement today by Father A. W. Forestall. Waves were recorded on the instrument for a duration of 20 minutes, starting at 7:50 and ending at 8:10, with the maximum fluctuation at 7:58. Father Forestall said indications were that the tremor occurred at a distance of between 5,000 and 6,000 miles, probably across the Atlantic ocean.

SANTIAGO, Chile, Sept. 2.—A severe earthquake was experienced in the province of Altacama today. The effects of the quake have not yet been ascertained.

Jewelry Salesman Is Robbed of Gems Worth $130,000

CHICAGO, Sept. 2.—Norman D. Kadison, jewelry salesman, of New York City, was robbed of gems worth $130,000 in his room in the Palmer House here, according to a report to police today.

Kadison told police the bandits entered his room shortly after he had spread out his samples for the day and had forced him to remain quiet while they packed the loot into bags.

Recently the crown prince's father had different and more extensive plans for a British invasion. The Hohenzollern methods of the last two or three generations were carefully observed, however, and the Hohenzollern of today sends somebody to do the swimming.

A FLYING sleeping car made its first trip from Berlin to London. The eight seats in the car are changed at night into four comfortable beds. Another German car has flown from Berlin to Peking.

DISPATCHES tell of a split between the Fascisti and the vatican because of attacks on Catholic parades at Mantua and Mancerata. The pope has ordered cancellation of the International Catholic Gymnast congress that was to be held in Rome this week. The trouble is not of Mussolini's doing, and it has not his approval, that is certain. He has repeatedly emphasized his belief that religion is a necessary part of government.

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE is assured that he might as well sell America's ships to foreign countries, because it "doesn't make any difference what flag they are under."

It made some difference in the last war, when this country paid first-class passage for worse than steerage accommodations to get its soldiers to Europe on foreign ships.

It is announced that President Coolidge will not sell American ships to sail under foreign flags.

That's good.

Places were laid for 200 guests at the chicken dinner served by the grange women at 7 o'clock. Following the dinner President Clarence Cline presented Ralph Sayre, chairman of the rural affairs committee, who turned the meeting over to Prof. Hugh Laughlin, club "pep-maker."

Laughlin's program consisted of chorus numbers by members of the club, quartet selections, solos and literary numbers. Miss Ruth Heddleston gave readings while Miss Sara Heddleston rendered vocal selections. Miss Lucile Orin rendered piano solos and also acted as accompanist for the glee club in the absence of Clair Chambers, club pianist, who is out of the city on his vacation. REPORTS FROM STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—New advances in the high grade railroad stocks, the coppers, the gas and electric company stocks and a few of the oils, featured the early trading in the stock market today. Elsewhere the market was slightly reactionary, which was accounted for by the usual "switching" from stocks which have had their day, to the new favorites.

Bullish sentiment was stimulated by the reports and comments of prominent business leader, including Mr. Roberts of the National City bank and George F. Baker, veteran banker and industrial directors, who returned today from Europe. The rails were the favored group, though large scale buying of the copper stocks was noted, under the lead of smelters and Anaconda; the utilities, led by Brooklyn Edison, Consolidated Gas and Brooklyn Union Gas and the oils, in which Marland and Phillips Pete were again on display.

The market developed a slightly reactionary tone in the second hour, with profit taking in both the rails and industrials which have led the procession in the previous sessions of the week and speculative selling of the low priced motor and accessory stocks, some of which were depressed to new low prices of the year. Jordan Motor broke through to 20½, while Moon Motors, Hudson and Stewart Warner were under selling pressure.

Grain cotton and other fmportant commodities showed a slight margin of gains in the early trading money was in good supply and call renewal rates were unchanged at 4½ per cent.

votes his vacations. Back in 1895 he won much fame as a long distance bicycle rider, and was a member of the old Morgan & Wright team. Thirty-one years have told little on his endurance and stamina. In fact he gaily ran up two flights of stairs, three steps at a time when he was taken to Roosevelt hospital for examination immediately at the conclusion of his 83-hour stretch at the wheel.

His partner in the enterprise, J. E. Wieber, is 30 and lives in Portland, Ore., where he works as an automobile mechanic. While no mechanical work was necessary on the trip, Wieber relieved Miller at the wheel.

Enjoy Extra Goodness

It's that finishing touch in the manufacture of Lucky Strike cigarettes which is distinctive.

To begin with, they are made of the world's finest Turkish and domestic tobaccos, properly aged and perfectly blended.

But extra goodness comes from a costly added process, a final touch—toasting.

Lucky Strikes are distinctive because of:

1. Finer Flavor. Toasting for 45 minutes develops the hidden flavors of the world's finest Turkish and domestic tobaccos.
2. Smoothness. Toasting for 45 minutes removes all "bite" and harshness, hence never any throat irritation.
3. Freshness. Then the tobacco is suddenly chilled. This seals the flavor in and insures constant freshness.

If you haven't yet adopted Luckies, you're missing these added enjoyments. So smoke them for a trial. Learn why millions prefer them.

"IT'S TOASTED"

That's Why Luckies Taste So Good

BEN WELCH, 50, COMEDIAN FOR 25 YEARS, DIES

Famous Actor Loses Five-month Fight for Health.

BLIND SIX YEARS

He is Survived by Widow and Daughter, Justine.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—Ben Welch, the famous comedian, died today at the King's Park sanitarium, King's Park, Long Island. He had been in ill health for five months.

Welch had been on the stage for nearly a quarter of a century. Six years ago he became blind but refused to give up his work until recently, when his health began to fail.

He is survived by his widow and a daughter.

Welch was 50 years old. He was one of the leading Yiddish dialect comedians in burlesque and vaudeville. He appeared in the Columbia and Mutual circuits for years. It is said he frequently made as much as $50,000 a year. He also played in the Keith vaudeville circuit.

His wife, Jeanette, was at the bedside when the end came. His daughter, Justine, is 17 years old.

News of his death was a shock to his many friends on Broadway. He had a personality that endeared him to his countless friends here and all over the country.

HOME LOOTED, TWO MEN HELD

Police Seek Third Suspect in East End Job.

Orville McDole, 21, and Raymond Garrett, 15, are in the city jail while police are attempting to locate a third suspect in the looting of the James Martin home, East End, last Saturday night.

They were arrested upon charges of larceny preferred in municipal court yesterday by Martin. McDole was picked up last night by Patrolman Chester Smith, while Captain Conley arrested Garrett.

The loot included three automobile tires, a sweater, slicker, suit of clothes and a watch, the total value of which was estimated at more than $200, all the property of Robert Martin, a son of the complainant. Everything except the watch was located by Captain Conley and Desk Sergeant Toland last night.

The case against Garrett who is a minor has been referred to Probation Officer John McShane.

TRY TO START AUTO, JAILED

Two Men are Given 60-day Sentences by Court.

Harvey Westfall, 19, Charleston, W. Va., and Tim Kearns, 25, were sentenced to serve 60 days in the county jail at Lisbon by Municipal Judge Hanley today after they pleaded guilty to charges of starting an engine in a motor vehicle without the owner's consent.

They were arrested by Captain of Police Conley at the corner of Fifth street and Broadway at 11 o'clock yesterday morning after they are alleged to have attempted to steal a Nash sedan parked on Fourth street near the Y. M. C. A.

Westfall admitted having started the motor in the car, intending to drive to Pittsburgh. Kearns said he was with him. They changed their plans, however, when they found the transmission in the machine locked.

Police received a tip concerning the pair, and Captain Conley located them as they were preparing to board an eastbound interurban car.

Westfall came to East Liverpool about three weeks ago from Darlington, Pa., where he had been working in a brick plant. Police say he confessed to having broken into the restaurant at the No. 4 plant of the Homer Laughlin China company at Newell one night last week, securing $1.90 in cash and a quantity of cigarettes. He named a confederate in the robbery. He also admitted, police claim, that he forced an entrance into the pottery restaurant again last Monday night, stealing cigarettes. He said that Kearns accompanied him on the second robbery, but this the latter denied. Westfall also admitted the theft of a tire from a Newell garage a few nights ago.

Kearns claims to have returned to East Liverpool last Sunday, after having been traveling with a carnival company all summer.

Fifth U. S. Reservation To World Court Attacked

France, Belgium and Italy Score Proposal, Charging America Seeks Privileged Position.

GENEVA, Sept. 2.—The fifth reservation, proposed by the United States as a condition of its entry to the world court today proved a difficult pill to swallow for the representatives of 37 powers, signatory to the world court, in conference here to pass upon the American reservations.

Representatives of France, Belgium and Italy all attacked this reservation, declaring that the United States is seeking a special and privileged position.

"Does America want all of the privileges of a member of the council of the league without having any of the burdens of a member?" queried Sir Cecil Hurst, British delegate.

The Belgian delegation suggested that the world court be asked to decide whether unanimity or a majority is required to accept the United States reservations.

Sir Cecil Hurst suggested that it would be better not to ask the court for an opinion on this matter now, but to let the question remain obscure for the time being, at the same time giving the United States assurances that it would have all the privieges before the world court that would be given to a member of the league council, no more and no less.

"Then we can see what the United States really wants," said Sir Cecil. "The fifth reservation is the most difficult of many very serious difficulties, but why not let the United States come in on a basis of equality and leave the details to the future?"

Chief Fultz Reinstated

of police by Mayor G. D. Ingram, on April 15, 1921, and served as such officer until his removal by Mayor Fogo.

"John H. Fultz held said position under the civil service law, which provides: General Code Section 486-17a:

"'The tenure of every officer, employee or subordinate in the classified service of the state, the counties, cities and city school district thereof, holding a position under the provisions of this act, shall be during good behavior and efficient service.'

"Then it provides the grounds upon which he may be removed.

"Then the section provides:

"'In all cases of removal the appointing authority shall furnish such employee or subordinate with a copy of the order of removal and his reasons for the same.'"

Law is Cited.

"Then the law provides that such order with the explanation, shall be filed with the civil service commission, and provides for a hearing before the commission; that the commission shall hear "or appoint a trial board to hear such appeal."

"The law further provides:

"'That in the case of the removal of a chief of police or chief of the fire department of a municipality an appeal may be had from the decision of the municipal commission to the court of common pleas of the county in which such municipality is situated to determine the sufficiency of the cause of removal.'

"The only question before this court is "to determine the sufficiency of the cause of removal."

"The matter was tried before the civil service commission of Wellsville, and is now appealed to this court to determine the sufficiency of the cause of removal.

"The complainant, Wallace L. Fogo, called a number of witnesses to show sufficiency of the cause of such removal.

Testimony of Prosecution.

"He called first a number of witnesses, who testified that they were bootleggers and gamblers in Wellsville; that a number of them had conducted gambling places. Most of them testified that their places had been raided by Chief Fultz, and that they had been arrested by him a number of times, and some of them testified that they had a system of signals by which they could warn the players of the approach of an officer. Some of them testified that they had sold liquor and been arrested by Chief Fultz a number of times. Two or three of them testified that they had paid Chief Fultz money for protection from arrest, and one witness, Ike Freeman, testified that Chief Fultz had paid him money on election day to pay some persons for coming to the polls to vote.

"There was some evidence that the bootleggers were disreputable persons and unworthy of belief, and half a dozen or more witness testified that Ike Freeman was unworthy of belief.

"The complainant called witnesses to show that Mrs. Fultz, a reputable woman, had a drunken revel in her home. And he attempted to offer some palliation for his bootleggers and gamblers by calling a preacher to testify that the city had been better under his administration than under Mayor Barnes' administration, but the preacher testified that he did not know anything about the gambling places or the bootleggers that are now running or doing business in the town.

The Defense.

"Chief Fultz called as witnesses, I believe five former mayors of Wellsville under whom Fultz had served as chief of police, and they all testified that he was a capable, courteous and efficient oficer, and always ready and willing to do whatever he was directed to do.

Chief Fultz called as witnesses probably all of the former directors of public safety of Wellsville, who were the immediate superior officers of Chief Fultz, who all testified that he was a capable and efficient officer and always ready to obey any direction or order.

He called as a witness Hugh McDermott, who has been for many years at the head of the police department of East Liverpool(and there is, perhaps, no man better qualified to tell the worth of a good and efficient police officer), who testified that in all his dealings with him he had found him to be a capable, courteous and efficient chief of police; that he was always ready to respond to any request.

He also called Captain Mason Conley, who has for a long time been connected with the police department of East Liverpool, and he testified that in all his dealing with him that he had found him always ready and willing to do whatever was requested of him, and that he considered him a good officer.

Reviews Evidence.

"He also called Sheriff George Wright, who has had four years' experience as deputy sheriff of this country and nearly two years as sheriff, who has had frequent business dealings with Chief Fultz, especially in criminal matters, that he always found him ready to assist, whenever he was called on, and that he considered him a capable and efficient officer.

"They called a number of witnesses who had occasion to call upon the chief for various matters, that they always found him prompt to respond to any request for assistance, and that he was generally able to do whatever was requested of him.

"They called a large number of the best citizens of Wellsville who had had some business with the chief and who had observed him almost daily while performing his duties; that they considered him courteous, capable and eficient in the performance of his police duties, and that they generally knew where to find him if he was needed.

"Considerable has been said at this trial about the failure of Chief Fultz to make raids on bootleggers and gamblers. I know of no law and my attention has not been called to any ordinance which requires the chief to procure search warrants and to make raids. Even the Crabbe enforcement law does not direct any officer to procure search warrants and to make raids, but it permits any person to procure a search warrant by filing an affidavit with the magistrate. Presumably it is some person who has some knowledge who files the affidavit.

Reference To Civil Service Laws.

"The civil service laws of Ohio were passed for the purpose of fixing the tenure of office of persons holding positions under this law, and all persons acting under this law must act in good faith and for the good of the service; and this applies to the removal of a person from the service as well as to all the officers and employes under the service.

"There is no question, from the evidence, but what Wallace L. Fogo said to a number of persons, when he was a candidate for mayor, that if he was elected mayor that he would soon get rid of Chief Fultz; that as soon as he took the office that he started to treat the chief with indifference; that instead of treating him as had always been the custom of other mayors, by turning his papers over to the chief to serve, he started to turn them over to a policeman to serve.

"On the nineteenth day of March, 1926, the mayor removed the chief from his position, and, as required by law, gave him twelve reasons for his removal. These papers were filed with the civil service commission of Wellsville where there was a trial.

The law, General Code, Section 486-17a, provides that the commission "shall hear, or appoint a trial board to hear, such appeal." Under the law the commission was authorized to appoint a trial board to hear this matter, and the mayor's own brother was a member of this commission. Even a meager sense of justice and propriety would have prevented the mayor from trying this matter to a board of which his own brother was a member, and the same sense of justice and propriety would have prevented his brother from trying this matter. There is an old adage "that we should not only avoid evil but we should avoid the appearance of evil."

Term "Czar" is Used.

"In the complaint filed by the mayor against the chief there are some very serious charges against him of changing records, appropriating city money, and many others, of which there was no evidence at this hearing. If there is no evidence of these charges then this was a base and shameful attack by the mayor upon the chief of police which could only be prompted by malice and hatred.

"The mayor called witnesses to show that Wellsville is in a better condition during his administration than it was during the administration of the dead Mayor Barnes. He was assuming the credit for the improved condition during his administration and assuming to hold Chief Fultz responsible for the bad condition during the Barnes' administration. The evidence shows that the town is in as bad condition now as formerly.

"The mayor testified that for some time he acted as service director and that he had Acting Chief of Police Newton driving him over town in the performance of the duties of that office, an office which there is no law authorizing the mayor to fill himself.

It is not up to the court, at this time, to determine the legality of the orders and contracts made by him while so acting in an office which he was not authorized to fill. The mayor seems to have assumed control of the police force, while the law makes the safety director the immediate superior officer of the police force, and the orders should go from him to the police. The mayor seems to think that the people have elected him Czar of Wellsville and that he can usurp any position in the city government and give all orders and directions.

Order of Court.

"This matter comes into this court by appeal from the civil service commission, and the ordinary rule is that when a cause is appealed that the appellate court tries it as an original cause in that court, and I assume that the same rule would apply to this proceeding; and this court finds that there was no cause for the removal of John H. Fultz as chief of police of Wellsville, Ohio.

"It is the order of this court that John H. Fultz be fully restored to his position as chief of police of Wellsville, and that there be restored to him all that he has lost by removal."

CARD OF THANKS.

Petitions Request Removal of Akron Judge From Office

AKRON, O., Sept. 2.—Removal from office of Common Pleas Judge L. S. Pardee will be sought through petitions to be filed tomorrow in the court of appeals, it was announced today by Fred Hagloch, chairman of the executive committee of the Ohio Non-Partisan league.

Judge Pardee will be charged in the petition, Hagloch said, with having blocked elections by granting injunctions preventing a vote on the recall of Councilmen A. E. Sauder and Slyder Crevelin.

A hearing on motions to dissolve the injunctions will be held here tomorrow.

STEVENS' ALIBI IN HALL-MILLS QUIZ IS HIT

Prosecutor Says He Has Found "Hole of Some Importance."

Twenty-persons Support Story of Fishing Journey.

SOMERVILLE, N. J., Sept. 2.—Convinced that he has found a "hole of some importance" in the alibi of Henry Stevens, the latest member of the family of Mrs. Frances Stevens Hall to be questioned in connection with the Hall-Mills murder mystery, Special Prosecutor Alexander Simpson today planned to question him further in an effort to ascertain the truth or falsity of his story.

Stevens' alibi that he was fishing near his home at Lavalette, N. J., the night of the murder has been substantiated by 23 witnesses. Lavalette is 50 miles away from New Brunswick, where the Rev. Edward W. Hall and his choir singer sweetheart, Mrs. Eleanor Mills, were shot to death on the night of November 14, 1922.

Simpson would not reveal the nature of the alleged discrepency he claims to have found in the alibi, but he did not hesitate to say that he attached significance to it.

DENVER COLLEGE RECORDS QUAKE

DENVER, Sept. 2.—An earthquake of severe intensity was recorded on the seismograph at Regis college here last night, according to announcement today by Father A. W. Forestall. Waves were recorded on the instrument for a duration of 20 minutes, starting at 7:50 and ending at 8:10, with the maximum fluctuation at 7:58. Father Forestall said indications were that the tremor occurred at a distance of between 5,000 and 6,000 miles, probably across the Atlantic ocean.

SANTIAGO, Chile, Sept. 2.—A severe earthquake was experienced in the province of Altacama today. The effects of the quake have not yet been ascertained.

Jewelry Salesman Is Robbed of Gems Worth $130,000

CHICAGO, Sept. 2.—Norman D. Kadison, jewelry salesman, of New York City, was robbed of gems worth $130,000 in his room in the Palmer House here, according to a report to police today.

Kadison told police the bandits entered his room shortly after he had spread out his samples for the day and had forced him to remain quiet while they packed the loot into bags.

Recently the crown prince's father had different and more extensive plans for a British invasion. The Hohenzollern methods of the last two or three generations were carefully observed, however, and the Hohenzollern of today sends somebody to do the swimming.

A FLYING sleeping car made its first trip from Berlin to London. The eight seats in the car are changed at night into four comfortable beds. Another German car has flown from Berlin to Peking.

This country will begin flying by and by. But we must get around to it gradually, being an old fashioned nation.

DISPATCHES tell of a split between the Fascisti and the vatican because of attacks on Catholic parades at Mantua and Mancerata. The pope has ordered cancellation of the International Catholic Gymnast congress that was to be held in Rome this week. The trouble is not of Mussolini's doing, and it has not his approval, that is certain. He has repeatedly emphasized his belief that religion is a necessary part of government.

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE is assured that he might as well sell America's ships to foreign countries, because it "doesn't make any difference what flag they are under."

It made some difference in the last war, when this country paid first-class passage for worse than steerage accommodations to get its soldiers to Europe on foreign ships.

It is announced that President Coolidge will not sell American ships to sail under foreign flags.

That's good.

Places were laid for 200 guests at the chicken dinner served by the grange women at 7 o'clock. Following the dinner President Clarence Cline presented Ralph Sayre, chairman of the rural affairs committee, who turned the meeting over to Prof. Hugh Laughlin, club "pep-maker."

Laughlin's program consisted of chorus numbers by members of the club, quartet selections, solos and literary numbers. Miss Ruth Heddleston gave readings while Miss Sara Heddleston rendered vocal selections. Miss Lucile Orin rendered piano solos and also acted as accompanist for the glee club in the absence of Clair Chambers, club pianist, who is out of the city on his vacation. The program was concluded at 10 o'clock.

votes his vacations. Back in 1895 he won much fame as a long distance bicycle rider, and was a member of the old Morgan & Wright team. Thirty-one years have told little on his endurance and stamina. In fact he gaily ran up two flights of stairs, three steps at a time when he was taken to Roosevelt hospital for examination immediately at the conclusion of his 83-hour stretch at the wheel.

His partner in the enterprise, J. E. Wieber, is 30 and lives in Portland, Ore., where he works as an automobile mechanic. While no mechanical work was necessary on the trip, Wieber relieved Miller at the wheel.

Enjoy Extra Goodness

It's that finishing touch in the manufacture of Lucky Strike cigarettes which is distinctive.

To begin with, they are made of the world's finest Turkish and domestic tobaccos, properly aged and perfectly blended.

Lucky Strikes are distinctive because of:

1. Finer Flavor. Toasting for 45 minutes develops the hidden flavors of the world's finest Turkish and domestic tobaccos.
2. Smoothness. Toasting for 45 minutes removes all "bite" and harshness, hence never any throat irritation.
3. Freshness. Then the tobacco is suddenly chilled. This seals the flavor in and insures constant freshness.

If you haven't yet adopted Luckies, you're missing these added enjoyments. So smoke them for a trial. Learn why millions prefer them.

"IT'S TOASTED"

That's Why Luckies Taste So Good

WINONA WOMAN SEEKS DIVORCE

Blanche L. Mangus, of Winona, has filed an action for divorce in common pleas court against her husband, Frank Mangus, also of Inona.

The couple were married May 6, 1897. The petition was filed by Attorney J. S. Miller, of Alliance.

Mrs. Mangus charges her husband with habitual drunkenness for a period of three years, gross neglect of duty and extreme cruelty.

Temporary alimony and attorney fees are sought by the plaintiff. The petition shows that Mangus is possessed of real estate worth $8,000, mortgages worth $2,000 and an automobile and other personal effects worth $3,000, in which Mrs. Mangus declares she has a dower interest.

Returning from Canada.

Frank Low and family, of Lisbon, who have been spending the summer in Canada, are expected to return to Lisbon Friday. Mr. Low stopped at Toronto, Canada, enroute home to visit the Toronto fair.

Music in all schools will be under the direction of Marie Smoot.

GRAND AND PETIT JURORS DRAWN

Forty names have been withdrawn from the jury wheel to serve as grand and petit jurors during the next term of court which begins Monday, September 20. Judge W. H. Spence made a special order concerning the drawing of jurors, which was followed by Clerk of Courts Frank Ballantine and Sheriff George Wright drawing the names from the wheel.

The grand jurors summoned are: Homer Elwonger, East Palestine; Fay M. Nowell, Walter Strain, S. E. Mackintosh, of Salem; Charlotte Harrold, Leetonia; Louis Reed, Bayard; Clyde R. Todd, Lisbon, R. F. D.; Paul E. Potts, East Liverpool; Luella Aten, James W. Morrow and C. J. Berg, all of Wellsville; Richard Fitzpatrick, Columbiana; Robert G. Boyd, East Liverpool, R. F. D.; B. F. George, Rogers; C. H. Hoopes, Kensington.

This jury is to report at 10 o'clock Monday morning, Sept. 20. The petit jury is to report at 9:30 o'clock Monday, Sept. 27, and those drawn for such duty are:

Wellsville—T. E. Gamble, Dora Wilson, Ralph Merriman, Harriet Bernia, Euphemia Marshall, R. D.

Negley—Howard Dixon.

East Palestine—Bertha Long.

Columbiana — Cora Hyland, Elizabeth Miller.

Hanoverton, R. D.—John J. Hatzll.

New Waterford, R. D. — Harry Crum.

Lisbon, R. D.—Lizzie Eells.

28 NEW DIVORCE PETITIONS FILED

Of the 68 cases filed in common pleas court during August 28 petitions were those seeking a divorce and one other other petition sought alimony alone. The average of about one-third of the cases filed per month in divorce held good. The remainder of the 37 cases filed were actions wherein money and property was involved.

A number of new transcripts have been filed with Clerk of Courts Frank Ballantine having to do with grand jury investigations and were referred to Prosecuting Attorney Robert M. Brookes and his assistant, John E. Bauknecht.

Notice has been issued by the prosecuting attorney's office that all magistrates immediately file transcripts of all criminal cases they now have on their dockets, instead of awaiting the last day before the grand jury convenes.

Save Your Teeth!
STOP PYORRHEA
Tender, sore or bleeding gums, or gums fissured or receding from the teeth, indicate DEADLY PYORRHEA—the teeth's worst enemy. The disease first attacks the gums, later the tooth structure. As the gums recede from the teeth, pus pockets are formed, in which toxic poisons develop to be absorbed by the system and become the possible sources of other dangerous diseases. Don't let Pyorrhea endanger your health. The ravages of this terrible disease can be stopped, the gums healed and the poison the system has been absorbing checked, by the use of VINCENT'S PYORRHEA TREATMENT. For further particulars write,

WINONA WOMAN SEEKS DIVORCE

Blanche L. Mangus, of Winona, has filed an action for divorce in common pleas court against her husband, Frank Mangus, also of Inona.

The couple were married May 6, 1897. The petition was filed by Attorney J. S. Miller, of Alliance.

Mrs. Mangus charges her husband with habitual drunkenness for a period of three years, gross neglect of duty and extreme cruelty.

Temporary alimony and attorney fees are sought by the plaintiff. The petition shows that Mangus is possessed of real estate worth $8,000, mortgages worth $2,000 and an automobile and other personal effects worth $3,000, in which Mrs. Mangus declares she has a dower interest.

Returning from Canada.

Frank Low and family, of Lisbon, who have been spending the summer in Canada, are expected to return to Lisbon Friday. Mr. Low stopped at Toronto, Canada, enroute home to visit the Toronto fair.

New Waterford, R. D. — Harry Crum.

Lisbon, R. D.—Lizzie Eells.

28 NEW DIVORCE PETITIONS FILED

Of the 68 cases filed in common pleas court during August 28 petitions were those seeking a divorce and one other other petition sought alimony alone. The average of about one-third of the cases filed per month in divorce held good. The remainder of the 37 cases filed were actions wherein money and property was involved.

A number of new transcripts have been filed with Clerk of Courts Frank Ballantine having to do with grand jury investigations and were referred to Prosecuting Attorney Robert M. Brookes and his assistant, John E. Baukecht.

Notice has been issued by the prosecuting attorney's office that all magistrates immediately file transcripts of all criminal cases they now have on their dockets. instead of awaiting the last day before the grand jury convenes.

Save Your Teeth!

STOP PYORRHEA

Tender, sore or bleeding gums, or gums fissured or receding from the teeth, indicate DEADLY PYORRHEA—the teeth's worst enemy. The disease first attacks the gums, later the tooth structure. As the gums recede from the teeth, pus pockets are formed, in which toxic poisons develop to be absorbed by the system and become the possible sources of other dangerous diseases. Don't let Pyorrhea endanger your health. The ravages of this terrible disease can be stopped, the gums healed and the poison the system has been absorbing checked, by the use of VINCENT'S PYORRHEA TREATMENT. For further particulars write,

DENNY SCREAM IN NEW FILM

"Rolling Home" Opens Three-day Run at Ceramic.

"Here we are again."

That's what a chorus of voices shouted when the company which was to produce "Rolling Home" at Universal City, was gathered on the set for the first day's work.

William A. Seiter, the director, Reginald Denny, the star, Marion Nixon, the leading woman and Ben Hendricks, who plays a prominent supporting role in the picture, which opens a three-day run at the Ceramic theatre today, have all been together on three of Denny's last four pictures.

Seiter has directed them all. Miss Nixon has played opposite the popular farceur in "Where Was I," "I'll Show You the Town," "What Happened to Jones" and "Rolling Home," while Hendricks has been in all but "Where Was I."

In Seiter's corps of assistants, Harry Todd has turned the camera on all of Denny's recent pictures, and Nate Watt has been the assistant director, so altogether it makes quite a happy family gathering.

The supporting cast of "Rolling Home" includes E. J. Ratcliffe, Margaret Seddon, George Nicholls, George Marion, Anton Vaverka and several others.

"Rolling Home" is based on the stage farce of the same name by John Hunter Booth, and was adapted to the screen by Rex Taylor. Seiter and John McDermott wrote the continuity.

The way some birds run their business makes one think they have a longing to dig ditches or sweep the streets.—Fostoria Times.

Q. Can a pilot whirl his propeller and then get into his plane? R. S.

A. He cannot whirl his propellar and have time to get in his seat to run the plane. It is necessary that someone start him. No standard types of ariplanes are equipped with self-starters. Self-starters have been used in experiments.

Q. When is Yellowstone Park closed to campers? T. V. T.

A. The National Park Service says that the Yellowstone is closed September 19 to campers. However, it is open to tourists until October 15. Therefore, anyone visiting the park between these dates by automobile is allowed to tour through, but not to camp.

Q. By whose authority are dates in the Bible explained in terms of B. C. and A. D.? N. N.

C. mean before the Christian Era, and the letters A. D. signify Anno Domini, meaning the beginning of the Christia Era. There are plenty of evidences that these dates are approximately correct.

Q. Where was John Cabot born and where did he die? B. R. D.

A. This navigator who discovered the continent of North America, is considered a Venetian. He was an Italian navigator in the employ of the English King, Henry VII, but the time and place of his birth and death are not known.

Q. Is a rotary press stamp as valuable as regular stamps to a collector? R. E. I.

A. Rotary press stamps are made by a printing process; other stamps are engraved. The value to collectors depends upon the rarity of the stamp and new issues whether manufactured by rotary process or engraving process.

Q. How are the checks sent back to the banks on which they are drawn? C. McN.

A. All checks which are drawn on a bank other than the one in which is cashed, go through a clearing house. A clearing-house is a central office where the representatives of the banks of the association meet every day and settle their accounts with each other, and make settlements of debit or credit gross balances. Before the clearing house was established it was customary for banks to settle with each other directly by sending their messengers to every bank in the city against which it had checks or drafts, and collecting the money from each individual institution. This required a great deal of time and expense, and where in those days it required several messengers the entire day to settle accounts, it now requires but forty-five minutes and but two messengers through the clearing-house.

Q. What is the derivation of "cockney?" W. E.

A. A cockney is a native of London or one born within the Sound of "Bow Bells." Originally it meant a spoiled or effiminate boy. It is derived from the word "cockering," meaning coolishly petting a person. Halliwell states that some writers trace the word to imaginary land of Cockaygne, the lubber land of olden times.

It is easy to pick out the foreign-born. They cuss capital instead of congress.—Fostoria Tribune.

"JUST CAN'T HELP IT" BEAUTY SAYS WHEN ASKED TO EXPLAIN HER RECIPE

Miss Beryl Mills, voted the most beautiful girl in Australia, while in San Francisco en route to Atlantic City admitted the question was a poser and intimated that if she held the answer to the question she would capitalize it to her advantage.

However, Miss Mills has some decided opinions concerning the use of cosmetics.

She does not use powder, nor does not use rouge.

"And as for that," she continued, "I never use cold cream."

And it would indeed be a critical critic who would say that she suffered by not using these customary aids to beauty.

A set diet is unknown to the pretty Australian girl.

"I simply eat anything I wish," she said. "No, I'm not a vegetarian. No freakish habits or anything. I guess I am just healthy."

Dancing is a favorite pastime of the Australian girl.

"I just love it," she remarked, smilingly.

"The Charleston?"

"Well hardly that. It seems like a bit of awkward posturing to me."

Miss Mills declared the dance was reminiscent of the movements of the kangaroos of her native country.

A daily swim is part of Miss Mills' ritual. She won honors at that at her school in Australia, Perth University.

The Australian's girl's mother, who accompanied her to this country, also confided another very important matter.

"Beryl loves housework," she said. "She is never so happy as when she has a broom in her hands and occupied by domestic duties."

That frogs love saxophone music, as stated by an orchestra leader, should not be surprising when one remembers how the frogs croak and the saxophone honks. Pretty nearly in the same class.—Newark American-Tribune.

Hot weather has compensations. The man ahead of you doesn't stand in the telephone booth and gush to his sweetie for ten minutes.—Akron Beacon Journal.

DENNY SCREAM IN NEW FILM

"Rolling Home" Opens Three-day Run at Ceramic.

"Here we are again."

That's what a chorus of voices shouted when the company which was to produce "Rolling Home" at Universal City, was gathered on the set for the first day's work.

William A. Seiter, the director, Reginald Denny, the star, Marion Nixon, the leading woman and Ben Hendricks, who plays a prominent supporting role in the picture, which opens a three-day run at the Ceramic theatre today, have all been together on three of Denny's last four pictures.

Seiter has directed them all. Miss Nixon has played opposite the popular farceur in "Where Was I," "I'll Show You the Town," "What Happened to Jones" and "Rolling Home," while Hendricks has been in all but "Where Was I."

In Seiter's corps of assistants, Harry Todd has turned the camera on all of Denny's recent pictures, and Nate Watt has been the assistant director, so altogether it makes quite a happy family gathering.

The supporting cast of "Rolling Home" includes E. J. Ratcliffe, Margaret Seddon, George Nicholls, George Marion, Anton Vaverka and several others.

"Rolling Home" is based on the stage farce of the same name by John Hunter Booth, and was adapted to the screen by Rex Taylor. Seiter and John McDermott wrote the continuity.

Before the clearing house was established it was customary for banks to settle with each other directly by sending their messengers to every bank in the city against which it had checks or drafts, and collecting the money from each individual institution. This required a great deal of time and expense, and where in those days it required several messengers the entire day to settle accounts, it now requires but forty-five minutes and but two messengers through the clearing house.

Q. What is the derivation of "cockney?" W. E.

A. A cockney is a native of London or one born within the Sound of "Bow Bells." Originally it meant a spoiled or effiminate boy. It is derived from the word "cockering," meaning coolishly petting a person. Halliwell states that some writers trace the word to imaginary land of Cockaygne, the lubber land of olden times.

It is easy to pick out the foreign-born. They cuss capital instead of congress.—Fostoria Tribune.

"JUST CAN'T HELP IT" BEAUTY SAYS WHEN ASKED TO EXPLAIN HER RECIPE

Miss Beryl Mills, voted the most beautiful girl in Australia, while in San Francisco en route to Atlantic City admitted the question was a poser and intimated that if she held the answer to the question she would capitalize it to her advantage.

However, Miss Mills has some decided opinions concerning the use of cosmetics.

She does not use powder, nor does not use rouge.

"And as for that," she continued, "I never use cold cream."

And it would indeed be a critical critic who would say that she suffered by not using these customary aids to beauty.

A set diet is unknown to the pretty Australian girl.

"I simply eat anything I wish," she said. "No, I'm not a vegetarian. No freakish habits or anything. I guess I am just healthy."

Dancing is a favorite pastime of the Australian girl.

"I just love it," she remarked, smilingly.

"The Charleston?"

"Well hardly that. It seems like a bit of awkward posturing to me."

Miss Mills declared the dance was reminiscent of the movements of the kangaroos of her native country.

A daily swim is part of Miss Mills' ritual. She won honors at that at her school in Australia, Perth University.

The Australian's girl's mother, who accompanied her to this country, also confided another very important matter.

"Beryl loves housework," she said. "She is never so happy as when she has a broom in her hands and occupied by domestic duties."

That frogs love saxophone music, as stated by an orchestra leader, should not be surprising when one remembers how the frogs croak and the saxophone honks. Pretty nearly in the same class.—Newark American-Tribune.

Hot weather has compensations. The man ahead of you doesn't stand in the telephone booth and gush to his sweetie for ten minutes.—Akron Beacon Journal.

Local League Stars Win Second Tilt of Inter-City Series

Turn Back Midlanders, 5 to 3, at Smith Field; Third Clash Saturday

Wilde Holds Pennsylvanians to Three Scattered Hits; Potters Bunch Four Bingles, Walk, to Score Five Runs.

BILL MUNDY'S East Liverpool City Industrial league pickup team took another fall out of the Midland All Stars last evening at Smith Field, 5 to 3, hanging up their second straight victory of the scheduled five-game series.

Neither club was able to solve the opposing pitcher's delivery for more than a few hits, but both profited by the hurlers' wildnesses.

Wilde, Chester first bagman and pitcher, turned in a three-hit performance for the victors, permitting one triple and two singles. He fanned six, but allowed five walks and hit three.

Yoboid was touched up for three hits in four innings, and Black gave up one in the last two frames of the contest which went only six innings, being called as darkness settled over the field.

Yoboid and Black struck out five between them and gave a total of six walks, Yoboid being charged with four of them.

The Midlanders drew first blood, scoring in the first inning on a triple by B. Black and a single by R. Black and added another in the second on a pass to Heckathorne, a sacrifice by Gordon, then a couple more walks and a sacrifice fly by B. Black.

Rally in Fourth.

In the fourth, Sunday walked, went to second on Yoboid's sacrifice and scored on a hit by B. Black.

At this point the locals began to stir around and went out and chalked up five runs before the frame was over. Four hits, two bases on balls and a wild pitch did the trick.

With one out, Eddie Bayley singled Mundy walked and they worked a double steal. Herbert singled, scoring Bayley, and Mundy came in on a wild pitch. McShane walked and on Parsons' single, Herbert scored. Schneidmiller crashed out a two-baser, scoring McShane and Parsons.

Wilde let three strikes slide past him and Evans lined to Andrews who threw to B. Black for a double play before Schneidmiller could get back to the bag.

Midland had their Sunday catching and the locals their Mundy at first base.

The third clash of the series will be staged Saturday afternoon at Midland.

The odds are against an East Liverpool victory, but in the event that that is the way it turns out, the series will formally be concluded.

By winning their final home game from the Pittsburgh Pirates while the Cincinnati Reds were idle, the St. Louis Cardinals today held a somewhat firmer grasp on first place in the hectic National league pennant race. The Cardinals thus gained a full game on the Pirates and now are approximately two games in front of the world's champions. They gained a half game on the Reds and now top the latter by one game.

Yesterday marked the final appearance of the Cardinals on the home ground this season, unless they get into the world series.

The New York Yankees increased their lead over Cleveland in the American league to six games by beating the Philadelphia Athletics while the Indians were idle.

INSIDE GOLF

By CHESTER HORTON.

Some of the smallest things and apparently the most unimportant details can often keep a golfer who is in ignorance of them in the duffer class for years. One of these is the exact location of the ball in the address. In this, the individual player should find some point on which he can absolutely rely. Beyond that he can experiment some, always with the understanding that he knows the spot to return to in the event the experiments go bad.

One of the best general rules in this regard is this: Take a square stance, with the feet not too far apart, yet not so close together that a feeling of solidity on the ground is lost. From this position have the ball, for wood clubs, on a line with the left heel. In the address have the hands exactly on a line with the ball. For irons, let the ball be moved back about three inches. In the address have the hands about an inch in front of the ball. For aevrage players that position holds good almost invariably.

TAGGING ALL --BASES--

Dutch Ruether, the convalescent young man who recently joined the Yankees by way of Washington, had his coming-out party yesterday. Pitching eight innings of beautiful baseball, he triumphed over the Athletics, 6 to 4, while Shawkey relieved him in the ninth when the Mackmen began to get free with their bats.

Nine pitchers went in and out of a long-distance batting spree between the Red Sox, and the Senators, which the latter won by the rare score of fourteen to twelve.

Woodall, catching for Detroit, threw a lemon yesterday, allowing three runs for the White Sox, and contributing largely to the latter's 11 to 7 victory. Woodall's wild throw to first hit Mostil, the runner, in the back, and zoomed into right field, completely messing the works.

The Phillies made a clean-sweep of their three-game series with the Braves by taking the final game, 3 to 0. Ulrich held Boston to four scattered hits, allowing only one man to reach second.

The Cards drove another rivet into their hold on first place in the national league race, by knocking Ray Kremer out of the box in the seventh and taking the final game of the series from the Pirates, 5 to 2.

STUB GRIDDERS DOWN TO WORK

STEUBENVILLE, Sept. 2.— More than 40 youthful pigskin aspirants are working out here daily under the direction of Coach Charles Cartledge as Steubenville high launches its 1926 grid campaign.

Boss Cartledge is working his charges at North End field. Equipment has been distributed to at least three full teams.

The big squad will be led by Captain Toney Reducca. Joe Feist, Jimmy, Shutt, Louie Welsh, Buddy Coles, Harry Smith, Given, Freeland, McGirty, Cliff Spellacy and Trombetti compose the group which brings experience worth considering.

The others in the squad are Deluca, Morelli, Owens, Loftus, Blackburn, Baker, Tepsic, Carafas, P. Stout, Walker, Ruben, Ainsworth, Gaffney, B. Smith, Mock, Stecker, Cole, Luke, Arthurs, Chambers, Polonofsky, Lee, Gavin, Riley, Downer, Wonovich, Garvin, Boss Smith, G. Geschelder, C. Geschelder, Stanko and Longo.

Until the opening of school when the squad will be increased by at least 20 others, there will be "grass drills," practice in punting, running back kicks, getting down on the line, and in fact every fundamental of the game and some stiffer work.

Can't See How Champ Dempsey Could Lose

By Davis J. Walsh.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—Tim Mara and Chicago O'Brien may be laying serious money on the nose, as it were, against Jack Dempsey's chances of emerging from the forthcoming unpleasantness, in toto and as was, but then neither of those gamboleers talked today to Teddy Hayes, the champion's ex-trainer. The writer did and Theodore experienced practically no difficulty in making himself clear on the point that he didn't see how Dempsey could go wrong.

That crack would have come under the head of professional persiflage in the old days but it ceases to become non-significant when the fact is considered that the worthy Hayes no longer is associated with Dempsey—by mutual consent. He, therefore, can tell what he deems to be the truth witth a clear conscience. truth with a clear conscience.

"The fight won't last six rounds," he said, in his best take-it-or-leave-it manner. "As soon as Dempsey finds out that Tunney is a little timid and wants to box, he'll swarm all over Gene and just about tear up the ring. No mere boxer without a punch has a chance with Jack Dempsey; when he loses, it will be a fighter who 'takes' him."

The writer suggested that perhaps Mr. Hayes was confusing a man who had been out of the ring three years with the Dempsey that was.

"I don't care if he has been out of the ring ten years," was the reply. "These counter-fighters are Dempsey's meat. They ask him to come and hit them and he doesn't need a second invitation. And when he hits them, they're hit."

Without actually knowing, I strongly suspect that this sentiment is as much Jack Kearns' as it is Hayes. The latter is well acquainted with his apple but he would hardly feel so certain of his ideas if Kearns was in disagreement with them. The pair of them meet daily.

"A rough, tough puncher like Dempsey himself, a man who can beat him at his own game, will win the title eventually," the little trainer added. "He met such a man in Firpo and everybody knows how close he came to tossing that one off. We knew it was going to be close all the time because we knew Firpo was the type of fighter who figured to give Dempsey the most trouble.

Didn't Lose Head.

"A lot of people thought Jack lost his head in that fight. He didn't at all. He obeyed our instructions implicitly and it would have been all over in a round if he hadn't become careless.

"We told him to walk right out at Firpo and begin hitting him. It wasn't a minute until Firpo was down and, inside of 30 second or more, he was ready for the finisher. But Jack walked into one with his guard down and nearly ruined himself.

"Firpo was one of those babies you couldn't afford to play around with. You had to smack him down quick and Dempsey did it in the first minute of play. If he hadn't, there's no telling what might have happened."

Local League Stars Win Second Tilt of Inter-City Series

Turn Back Midlanders, 5 to 3, at Smith Field; Third Clash Saturday

Wilde Holds Pennsylvanians to Three Scattered Hits; Potters Bunch Four Bingles, Walk, to Score Five Runs.

BILL MUNDY'S East Liverpool City Industrial league pickup team took another fall out of the Midland All Stars last evening at Smith Field, 5 to 3, hanging up their second straight victory of the scheduled five-game series.

Neither club was able to solve the opposing pitcher's delivery for more than a few hits, but both profited by the hurlers' wildnesses.

Wilde, Chester first bagman and pitcher, turned in a three-hit performance for the victors, permitting one triple and two singles. He fanned six, but allowed five walks and hit three.

Yoboid was touched up for three hits in four innings, and Black gave up one in the last two frames of the contest which went only six innings, being called as darkness settled over the field.

Yoboid and Black struck out five between them and gave a total of six walks, Yoboid being charged with four of them.

The Midlanders drew first blood, scoring in the first inning on a triple by B. Black and a single by R. Black and added another in the second on a pass to Heckathorne, a sacrifice by Gordon, then a couple more walks and a sacrifice fly by B. Black.

Rally in Fourth.

In the fourth, Sunday walked, went to second on Yoboid's sacrifice and scored on a hit by B. Black.

At this point the locals began to stir around and went out and chalked up five runs before the frame was over. Four hits, two bases on balls and a wild pitch did the trick.

With one out, Eddie Bayley singled Mundy walked and they worked a double steal. Herbert singled, scoring Bayley, and Mundy came in on a wild pitch. McShane walked and on Parsons' single, Herbert scored. Schneidmiller crashed out a two-baser, scoring McShane and Parsons.

Wilde let three strikes slide past him and Evans lined to Andrews who threw to B. Black for a double play before Schneidmiller could get back to the bag.

Midland had their Sunday catching and the locals their Mundy at first base.

The third clash of the series will be staged Saturday afternoon at Midland.

The odds are against an East Liverpool victory, but in the event that that is the way it turns out, the series will formally be concluded.

By winning their final home game from the Pittsburgh Pirates while the Cincinnati Reds were idle, the St. Louis Cardinals today held a somewhat firmer grasp on first place in the hectic National league pennant race. The Cardinals thus gained a full game on the Pirates and now are approximately two games in front of the world's champions. They gained a half game on the Reds and now top the latter by one game.

Yesterday marked the final appearance of the Cardinals on the home ground this season, unless they get into the world series.

The New York Yankees increased their lead over Cleveland in the American league to six games by beating the Philadelphia Athletics while the Indians were idle.

INSIDE Ggolf

By CHESTER HORTON.
Maker of 51 Golf Champions. "Golf's most successful teacher," says "Chick" Evans.

Some of the smallest things and apparently the most unimportant details can often keep a golfer who is in ignorance of them in the duffer class for years. One of these is the exact location of the ball in the address. In this, the individual player should find some point on which he can absolutely rely. Beyond that he can experiment some, always with the understanding that he knows the spot to return to in the event the experiments go bad. One of the best general rules in this regard is this: Take a square stance, with the feet not too far apart, yet not so close together that a feeling of solidity on the ground is lost. From this position have the ball, for wood clubs, on a line with the left heel. In the address have the hands exactly on a line with the ball. For irons, let the ball be moved back about three inches. In the address have the hands about an inch in front of the ball. For aevrage players that position holds good almost invariably.

TAGGING ALL --BASES--

Dutch Ruether, the convalescent young man who recently joined the Yankees by way of Washington, had his coming-out party yesterday. Pitching eight innings of beautiful baseball, he triumphed over the Athletics, 6 to 4, while Shawkey relieved him in the ninth when the Mackmen began to get free with their bats.

Nine pitchers went in and out of a long-distance batting spree between the Red Sox and the Senators, which the latter won by the rare score of fourteen to twelve.

Woodall, catching for Detroit, threw a lemon yesterday, allowing three runs for the White Sox, and contributing largely to the latter's 11 to 7 victory. Woodall's wild throw to first hit Mostil, the runner, in the back, and zoomed into right field, completely messing the works.

The Phillies made a clean-sweep of their three-game series with the Braves by taking the final game, 3 to 0. Ulrich held Boston to four scattered hits, allowing only one man to reach second.

The Cards drove another rivet into their hold on first place in the national league race, by knocking Ray Kremer out of the box in the seventh and taking the final game of the series from the Pirates, 5 to 2.

NO KEARNS IN JACK'S CORNER

Will Champ Miss Expert Handling Between Rounds?

ATLANTIC CITY, Sept. 2. — Will Jack Dempsey miss Jack Kearns when he squares off against Gene Tunney on the night of September 23 at the sesqui stadium in Philadelphia?

Will he miss the final words of advice, the pat on the back and the expert handling between rounds?

The champion hasn't said much about it—in fact, he declares he has not given much thought to the final battle formation in his corner—but those who have seen Kearns steer him through five championship fights are inclined to believe that Dempsey will feel his responsibilities weighing more heavily upon him when he sits in his corner awaiting the first bell than at any time since he broke with his former manager. For the Tunney fight, Dempsey will have three men in his corner.

One will be Gus Wilson, training supervisor; another, Jerry Luvadis, his faithful personal attendant, and the third will probably be Gene Normile.

Dempsey never moves a step in this fighting business without Jerry tagging him. Wilson is considered an expert second capable of rating the fighter in the opposite corner and experienced in making the most of the minute's rest between rounds. Normile is not accustomed to the rigors and the exciting responsibilities of the Quennsberry firing line, but he may sit in to lend his moral support. It is possible, however, that Gene will yield his corner privilege to a more experienced second.

CHALLENGER GETS OVATION

Cheered All Along Route to Stroudsburg Camp.

STROUDSBURG, Pa., Sept. 2.—Gene Tunney, challenger for the world's heavyweight title, was taking it easy at his training camp here today. He arrived last night from Philadelphia after a thrilling trip that will linger long in his memory.

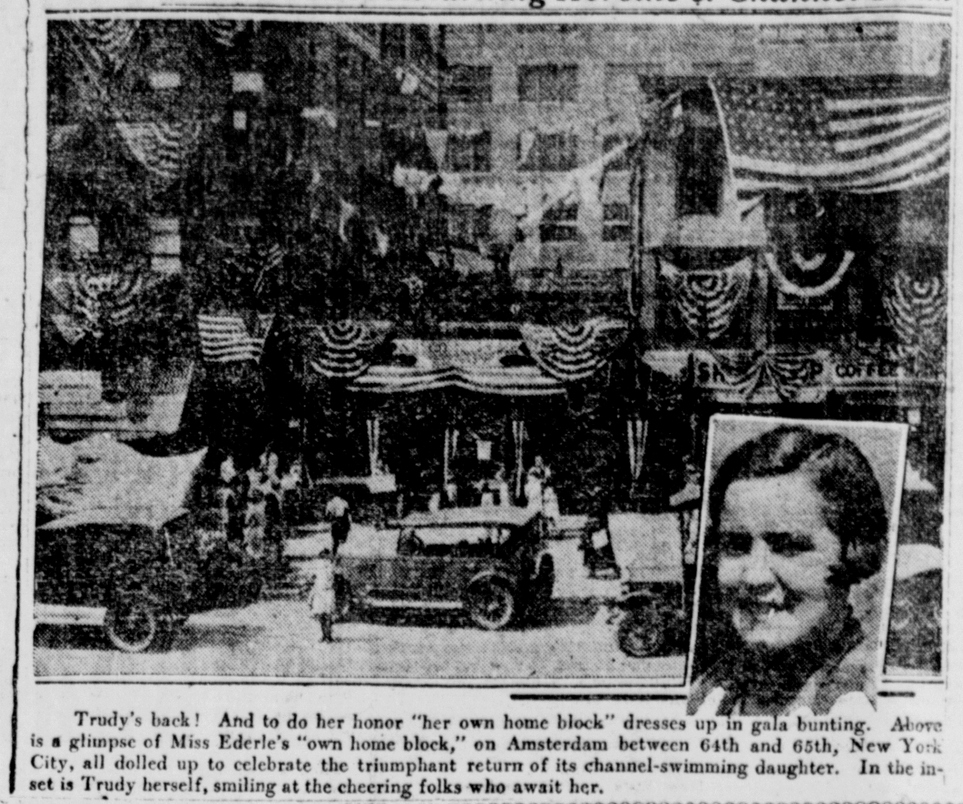

Tunney was hailed along the route as though he had won the title from Jack Dempsey—not as if he were merely a challenger for a title. More than 200,000 dyed-in-the-wool fight fans turned out to see him. Approximately half of this number greeted him in Philadelphia.

Stroudsburg is not as big as Philadelphia, but it did its best. Fully 4,500 of the 12,000 souls who live and thrive in this city were on hand when Mayor Clarence L. Edinger rode with Tunney down Main street, sirens heralding the approach of the challenger. Every motor car along the route then joined in the chorus. Stroudsburg never rocked with noise of such volume since Armistice day.

The local post of the American Legion was on hand to welcome Tunney. He was photographed with the overseas boys; he was protographed with the mayor. Jerry Ox wanted to be photographed with him, but was suppressed. There were no speeches, although the populace demanded a few words from Tunney.

Flappers and matrons rushed up and shook hands with Gene. One said she wanted to kiss him. But she didn't. Gene balked. A mild form of hysteria gripped the welcoming host. This mild hysteria is common under such circumstances.

LADY ASTOR TELLS MAINE FOLKS HOW TO RAISE THEIR FAMILIES

ISLEBORO, Maine—Telling of her work for the betterment of children, Lady Nancy Astor, M. P., made what she called her only platform speech before 300 permanent residents here. Summer residents were politely excluded from the town hall where the distinguished visitor delivered her address.

Lady Astor appeared at the invitation of the Isleboro Board of Trade. She urged the uplifting and upbuilding of character in the rising generation, and explained why she had entered politics. At the conclusion of her talk she stationed herself at the door and shook hands with every one as they left.

Lady Astor's opening was an inquiry regarding reporters, and she was assured only one was present, and he got in by accident, anyhow.

After telling of her work for the children Lady Astor told of her aid to her husband when he was an M. P., and of her decision to seek the vacant seat when he went into the Lords.

She said she did not wonder that at first the presence of a woman was distasteful to the 600 other members of the House of Commons, and adding that the presence of a man would be as distasteful to a gathering of 600 women. She said she intended to stand for Parliament as long as the people wanted her.

Lady Astor declined to comment on Maine politics. She said she knew nothing about them, but she did say she understood Maine had a very nice governor.

Haskin's Letter

dyspeptic, according to these experts, spends too much time telling about his sufferings, and about what foods do not agree with him, and as a rule his ideas about certain foods not agreeing with him are purely fanciful. The distress which follows eating them is the result of fear, and leads in time to the patient's proscribing a long list of foods as dangerous to him personally, although others around him are eating them without untoward aftereffects.

Conspicuous examples cited of this wrong mental attitude toward foods are the frequently heard protestations that certain combinations of food, such as milk and fruit, oysters and sweets, crab s and milk, lobsters and ice cream, and the like, are dangerous or positively harmful. Physiologists say there is no evidence whatever that there is anything harmful about eating these foods at the same time.

The thing to do, it seems, is to eat what you like and like what you eat, always bearing in mind that there is such a thing as a balanced diet that is highly desirable. This balanced diet may well include cake and pie, just as it will include an almost infinite variety of other foods.

FIND RATS, TOADS AND 50 KINDS OF POISONS IN BOOTLEG LIQUOR

PITTSBURGH — More than 50 varieties of poisons, ranging from wood alcohols to ether, and including arsenic, nitro-benzine and iodine are to be found in bootleg liquor now on the market, according to F. E. Malloy, chief government chemist attached to the Pittsburgh prohibition headquarters.

In addition to the poisons which were more or less invisible to the purchasers, Malloy found rats, mice, lizards, toads and a variegated collection of insects in mash seized by federal agents and brought to him to be analyzed, a report submitted by him to Administrator John D. Pennington shows.

"The greater part of the moonshine produced today is made under unsanitary conditions allowing many poisonous substances to enter the product," Malloy said.

Many medicinal preparations are used by the bootleg fraternity for manufacture of their wares, the report shows. These preparations often contain deadly doses of arsenic, strychnine, tartar emetic, quinine, morphine, cocaine, prussic acid and practically any other poison which may be administered in liquid form.

NO KEARNS IN JACK'S CORNER

Will Champ Miss Expert Handling Between Rounds?

ATLANTIC CITY, Sept. 2. — Will Jack Dempsey miss Jack Kearns when he squares off against Gene Tunney on the night of September 23 at the sesqui stadium in Philadelphia?

Will he miss the final words of advice, the pat on the back and the expert handling between rounds?

The champion hasn't said much about it—in fact, he declares he has not given much thought to the final battle formation in his corner—but those who have seen Kearns steer him through five championship fights are inclined to believe that Dempsey will feel his responsibilities weighing more heavily upon him when he sits in his corner awaiting the first bell than at any time since he broke with his former manager. For the Tunney fight, Dempsey will have three men in his corner.

One will be Gus Wilson, training supervisor; another, Jerry Luvadis, his faithful personal attendant, and the third will probably be Gene Normile.

Dempsey never moves a step in this fighting business without Jerry tagging him. Wilson is considered an expert second capable of rating the fighter in the opposite corner and experienced in making the most of the minute's rest between rounds. Normile is not accustomed to the rigors and the exciting responsibilities of the Quennsberry firing line, but he may sit in to lend his moral support. It is possible, however, that Gene will yield his corner privilege to a more experienced second.

CHALLENGER GETS OVATION

Cheered All Along Route to Stroudsburg Camp.

STROUDSBURG, Pa., Sept. 2.—Gene Tunney, challenger for the world's heavyweight title, was taking it easy at his training camp here today. He arrived last night from Philadelphia after a thrilling trip that will linger long in his memory.

Tunney was hailed along the route as though he had won the title from Jack Dempsey—not as if he were merely a challenger for a title. More than 200,000 dyed-in-the-wool fight fants turned out to see him. Approximately half of this number greeted him in Philadelphia.

Stroudsburg is not as big as Philadelphia, but it did its best. Fully 4,500 of the 12,000 souls who live and thrive in this city were on hand when Mayor Clarence L. Edinger rode with Tunney down Main street, sirens heralding the approach of the challenger. Every motor car along the route then joined in the chorus. Stroudsburg never rocked with noise of such volume since Armistice day.

The local post of the American Legion was on hand to welcome Tunney. He was photographed with the overseas boys; he was protographed with the mayor. Jerry Ox wanted to be photographed with him, but was suppressed. There were no speeches, although the populace demanded a few words from Tunney.

Flappers and matrons rushed up and shook hands with Gene. One said she wanted to kiss him. But she didn't. Gene balked. A mild form of hysteria gripped the welcoming host. This mild hysteria is common under such circumstances.

Trudy's "Own Home Block" Puts on Festive Dress In Welcome to Returning Heroine of Channel Swim

SKULL PRACTICE

Connie Mack will take his Athletics back to Ft. Myers, Fla., again next spring. They did a much more graceful job of going to pieces this summer after training there.

New York Yanks used 20 men in effort to win ball game the other day but official scorer counted runs instead of players.

Jack Dempsey knocked one of his sparring partners unconscious in recent workout and Gene Tunney has been wondering ever since whether or not Jack was just fooling.

Cleveland, O., safety director announces he will clean up boxing game. After that's done he's going to dip the ocean dry with a spoon.

With the Dempsey-Tunney fight well under way in Pennsylvania the New York boxing commission is contemplating assuming control of foque.

France is the latest nation to be faced with worry over the Jap peril. But for Rene LeCoste the Japanese tennis team would now be preparing to meet the U. S. in the Davis cup matches.

LADY ASTOR TELLS MAINE FOLKS HOW TO RAISE THEIR FAMILIES

ISLEBORO, Maine—Telling of her work for the betterment of children, Lady Nancy Astor, M. P., made what she called her only platform speech before 300 permanent residents here. Summer residents were politely excluded from the town hall where the distinguished visitor delivered her address.

Lady Astor appeared at the invitation of the Isleboro Board of Trade. She urged the uplifting and upbuilding of character in the rising generation, and explained why she had entered politics. At the conclusion of her talk she stationed herself at the door and shook hands with every one as they left.

Lady Astor's opening was an inquiry regarding reporters, and she was assured only one was present, and he got in by accident, anyhow.

After telling of her work for the children Lady Astor told of her aid to her husband when he was an M. P., and of her decision to seek the vacant seat when he went into the Lords.

She said she did not wonder that at first the presence of a woman was distasteful to the 600 other members of the House of Commons, and adding that the presence of a man would be as distasteful to a gathering of 600 women. She said she intended to stand for Parliament as long as the people wanted her.

Lady Astor declined to comment on Maine politics. She said she knew nothing about them, but she did say she understood Maine had a very nice governor.

dyspeptic, according to these experts, spends too much time telling about his sufferings, and about what foods do not agree with him, and as a rule his ideas about certain foods not agreeing with him are purely fanciful. The distress which follows eating them is the result of fear, and leads in time to the patient's proscribing a long list of foods as dangerous to him personally, although others around him are eating them without untoward aftereffects.

Conspicuous examples cited of this wrong mental attitude toward foods are the frequently heard protestations that certain combinations of food, such as milk and fruit, oysters and sweets, crab s and milk, lobsters and ice cream, and the like, are dangerous or positively harmful. Physiologists say there is no evidence whatever that there is anything harmful about eating these foods at the same time.

The thing to do, it seems, is to eat what you like and like what you eat, always bearing in mind that there is such a thing as a balanced diet that is highly desirable. This balanced diet may well include cake and pie, just as it will include an almost infinite variety of other foods.

FIND RATS, TOADS AND 50 KINDS OF POISONS IN BOOTLEG LIQUOR

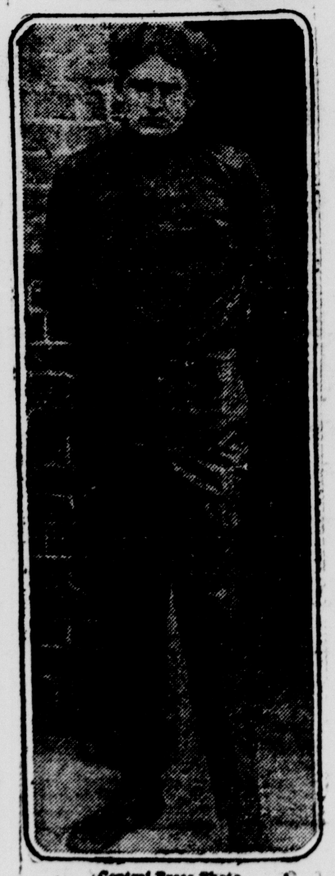

PITTSBURGH — More than 50 varieties of poisons, ranging from wood alcohols to ether, and including arsenic, nitro-benzine and iodine are to be found in bootleg liquor now on the market, according to F. E. Malloy, chief government chemist attached to the Pittsburgh prohibition headquarters.

In addition to the poisons which were more or less invisible to the purchasers, Malloy found rats, mice, lizards, toads and a variegated collection of insects in mash seized by federal agents and brought to him to be analyzed, a report submitted by him to Administrator John D. Pennington shows.

"The greater part of the moonshine produced today is made under unsanitary conditions allowing many poisonous substances to enter the product," Malloy said.

Many medicinal preparations are used by the bootleg fraternity for manufacture of their wares, the report shows. These preparations often contain deadly doses of arsenic, strychnine, tartar emetic, quinine, morphine, cocaine, prussic acid and practically any other poison which may be administered in liquid form.

"Kinnie" Wagner, Gives Self Up to Woman Sheriff

Central Press Photo

Karl "Kinnie" Wagner" 25-year-old Arkansas desperado whose exploits have become near-classics, gave himself up to the woman Sheriff of Miller County with the explanation, "I'm tired of being hunted. I don't want to dodge people any more." He has once escaped the electric chair and is held responsible for many killings, most of which he admits freely, boasting that he has never been arrested for any other crime than murder.

WESTERN FARMERS URGED TO FIGHT UNTIL LAST PRAIRIE DOG IS DEAD

TOPEKA, KAN.—Millions of prairie dogs are destroying wide acres of pasture land in western Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas and other sections of the southwest. Twenty years ago the farmers and cattle men of western Kansas waged a fairly successful war on this pest. Poisoned oats were poured into the holes they dug and that led down to their homes in the ground. Nothing more was done to exterminate the dogs, and in twenty years they have again become a menace to grazing lands of the southwest.

In these prairie dog "towns" much grass is covered with the soil of their mounds, built up as a sentinel post that the dogs may observe intruders into their territory. Dr. G. E. Johnson, mammalogist of the State Agricultural college, reminds the farmers of Kansas and the southwest that "the grass destroyed or eaten by the prairie dog produces no milk or no beef." It is estimated that 265 prairie dogs use as much grass as one cow.

Thousands of farmers have neglected to follow up the plan of poisoning the prairie dogs, and the colonies or "towns" have increased greatly.

In the new campaign launched against prairie dogs in the southwest, every township trustee and every land owner or tenant are urged to carry on till the last "dog" is killed. Each adult pair of prairie dogs raises a litter of three or four young dogs every year.

Good Health His Only Capital.

This is true of many working men, (and women also) dogged with a haunting fear of ill-health and helplessness. Wm. F. Lagle, Anderson, Ind., heeds nature's warning sign of pain and acts promptly: "When my back hurts and an irregular flow warns me of coming trouble, I take Foley Pills, a diuretic stimulent for the kidneys. They give me quick results." A reliable, valuable medicine, constantly in use over 25 years. Satisfaction guaranteed. Cost little. Sold everywhere. Ask for Foley Pills, diuretic.

FALL STYLES FOR 1926 MORE INTRIGUING FOR SCREEN STARS

HOLLYWOOD, Cal.—Fall styles this year are even more intriguing than last year, according to Aileen Pringle, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer player, who is known as "one of the best dressed women on the screen."

"The fascinating thing about this year's fashions," Miss Pringle explained, "is the fact there's a style for everyone. Designers have been more than kind to every type of woman.

"Length of skirts vary from five inches from the floor to fourteen inches from the floor. The flappers will be delighted with the novelty suits—short jackets and short skirts, made of plaids and brilliant colors.

"The sophisticated type can go in for velvet and soft furs; long skirts and soft, small, crush turbans.

"The demure misses will love the period evening gowns of taffeta and lace. They are very long, with full skirts and tight bodices and large, droopy hats for evening wear."

An elaborate dream sequence, employing hundreds of people, and comprising one of the most novel scenes ever incorporated in a picture, was photographed by Monta Bell for his production of "The Boy Friend," which comes to the American theatre as a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture today for a three-day engagement. It is the dream of John Harron as Joe Pond, "The boy friend," who, believing that he is disgraced and has lost his girl, has a nightmare in which he sees the faults and virtues of his enemies and friends exaggerated many fold.

The "kick" of the dream, however, is the fact that everyone is charming. Joe has tried to impress upon the small town consciousness the importance of manners and graciousness without appreciable results. In his dream he sees everyone, the traffic cop, garbage man and horse included, wearing dinner clothes, and being "charming."

Marceline Day plays opposite John aHrron in "The Boy Friend," and Ward Crane, Gertrude Astor, Elizabeth Patterson, Maidel Turner, Otto Hoffman, George K. Arthur, Gwen Lee and others are in the cast. Alice D. G. Miller wrote the adaptation from the stage success of last season, "The Book of Charm," by John Alexander Kirkpatrick.

WESTERN FARMERS URGED TO FIGHT UNTIL LAST PRAIRIE DOG IS DEAD

TOPEKA, KAN.—Millions of prairie dogs are destroying wide acres of pasture land in western Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas and other sections of the southwest. Twenty years ago the farmers and cattle men of western Kansas waged a fairly successful war on this pest. Poisoned oats were poured into the holes they dug and that led down to their homes in the ground. Nothing more was done to exterminate the dogs, and in twenty years they have again become a menace to grazing lands of the southwest.

In these prairie dog "towns" much grass is covered with the soil of their mounds, built up as a sentinel post that the dogs may observe intruders into their territory. Dr. G. E. Johnson, mammalogist of the State Agricultural college, reminds the farmers of Kansas and the southwest that "the grass destroyed or eaten by the prairie dog produces no milk or no beef." It is estimated that 265 prairie dogs use as much grass as one cow.

Thousands of farmers have neglected to follow up the plan of poisoning the prairie dogs, and the colonies or "towns" have increased greatly.

In the new campaign launched against prairie dogs in the southwest, every township trustee and every land owner or tenant are urged to carry on till the last "dog" is killed. Each adult pair of prairie dogs raises a litter of three or four young dogs every year.

Cottage Prayer Meeting.

Good Health His Only Capital.

This is true of many working men, (and women also) dogged with a haunting fear of ill-health and helplessness. Wm. F. Lagle, Anderson, Ind., heeds nature's warning sign of pain and acts promptly: "When my back hurts and an irregular flow warns me of coming trouble, I take Foley Pills, a diuretic stimulent for the kidneys. They give me quick results." A reliable, valuable medicine, constantly in use over 25 years. Satisfaction guaranteed. Cost little. Sold everywhere. Ask for Foley Pills, diuretic.

FALL STYLES FOR 1926 MORE INTRIGUING FOR SCREEN STARS

HOLLYWOOD, Cal.—Fall styles this year are even more intriguing than last year, according to Aileen Pringle, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer player, who is known as "one of the best dressed women on the screen."

"The fascinating thing about this year's fashions," Miss Pringle explained, "is the fact there's a style for everyone. Designers have been more than kind to every type of woman.

"Length of skirts vary from five inches from the floor to fourteen inches from the floor. The flappers will be delighted with the novelty suits—short jackets and short skirts, made of plaids and brilliant colors.

"The sophisticated type can go in for velvet and soft furs; long skirts and soft, small, crush turbans.

"The demure misses will love the period evening gowns of taffeta and lace. They are very long, with full skirts and tight bodices and large, droopy hats for evening wear."

An elaborate dream sequence, employing hundreds of people, and comprising one of the most novel scenes ever incorporated in a picture, was photographed by Monta Bell for his production of "The Boy Friend," which comes to the American theatre as a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture today for a three-day engagement. It is the dream of John Harron as Joe Pond, "The boy friend," who, believing that he is disgraced and has lost his girl, has a nightmare in which he sees the faults and virtues of his enemies and friends exaggerated many fold.

The "kick" of the dream, however, is the fact that everyone is charming. Joe has tried to impress upon the small town consciousness the importance of manners and graciousness without appreciable results. In his dream he sees everyone, the traffic cop, garbage man and horse included, wearing dinner clothes, and being "charming."

Marceline Day plays opposite John aHrron in "The Boy Friend," and Ward Crane, Gertrude Astor, Elizabeth Patterson, Maidel Turner, Otto Hoffman, George K. Arthur, Gwen Lee and others are in the cast. Alice D. G. Miller wrote the adaptation from the stage success of last season, "The Book of Charm," by John Alexander Kirkpatrick.
